& Jane Steele was married - february the 10 - 1825 = William henderson was born November the 5 = 1825"

- (9) Turning the page (reverse side of 8) there are twelve entries:

- "John henderson was Born August the " (Page is torn - day is possibly the 3rd and year possibly 1828 - as best I can make out)
- "Rachel henderson was Born November the 17 1829"
- "James henderson was Born November 27, 1831"
- "leah Jane henderson was Born december the (ink blot) 1833"
- "Allen henderson was Born october the 3 1835"
- "Smith henderson was Born october the 3 1835"
- "John henderson was Born May the 16(?) 1839" (The name John here is blurred as if written using a pen overloaded with ink. However, I'm satisfied that this name is John. Further, I believe that the first John (a) had died, perhaps a short time before the younger John (g) was born. This could also explain why the older John (a) is not accounted for in the 1840 census record that I think is of this Henderson family.)
- "Sarah henderson was born March the 7 1841"
- "henry henderson was Born November the 17 1842"
- "Amanda Mulvina henderson was Born November the 16 1846"
- "Robbert Calvin henderson was Born August the 17 1849"
- "A. Matild Wray was Born in the year 1848" (I believe this child was not the daughter of John M. Henderson, but probably was his granddaughter.)

Following The Book of Psalms at the very end of this Bible are these records:

- (10) After Psalms page 112 are six entries, one of which is a duplicate (e is the same as f):

- "John M. henderson his Book"
- "June the 29 1885 that James Henderson was married to Josa delartie at Marshfield Webster Countey monauria"
- "July the 5 1885 bera (Benjamin) was married to lida dush"
- "August 17 (The day 18 has been written over to make it 17.) 1885"

- that Eba was married to Mary randolf"
- e. "february the 29 1892 that Charley was married to minna Sholte in Columbus Stat of Indana"
 - f. "Charley Henderson was married to Minnie Schulte february the 29 1892"

(11) Turning the page (reverse side of 10) is a single entry:
 "Efel Henderson died on the 16 of January 1893"

(12) Next page (facing 11) has six entrees:

- a. "marion morrison and marget henderson was married no (on) the 14 of february 1878"
- b. "tomas morrison was born the 14 of April 1879" (the year 1889 has been over written to make it 1879.)
- c. "Efel Henderson was born the 11 of August 1892 died January the 16 in 1893"
- d. "lula Henderson died January the 7 1893"
- e. "lilea Smith died on the 9 of October 1893"
- f. "Charley Wait died on the 19 of September 1893"

This completes the record entered in the John H. Henderson Bible.

Hi Shirley,

Glad the packaged arrived. I have some more things that I'm still working on. I had intended to send you a letter that Corine, Thomas E.'s granddaughter, had sent me several years ago when we were first trying to gather information. It has some correct information and some that is kind of mixed up.

I noticed on the death certificate of James Spence Henderson that they had his father listed as Charles William. On all the census he is always listed as William, and Corine referred to him as William Christopher.

I did notice also that one of James and Josie's children that died and is buried in Marshfield, Mo was named Charles.

I have been in the birth records for Indiana. The is where we found that Ebenezer and Mary had lived in Missouri and had a couple of children and then moved to Indiana and had about three more, I think, then moved back to Missouri. Do you have any idea where Mary and the children might have gone after Ebenezer passed away in 1907. I found them in 1910 living in Marshfield, Mo. After I got to thinking about Ebenezer's movement from Illinois, to Missouri, to Indiana, and back to Missouri, it would make sense that William and Sarah and Wesley moved to Missouri with them and decided to move back to Indiana after Wesley died and Ebenezer and Mary went with them.

Just a theory.

Have a good evening.

Talk to you later,
Marjorie

Good Morning,

Lydia passed away April 2, 1927 in Webster County, Niangua township, Missouri

Benjamin passed away Dec. 7, 1940 Webster County, ozark township, Missouri.

Both are buried in the Marshfield Cemetery. When we go down to that area again, My husband's mother still lives in the area, we want to go to the cemetaries and take pictures of the tombstones. We have gone through the Marshfield Cemetery, but we have a lot more information now. Perhaps we can match the stones to people.

You had mentioned Jessie who had married Jake Minor. We know that they had moved to California, they did not have any children, and supposedly she died by burning up in bed. The notes we have on her was that she died in California from smoking in bed. We have a telegram that was sent to John Allen asking for money to have Jessie's body brought back to Missouri. I'll have to dig out the note to get a date from it, but I'm guessing it must have been after John Allen and Donna were married, which was Jan. 17, 1936 and before 1940 when Benjamin passed away.

I'll have to go searching for those three children, I don't remember seeing them listed with anyone else. Donna doesn't remember a thing about anyone talking about them.

As the story goes, John Allen was nine years old when Lydia died and He and Charles lived with Benjamin until they got married. Donna and John lived with Benjamin for a while after they were married, but I don't remember if they stayed with him until he died. I'll have to remember to question her more. I guess we waited a little late to begin our searching of ancestry because most of the older ones that could answer a lot of questions are gone.

Talk with you later

Marjorie

Dear Shirley,

I'm sorry we are so slow. I have been trying to run off some census that I thought you might not have.

We were wondering if you have any idea why Benjamin, Ebenezer and James left Illinois and went to Missouri. It looks like most of the others moved from Illinois back to Indiana. Do you think that William and Sarah ever moved to Missouri? That is the only explanation for Wesley dying in LaClede County, MO. Bible record

In your information you say that he is buried. The information we have leads us to believe that Benjamin and Lydia lived in Niangua, Mo. because we know that my husband's father, John Allen, graduated from Niangua High School. Niangua is just about 8 miles from Conway, MO.

Another strange thing is that Lydia Dush, Benjamin's wife, Mary Randolph, Ebenzer's wife, can be found in the 1880 census living with Elizabeth Jane and Joseph Armel in Shelby County, Illinois.

Benjamin, James and Ebenezer are found in the 1880 Census in Christian County, Illinois. It appears that they were in Missouri in 1885 because that is where we find marriage records. I've included these census for you.

Another strange thing we have found is in the 1920 census for Benjamin and Lydia. It shows three additional children born to them. Paul, Mary and Lucille. These three and Lydia are not found on the 1930 census and none of the family that we can contact have any knowledge of them. I was wondering if you or perhaps the relatives of James, that you are conversing with, might have found some reference to them.

As you will see from what we are sending, we have not been researching very long and are still putting things together. I'm sorry that our information isn't as detailed as yours.

Thank you so much for your information. We are still comparing and I am sure we will have more inquiries for you.

I am enclosing a couple of pictures that were taken at Benjamin Franklin's funeral. One shows his sons. The other shows all the nephews. Also, there is a family picture that must have been taken around 1916 because it shows John Allen at about 1 year old and he was born in 1915.

We plan to put what we have in the mail in the next few days.

We were wondering if you have any idea why Benjamin Ebenzer and James left Illinois and went to Missouri. It looks like most of the others moved from Illinois back to Indiana. Do you think that William and Sarah ever moved to Missouri? That is the only explanation for Wesley dying in Jackson County, MO.

In your information you say that he is buried. The information we have leads us to believe that Benjamin and Lydia lived in Indiana. We know that my husband's father, John Allen, graduated from Indiana High School. Indiana is just about 5 miles from Quincy, MO.

Another strange thing is that Lydia (last, Benjamin's wife, Mary Randolph, Ebenzer's wife) can be found in the 1880 census living with Elizabeth Jane and Joseph Anna in Shelby County, Illinois. Benjamin, James and Ebenzer are found in the 1880 Census in Christian County, Illinois. It appears that they were in Missouri in 1885 because that is where we find marriage records. I've included these census for you.

Another strange thing we have found is in the 1850 census for Benjamin and Lydia. It shows three additional children born to them: Paul, Mary and Lucille. These three and Lydia are not found on the 1850 census and none of the family that we can contact have any knowledge of them. I was wondering if you or perhaps the relatives of James, that you are connected with, might have found some reference to them.

As you will see from what we are sending, we have not been researching very long and are still putting things together. I'm sorry that our information isn't as detailed as yours. Thank you so much for your attention. We are still contacting and I am sure we will have more info for you.

Dear Shirley,

I quit my job 3 weeks ago and I've been having the most wonderful time playing with the ancestors. Concentrating on Hendersons. I have come upon a circumstance which reinforces my feeling that your John is in my line. In 1786 a John and an Andrew Henderson surveyed for the govt. the Bounty Lands in southern Mercer and Venango Counties. It stands to reason they were the sons of Andrew on the chart I enclose. There would be no ^{other} reason for my clutch of Hendersons to all settle ^{there} with lots of relatives they'd been with back in Ireland 100 years earlier. I think your John b 1806 is grandson of Dr. John. ~~And by more circumstantial evidence I am sure he is the grandson of this Dr. John who is in Huntingdon Co.~~
Andrew, d 1762 had -

John

William b 1756

Thomas b c 1767

Andrew b 1762

Elizabeth b 1755-61

I can account for all of them except John.

Dr. John m Elizabeth Allison and had -

Dr. M. Allison Henderson; lived Lock Haven, Pa

Dr. Andrew Henderson, a surgeon in USN

Robert b 10 Mar 1777 Franklin Co d 2 Dec 1840 moved to Huntingdon Co

1796 m 1802 Mary Elliott

2 other sons.

I think one of those sons was John who put together the land deal in Irwin twp, Venango with some others. He would have been the right age to handle the family deal; William's son my Andrew b 1785-88 didn't actually own his own property outright for a while, though he was living there in the mid teens. I don't think John b 1806 was born in Venango. I have been re-reading my county histories and I am sure he would be mentioned as one of the first children born. The 1890 is very thorough.

No one went in the DAR on a Penna John m to an Elizabeth, but he probably did fight in the Rev as his 3 brothers did and their mother lugged all her blankets to Valley Forge. So if I were you I'd write the Archives for the records on a John Henderson from Chester Co. I'd also write Huntingdon Co for the will of Dr. John who died sometime before 1850.

If I'm right, and I think I must be - I have so many odd bits in my head I won't go into, the names associated - on deeds, witnesses, etc. will be Canan, Dumars, Moore, Elder, Finney, Wilkins, Carlisle, Allison, McKean, Barlow, Stephenson, Creighton, Evans, Little, Hall, Crawford, McCelvy, Anderson, McCabe.

When you write Huntingdon, say you do not want the will in Book 3 page 122. That's brother Andrew's son John d 1824.

Hope you can make something out of all this. Let me know what happens if you decide to follow this line. Last time I wrote the Archives it took 4 whole months!!

Sincerely,

Joan

Dear Shirley,

I hope things have gone well with you since our visit. It seems we are always in a rush to do something. We have been doing a lot of yard work both here and in Bloomington, In. when we own a house. Our last trip there we went to Columbus to decorate the graves. Ray and I took a trip to Charleston, S.C. in April and to Holland, Mi. in May. We enjoyed them both very much. I guess you suspect we are flower lovers.

I'll say goodbye as Ray is waiting for this note and have a great summer.

Mother found the Shoemaker & Cleaver material. I was sent the Levering in the Cleaver flurry a few months ago.

Dear Shirley,

I'm sure you've rung the bell with Cleaver/Wright. Time is right, and 6 of your 10 names match; and poor Mr. Wright should certainly be allowed to name 4 after his side! So I'll copy my stuff for you tomorrow, and you can hold it till Mr. WJ Cleaver gives you the confirmation. He wrote me right away, because there was a lot he didn't have. ^{Some} Some people wait months to hear from him, so don't despair. And don't ever send me any $$$ for anything. So many people have sent me so much there's just no way to pay anyone for anything. And isn't it NICE to have gobs come in you haven't had to dig for! Trouble is, if you haven't done the work yourself it's practically impossible to keep it straight. At least for my weak brain! Mother worked on genealogy 30 years and I just took it up 3 years or so ago. I plan to quit work (a job I adore) in a year and a half and devote full-time to this passion! I already remind me of a little old lady in sneakers or DAR spearcarrier, so am sure it will be downhill from then on. Our usual Misearable Chicago summer is worse than usual, our bedroom is the only room in the house not airconditioned, so now I've given up making the bed!

What is the 1st largest gen library? I imagine the Newbury is 2nd. I can't get there because the @#%&* creeps are closed on Monday and so are we.

I sent to NEH&G for the Robert Henderson of Hendersonville again. I read it early on in my Henderson work and wanted to check it for both of us. You are NOT of that ~~branch~~ so lighten ship by throwing out whatever you have on it. When you get your 1857 Ven Co map the Charles and Archibald near Raymilton are the Robert Henderson line, so don't bother with them.

Please send me what you get from your Roots Cellar query. I can help winnow out the unlikelies. Did I tell you - the whole thing is compounded and confounded by a large and PROLIFIC colored Henderson family? Fine up-standing citizens who THEREFORE own property and make wills!!! Eeeek!! Andrew b 1786 had father William b 1756. Andrew was his only son.

Andrew's grandfather was Andrew who had 4 sons 1 dau. The only one I know nothing about is eldest son b c 1754 named John. So that is certainly a possibility. He might have had a grandson John who also went to Ven Co.

Enough of all this confusion! I'll keep trying to figure where your John could have come from.

If you ever get your Nicelys back a generation we may connect. It's a line I haven't done much about. Thanks for the Meeker page. I've passed it along to the one person who can figure it out if it's possible. Should you run across Jagger again I'd appreciate what you find.

Sincerely,

Jan

Dear Miss Hannaford,

I have seen your entry for John Henderson in the Roots Cellar and thought I should write you because I am probably more actively researching Henderson than anyone else right now. Since you entered him you may already have what you want to know by now. My ancestor is Andrew Henderson, grandfather of the Martha above, who was in Scrubgrass twp, Venango Co by 1816. One of the county histories errs in saying he was born in Westmoreland Co, and that held up my mother for 30 years and me for 2 until by a total miracle I found the right clue.

Andrew had no son John, but I believe he is a cousin. The first Henderson in our line was John who came with his brothers Edward and David to Chester Co by 1732. He had Andrew, Edward, John. Andrew (d 1762) had John William, Thomas, Andrew (whose only son d unmarried). William's only son was Andrew, ~~is~~ the one I first mentioned.

I was raised in Franklin, but can only get back every year or so so I have not been able to put everything together yet. However, if you will give me a little information I may be able to help you. Can you give me the name of John's wife, his children and grandchildren and the names of their spouses? Being "county" I have information stored in my head I don't know about that may fit a piece or two in the puzzle. Are you familiar with the county histories and have you been in touch with Helen Ray at the Franklin library, and the cemetery? When did John die and when was he born?

If you do not already have it, I think you would enjoy the 1857 Land Ownership Map. I think it costs $4.00 and the Oil City Library, 2 Central, Oil City 16301 will send you one. ~~you will find the Hendersons in the bottom left in Irwin and Sandy~~

Dear Shirley,

I am so glad to hear from you. Some of your information is quite curious! When you get your 1857 map you will see the road from Franklin through Waterloo (which was renamed Polk years and years ago) goes to the Mercer border. JUST a few hundred feet from there is a spot on the road called Hendersonville. Do you belong to NEH& Genealogical Society? If so, they have a rental book called Descendants of Robert Henderson of Hendersonville 1745-1810. It is possible you are of that line. I've read the book, but didn't pay much attention because I realized right away it wasn't my line. I don't have a copy of all the Mercer Co Henderson information from their Histories, so I think if I were you I'd write Mercer Co Historical Society and ask them to copy the Henderson pages for you. It's quite confusing because some of my line IS mentioned in the Mercer Co. In the 1890 Venango 'John Henderson from Ireland with his father to Mercer Co c 1798. Then to Irwin twp (Venango). Fought in War of 1812 with a Mercer Co unit, m Mary Karl. Ch Robert, William, Jonathan, John F, Wesley, David, Mary, Margaret, Leslie. d c 1855 and his wife 6 years later.' Or yours may have come from Chester Co with my branch. Steele and Crail (Kroehl) are also Ven Co names. Back to the map - Clinton and Scrubgrass were originally all Scrubgrass twp. Those 3 bottom counties are all about 4 miles from bottom to top. My Christopher Dumars, who was always in the vicinity of the Hendersons (3 daughters m 3 of Andrews' sons) lived for a while about 2 miles into Butler Co and I do think Butler Co is more likely for your William than Butler, Ohio.

I suggest you write Helen Ray, Franklin Library, 12th & Buffalo, Franklin 16323 and ask her if there is in the obituary or newspaper files mention of a likely John. The cemeteries and newspapers are not yet all indexed, but she does have a fair amount. Mention my name or she will tell you to write me. Since you have the Ray name she may have some information of her own. Let me know what you learn from Mercer and Helen, and I will have another suggestion perhaps.

Now about the curious part - Amanda Melvina isn't exactly a household word. On your child #6 you have penciled in Alexander, as though it were Allen's middle name, maybe. I enclose a group sheet for Samuel Alexander. You will note your use of the names Rachel, John, Amanda M, and Robert. Last year I saw an entry in the Mormon microfiche for Amanda Malvina Alexander b about 1830, I think, and sent for the document. The entry had been made by a Robert Uhl. I wrote him but my letter was returned. Then I advertised for him in the Helper but no luck. Anyhow, his Amanda had been born in Washington Co, Pa. I think her father was probably Samuel's brother and their mother Amanda Malvina. I enclose pedigree sheet because it's a little hard to explain this isn't my Henderson side at all but my Vincents! Which leads me to believe your Hendersons are allied with mine rather than the Mercer group. All our tribe is in the SW of the county, which isn't much area. No one went north or east of the river. Another bit of interest - Washington Co Ohio is just a couple counties SW of Washington Co, Pa.

Well, I guess that's enough confusion for the moment - just a few things to think about.

About the other names you have mentioned on the stationery (glad you like it - a local printer does it for me and it's not very expensive). I'd appreciate it if you would look in your Meeker book. Does it mention a Sarah b 3 July 1776 m 15 Jan 1796 Elizabethtown NJ Silas Jagers? The work on this line has been done by a cousin of my husband and she says there are so many of them it's hopeless. They had 12 children and the only one with a strange name is a Zenas.

Townsend - Thomas d 1660 had Henry b Norwich Eng m Anna Cole. They had "Mill" John b Warwick, LI d 1705/6 m Esther Smith. They had Hannah d 11 Jan 1757 m Samson Hawxhurst. Townsend is a fairly hot item these days - lots of activity on the name. They were Quakers and forever being fined and thrown in jail..They practically commuted between Barbados, RI, and Mass & NY.

My only Wright is my grandfather's middle name and I think he was named after a famous friend in Luzerne Co. Kenny's Wright - Jacob m Sarah had John b c 1741 Md m Jemima Hendon 4 May 1762 Baltimore, d Huntingdon Co Pa. 9 children, one of whom Sarah b 1764 Md d 1850 Licking Co, Ohio m David Gosnell.

Peter Cleaver b 1667 Lower Rhine d 1727 Bristol twp Pa m 26 Mar 1695 Abingdon Mtg Gertrude-Catharine Shoemaker. 7 children John b c 1705 d 1773 Bristol twp m 28 Feb 1728 Abingdon mtg Elizabeth (Levering) Talor. 6 ch. John b 1743 Bristol twp d 1832 Catawissa m 1765 Sarah. 7 ch. Sarah b 1784 Montgomery Co, Pa d 12 Feb 1865 Catawissa m 1807 John Pugh Davis. I have a lace cap she made; we wear it when we're baptized. Some months ago a woman advertised in Yankee Magazine for Cleaver and the world fell in on her. The whole world wrote her. One of those people had her write me, and when the dust settled she put everyone together and sent a sort of newsletter. If you like I'll dig out the information and send it.

Samuel Allen m Anne had James 1636. James d 1714 m Elizabeth Perkins. They had Amy m 7 Dec 1683 Falmouth Mass Joseph Hatch.

James Moore m Rachel Ensley. Their daughter Elizabeth b 18 Sept 1759/63 prob Hardwick, NJ d 4 April 1853 Retreat, Pa m c 1784 James Search.

You are the only one who has ever mentioned Nicely to me. I've made a few probes with meagre results. John R. Nicely b 1797 Pa d 11 Aug 1885

Hi Shirley,

We would love to see anything that you have. I am still entering information into the family tree. We have tried to prove connections with the census. Have you any information beyond John M.? We are hoping eventually that someone will have a family bible or obituary that will give his parents and country they came from. In the census it says that John M. was born in PA.

I tried to locate the cemetery that you wrote about in Illinois. We live in the small town of Gillespie, IL which is in Macoupin county which joins Montgomery county. I found a map on the internet that shows Oconee township in Shelby county. It shows some of the cemeteries, but none of them are classified as the Methodist graveyard. In the 1870 census we found John M. with Adeline, William and Sarah, and several others in Brown County, VanBuren township, Indiana. Then in 1880, William and Sarah and the younger children had moved to Christian County, Mount Auburn township, Illinois. According to the information we got from Tommy Henderson, John M. passed away in 1875. Also according to Tommy's information, William and Sarah must have moved back to Bartholomew County, Indiana. He says he has an obituary for him.

As soon as I get all the information that I have entered and printed I will send to you. We are justg thrilled to have found you.

Also, do you know anything about a Matilda Henderson? She is listed on a census as the youngest child of John M. and Jane. No one has her listed as part of the family.

Our address is

Dear Shirley,

Your wonderful package of family history arrived today. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!!!! My husband and I sat right down and went right through them. You have put so much work into this. We can tell that the mystery bug of prior ancestors certainly inspired you. Thank you so very much for sharing all this with us.

We have company that is to arrive soon, so it will be into next week before we will have a chance to compare what you sent with what we have. We did notice that on the Benjamin Franklin Henderson, son of William and Sarah that you do not have John Allen Henderson listed. John, born in 1915 in Missouri is the father of my husband, Leslie Allen Henderson.

I will get all that information together for you. As we read the information from the family bible we were amazed at the amount of contact that the Henderson's who had moved to Missouri had with the Henderson's who stayed in Indiana.

I can't wait to go over everything and compare everything.

We have made copies of the census as we have tried to piece our information together. Do you have access to the census or is this something that we have that we could share with you?

I'll close for now. Talk to you next week.

Thanks again.

Marjorie

Hi Shirley,

Last week my husband's brother, Don, the one that was in Texas, came by for a visit. They went to some of the graveyard's here in Illinois. They took lots of photo's. So far the only ones that seem to connect is from the New Hope Cemetery in Shelby County. We have tried to locate the Methodist Cemetery for John M. Henderson. I've checked with the Illinois County Clerk in Montgomery County. She said that that death certificates weren't available until 1877. She tried to locate records for cemeteries but could not come up anything that resembled Aut Mea . They went to Oconee. They took some pictures of stones and I'm still trying to match them to someone.

We did find a site that showed locations of cemeteries in Illinois, but can't come up with a possible one for John M. Henderson. Of Course we have thought that perhaps he may not have a stone. The next time we head that way we will stop at some of the funeral homes and see if they might be of help.

Do you have your family history records on the internet?

Also, we were wondering if you had communicated with the Tom Henderson? He had contacted us, but we have not heard from him in quite some time. He lives in Indiana and says he is descended from Benjamin Franklin, son of John M. and Adaline.

Talk to you soon.

Hi Again,

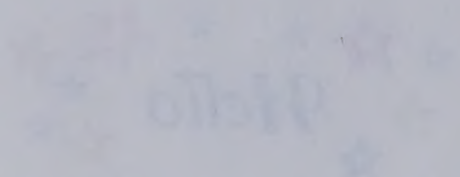

I was wondering if we downloaded our information onto a disk if it could be incorporate it into an existing genealogy file? This would save a lot of typing. I haven't tried this yet, but I would be glad to share programs with you if you thought it would work.

Dear Shirley,

We are delighted to have all that good stuff on the folks of the Dobbs Cemetery area - especially on the Copenhagen family. We have no one working on that surname and therefore small chance of getting any solid information on the family before it came to Brown County. We are puzzled about the surname "McGrew". That family name appears as MAGAW on all the stones for family members in Dobbs Cem. - as well as on most other records. We have sometimes found McGaw but never McGrew. Too late to make corrections in the Steele Book now!

The following may be helpful:

Columbus, "Republic", issue Sept. 30, 1968:

Daisy E. Carter, 61, died Barth. Co. Hosp. Had lived with dau., Mrs. Jerry Perdue of Columbus. Born Brown Co., Sept. 16, 1907, dau. of Benj. & Clarinda Wise Henderson, had lived in Columbus, past 48 yrs. Also surv.: 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ sisters: Mrs. Joe Hatley, Bloomington, Mrs. O.D. Eichelberger, Illinois.
(There is no mention of marriage or husband. We couldn't find any record to identify him in our files.)

One sister surv., Rosa Brand of Brown Co.

Our Sellmeyer/Selmaer/Seelmire/etc/ files show:

Otto H. Seelmeier was child #6 of John Henry Seelmeier & Wilhelmine Vinup. Born Jan. 5, 1880, mar. Dec. 24, 1906 in Brown Co. to Nellie May Shepherd. Nellie was a dau. of John T. Shepherd and was born Jan. 1, 1891 (by her mar. rec.) or was born Dec. 7, 1891 (by her obit). Otto and Nellie divorced. Divorce action was filed in Brown County in June of 1925 - by DEMOCRAT item of June 11, 1925. Nellie mar. (2) to Roy Bungye. We have no record of children from either mar.

Again, we are indebted to you for adding so much material to our files. The STEELE family papers add another comprehensive study to our growing library of family lineages. Thank you very much!

We still don't have the final word on who will publish the obits. The Acting Director of the Genealogical Division of the Fort Wayne Library was encouraging when I asked for help and guidance but I have yet to have a definite "Yes" - or "No" , as the case may be.

Ken and I are fine - enjoying our beautiful hilltop away from the maddening crowd of Nashville. October is frantic time in Brown County.

Enjoyed the tired lady's epitaph - I have an understanding of how she felt!
Hope your trip to Illinois was fruitful.

Sincerely,

Helene H. Reese

Dear Shirley,

I finally have some new "finds" to send to you. I ordered all the Christian + Shelby County census reels to come to a library that has a brand new reader, 5 miles from here. So today I spent 4 hours going over the 1880 Christian County Census. It was on 2 reels. Did I get a surprise!! William Henderson + his brother Smith Henderson were both there. I was just reading every last name that there was, but not really expecting to find Hendersons in this county. I was looking for my husband's other ancestors, which I knew were there. Also William's daughter, Margaret + her husband were there, too. They always were in Shelby County in the other census records + I was amazed to find them here. They all lived in different townships. In enclosing 2 Xerox sheets of what I found. Look at the birth places of Smith's parents. Whoever gave that info to the census taker sure didn't know what they were talking about!! They should both be Pennsylvania. Do you have a listing of Smith H's children? There are 6 listed here + I know there was 1 ^{deceased} born in 1881, would make 7. Then in 1860 I see Smith had B.J. for a wife. Do you suppose that's Betsey or something + is the same wife as Elizabeth?? Also a son named Smith, 4 was old. Wonder if he lived or died young??

I'll bet I know where Smith Henderson is in 1870. I'm writing to the Ill. Archives tonight to check it out. I have a note that says S. Henderson, Oconee Township, page 37, Sheelby Co. Ill. Mrs. age 32 + 4 kids. Evidently

I copied it + didn't know what I had!! So I asked them to complete the listing. If the kids names match, we know it's him. I'll let you know as soon as I hear; probably 2 or 3 weeks. They're slow.

On Wm + Sarah Henderson's 1880 listing, the census taker had put part of the info in parenthesis which was unusual - (the ages of the parents + their parents' birthplaces) so I'm wondering if one of the older kids or someone gave this info, as it's way off. Sarah is really about 53 + Wm. 55 in 1880.
When I first copied it I saw Sarah + Wm. age 60 + 61 with a son age 7, I thought "wow!!" But she was really about 46 when she had Wesley so that's better.

When I was copying Smith Henderson in Locust Twp.
in 1880 I ran across some Sweets' (no Williams!)
so I copied them anyway - I see many of them list their birthplace as Kentucky -- + you had said your Sweets were Kentucky connected.

Charles age 33 born Ky + his mother born Ky, Edward, age 37 born Ky. + his father + mother born Ky + John, age 27 born Ky + his father + mother born Ky.

Do you think this is any connection at all?
Sorry it's copied on notebook paper. I ran out of 1880 sheets + didn't realize the listing was so long.

So now I know how Margaret came to Ill.
 Her parents were here awhile!! Then I suppose they moved back to Indiana as they died there.
 They should be on the 1900 census someplace.

I found no Hendersons in Rosemond trap. in 1880. I'll check 1900 there, whenever I get it. It takes 3 months of waiting for some of these reels.

I found 2 Lemon families in Christian Co. but no Andrew Lemon - Whoops! they were in Indiana, anyway, not Ill.

Last week I had found a couple Hendersons & I copied them just because they were born in Indiana but I see no connection. In the house of John ^{baptist} & Matilda ^{Ind.} Miller ages 28 + 22, were Samanatha Henderson age 16 born Ind. & Emeline Henderson age 6, born Indiana. This was Christian Co. Ill., 1860, P.O. Taylorville.

I found a David Crouche age 39, Ohio in Christian Co. Rosemond P.O. in 1860 with wife ^{Elizabeth, 38} & 6 kids, but your Crouch wasn't David so it's probably nothing!

Sorry this is all so disconnected, but I needed to catch up & tell you all these things.

Sincerely,
 Shirley

Dear Shirley,

April 10, 1985

I enjoyed speaking with you on the phone. Your letter just made my day. I feel like that James Spence Henderson is mine. I've been searching for 3 or 4 years on that line with very little success until your letter. I'm curious, did you see James Spence's name in the Root Cellar or my larger ad in the Bureau of Missing Ancestors? I put that one in the Jan/Feb issue of the Helper.

I had written to Marietta, Ohio for delayed birth certificates and the 1860 census with no success. Maybe my aunt was wrong when she put on James Spence's D.C. that his father was Charles William. Their first child was named Charles so perhaps she was remembering part of that name? ^{ALL} Most of James' children moved away from Webster Co. I put an ad in the Springfield MO Newspaper genealogy column and there was no response. I felt like James' mother's last name must be Spence. I have been very lucky lately in predicting last names etc.- mostly on my husband's lines!

Thank you for offering to make me copies of all of your Henderson info. I can hardly wait to go through it. I'll be glad to reimburse you for the pictures you are going to have copied for me. Just let me know how much they are. It will be so nice to see what my ancestors look like. I have 2 sisters and 1 brother who will be very happy too. My father is the Carl Henderson on the family record sheet. I just finished typing the record sheet and will run off a copy tomorrow.

We live on a farm close to I-24. We have some tobacco base which we are trying to get rid of. We raise and sell Hampshire swine breeding stock. Since we have lost most of our labor to college we have cut way back on the swine. We've raised and picked blackberries for several years also. Most of the things the boys have used as 4-H projects. We raised soybeans and double cropped with winter wheat. This year we planted the whole thing in pasture and as soon as we get it fenced we'll run cattle. Maybe we can get to it this summer. Through the years we have built everything on our place except the ancient tobacco barn. It has given the boys a lot of experience with wood, wall board, concrete, electrical wiring etc.

December 1992

Dear Folks,

Our year was very much devoted to travel. Of course, we had our preoccupations at home and with family, so time sped along for us.

As to our several journeys they began in April with a trip to Charleston, SC. The Tennessee Historical Society had it well planned, and our rooms were convenient to that city's old homes, historic district and famous restaurants. Our visit corresponded with Charleston's 45th Annual Festival of Houses and Gardens, and that gave us the opportunity to see many fine private homes. I digressed for half a day to do genealogy at the Archives of the South Carolina Historical Society. Lastly there were visits to four nearby Southern plantations.

In May a drive to Indiana for visiting with family and friends was extended to Tulip Time in Holland, MI. There was no room for us at their inns. so we were forced to stay in Grand Rapids. That wasn't so far. After all ironically having lived 27 years in nearby northern Indiana, we came from Tennessee to see their tulips. But we loved it and returned home with 100 new bulbs with which to expand our collection. Next spring we hope to be rewarded with a rainbow of colors from the 300 plants now resting in the yard. Prolonging our stay we visited Lee who took us around the Detroit area and across the river into Windsor, Ontario.

Two other trips to Indiana were in a nostalgic vein. The earlier one in July was to attend the 55th Reunion of the 1937 Class of Bloomington High School. As many know I graduated in 1936, but the '37 Class is very special to me. Apparently the feeling is reciprocal for they have "adopted" me. To put it mildly, I had a great time and expect to return to next year's get-to-gether. The latter trip was in October when we returned to have dinner with my 1936 Class of BHS. These annual affairs began after our 50th Reunion and have been well attended. I look forward to next October, because we too always have a great time.

Finally comes the year's climax, our Golden Wedding Anniversary trip and celebration. On September 2 we flew to Copenhagen, Denmark. We were welcomed by the Little Mermaid lounging on her rock pedestal. We visited Hamlet's castle at Elsinore, Hans Christian Anderson's birthplace at Odense, restored Viking ships at a museum in Roskilde, and many other attractions including very interesting countryside.

Leaving Denmark we cruised the North Sea into the 60 mile-long Oslofjord, an overnight journey to Oslo, Norway. There we saw Frogner Park. It is the showcase for, I would guess, over 100 granite statues donated to the city by a Norwegian sculptor. These are human figures and have as their theme, "From the cradle to the grave." Just outside Oslo is an immense ski chute, "Holmenkollen", famous for its annual competitions. Traveling west across the mountains we visited the fjord villages of Ulvik and Utne. We cruised fjords to experience the most breathtaking scenery imaginable. Then we rode the famous Flam Railway, a train that climbs the mountain to 2,800 feet, to witness more outstanding scenery. On to Bergen, a picturesque port city dating back 900 years. Bergen is where Edvard Grieg lived, and we visited his home.

From Bergen we flew to Stockholm, Sweden, built on fourteen islands and surrounded by inlets, bays and canals. Here we were introduced to age-old, twisting streets of Gamla Stan, Scandinavia's most fascinating Old Town. Elsewhere in the city we visited Drottningholm Palace and saw the Wasa, a 350 year-old warship resurrected from the sea bottom. In our tour group was a chemist from Dow Chemical Co. He had been on a team that developed the technique used to prevent deterioration of the wood of this vessel once it was taken from the water. His story added to our appreciation of this exhibit. Another day we drove through the countryside to Upsala, Sweden's oldest university town, and to Sigtuna, a quaint town featuring a picturesque church ruins.

At Stockholm harbor we boarded a cruiseship for an overnight trip on the Baltic Sea to Helsinki, Finland. Among the significant things we saw on our brief visit there were the Jean Sibellius Memorial and the remarkable Temppeliakia Church, built on solid rock.

We left Helsinki early the same day for our long bus trip around the eastern end of the Gulf of Finland on our way to St. Petersburg, Russia. The highlight of this trip was in St. Petersburg, that city where the Russian ballet was born. There one evening we attended a production of The Nutcracker. We watched toy soldiers battle giant mice, Snowflakes fell and the Sugar Plum Fairy led us into the Enchanted Land of Candy Canes — all of this happened, of course, to Tchaikovsky's appropriate music. Coincidentally we were there to attend this ballet 100 year after its premiere preformance in 1892 at St. Petersburg. How impressive! And we wanted to have a program as a memento. I found that you must buy your program. They would accept only roubles, and I had none — just dollars and Swedish kronor. A young Russian seated closeby came to the rescue, and we got our program as a gift from him. His name is Vitaly Plotnikov, and his wife's name Victoria. They flew there from Saratov, a city about 900 miles to the southeast and on the Volga River. They had come to see Vitaly's sister who was a ballerina dancing in the second act. We shared our binoculars with them and became friends on the spot. Since our return home we have had an exchange of letters. Writing is somewhat of a problem for both of us, but Vitaly has a surgeon friend, Sergey, who helps with English. Thanks to Sergey and my son, Lee, who has some knowledge of Russian our correspondence can progress.

St. Petersburg is a wonderful place to visit, and we enjoyed it — especially the huge Winter Palace. The people we saw on the street seemed depressed and unsure of their future. However when you approach them, they are very friendly.

Our year will end at home for the Holidays, so with that we will end by wishing ya'll a cheery Christmas and a healthful and pleasant New Year.

Love,

David and Ray

P.S. As you have read 1992 was a busy year for us. Not much time for genealogy while running around the countryside. Now we've spent our road and must downgear into normalcy. Hope you and Maurice, as well as all the rest of your family are OK.

Ray

Dear Shirley,

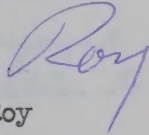

As you know it has been a while since our last correspondence, and, during that time, I have done little on the Hendersons except to have a couple of conversations with Doris Gleaves. As a result of them I have put a copy of the information given in the Henderson Bible in our State Library & Archives here in Nashville. I plan to do the same at the Indiana State Library in Indianapolis.

I now have a copy of a recent publication of the Bartholomew County Genealogical Society entitled City Cemetery Records of Columbus, Indiana. In it I find some data on Henderson family members that is new to me and, I believe, will be new to you too. I am sending you these. Although I did run into some omissions in the index I think I have all the items that concern us. In the Preface the editors explain that "lot numbers were assigned for use in these records only as an aid to locating graves" and do not correspond with the legal lot numbers on family deeds.

I also copied for you the pertinent cemetery maps to assist in locating any of these graves should you desire.

I hope all goes well with you, Maurice and your family. Except for her arthritis Doris and I still are in pretty good shape. Next September we will have been married for 50 years!

Hoping to hear from you,

Roy

Dear Shirley and Maurice,

Doris and I enjoyed our short visit with you and your family last month. I thought you might like a print of this picture of you and Doris under the old tree. Your home on the lake strikes us as an ideal way to live.

We had a nice visit with my distant cousin, Jane Tolen. I was impressed when ~~when~~ she showed us her old clock, handed down through so many generations of the Davis family. Its appearance, inside and outside, resembles clocks made by the Chandler family that I wrote about in an earlier letter. I believe there may still be a chance that a name or date will be found on the back of its face (a spot now obscured from view unless disassembled).

Our trip home was a pleasant one - stopping in Indianapolis, at our son's house, seeing our two granddaughters there, Doris' sister in Bloomington and her brother in Evansville. After two and a half weeks on the road we were content to sleep again in our own bed.

I don't have anything else to add here except to repeat that we enjoyed meeting you and hope that we may be able to see each other again one day.

Cordially,

Roy

Jan. 23, 1980

Dear Shirley,

I was going to write to you & an aunt today & believe it or not - today I got a letter from each of you! I've written her so now it's your turn. I haven't had much time to work on family history, but I'm taking the month of January to catch up & straighten out 2 of my husband's side-family notebooks. So I've got several things to tell you.

I also have ordered the 1860 & 70 census Shelby Co. census rolls, 1880, too. Well, today the library called with the 1880 roll, so I spent 3 hours going thru it all. Sometimes it takes 6 weeks to get them. A lot of people must be requesting them.

Now - on the notes you sent today I notice Adeline Henderson was born April 1845. My husband said ol' John Henderson was some guy marrying a girl not even 16 after having 12 or 13 kids by his first wife (that is, if the marriage date of Feb. 1861 is correct). It would make more sense if it were Feb. 1860. It wouldn't it, as Benjamin was born Nov. 1864. Anyway, if he married her in 1861, he was almost 55 years old.

I notice the 1900 Kansas census has Smith Henderson's birth date as Oct. 1837. Then he & Allen can't be twins ?? I had 3 Oct. 1835 - for both Allen & Smith. Did I have something copied wrong? I see Smith's wife is Elizabeth in 1900. On the 1860 census Smith's wife is B.J. ???

I had copied some census records last week. I had a chance to go to the State library in Madison. My daughter had an appointment in Madison. So I took my Morrison - Henderson book along. I looked in the Ohio Census Index book for 1860 & there were 55 Wm. Hendersons & a bunch of Johns & then it dawned on me to look up Smith Henderson + there was only one so then I went to the micro-film room + looked up Warren township, Washington County, Ohio + I was so excited to find William + Sarah + all. afterwards

 I found out when I re-read your letter that you'd told me the location. So I did it the hard way!
 I never had a copy of any of the census records. So I Xeroxed 2 copies for you + your aunt, I think it is.
 So you probably have all of these that I'm sending.
 But you can check them + see if there's anything different from what you have or any errors.

I looked up the 1850 Ohio Index + found 56 Williams
 + 43 Johns listed + it about flooded me - so I didn't pursue it any longer. Probably if I re-read your letter you told me where they were in 1850. I just want to get a copy of the census record.

I'm going to ask so many questions. There's ^{need to} no hurry to answer. Take as long as you want + whenever you find time. I know how hard it is for me to find time to do this. It's just if I don't write while it's fresh in my mind I'll forget.

Thanks for the "selected records funeral homes of Columbus, Indiana - Brown Co. Historical Society" that filled a lot of spaces on my family group sheet.
 Oh! nuts - now I have 2 birth dates for Benjamin F., son of John Henderson + Adeline Taylor - 1-27-1845 and Nov. 1844, which do you think is right?

On the funeral home record of John - the informant must of not known the facts - Smith instead of Sarah Spence a birth date of 11-19-1844. I have Nov. 19 1846. Wm. + Sarah were married Nov. 1845, I think. So I lean towards the 1846 date, don't you? He was married to Martha Smith - That must be where the confusion came in.

I am interested in knowing more about John Henderson & Jane Steele who moved from Wash. Co. Ohio to Brown Co. in 1860's

Do you know who John's parents were and if they came from Virginia or Ky. area? I believe most of Indiana Henderson are distant cousins. It is for sure that the Henderson origin is in Scotland.

My book don't have any connection unless they are related back in 1700's in Virginia.

What does amaze me that the Henderson settled in same general areas. It is as though they kept in contact.

Dear Shirley,

I never think of the LDS as a real library - just a big building full of microfilm, but I've never been there. Wonder how Ft. Wayne got to have such a big collection.

No, I haven't exhausted the records in Franklin; I'm such an amateur I only this trip discovered the assessor's office! Some of the stuff I en-lose doesn't pertain to you, so just skip it. Should you decide to drive up to Franklin from Greene Co, take I79 and turn east at I 80. Get off at the Barkeyville exit and you are in Irwin twp. Sorry I can't suggest any ancestral high-spots for you to see but I just don't know WHO John Henderson was! I've looked at my Chester Co material & Venango but see only hints. The courthouse is open 8:30 AM, library at 10. If you're not a member of the Venango Co. Genealogical Club you're not allowed to use the genealogy room where the obits, marriages, etc are card filed, unless a gen librarian is on duty. Helen Ray is there Tuesday mornings, but I don't know about other times. To become a member, write Venango Co Genealogical Club, Oil City Library, Centre Street, Oil City, Pa. I can't seem to find how much it costs, but it's not much. Franklin used to be simply lovely, but some very strange buildings have been put up the past 20 years. You come into town on route 8, the Voyager Inn is on Liberty between 15th & 14th (the main drag). Stop at the Chamber of Commerce - big red brick house between 14th & 13th on Elk St. (1 street beyond Liberty). Voyager is the hotel. Try to avoid eating there. There are a couple decent lunch places on Liberty, sorry we're not members of the Franklin Club now so I could get you a guest card. Food's great. Library is at 12th & Buffalo, other side of Liberty St, and courthouse at 12th & Liberty. Please don't mention it to anyone, ESPECIALLY the historical society at corner of Elk & South Park, at other end of park below the court house, but take a look at the house across from the historical society. Pure federal, each stone hand-dressed and the building hasn't shifted half an inch since it was built in 1803. It was given to the Christian Science Church in 1903. I had never been in it, but when I buried Mother in April I stopped at Hist Society (if it was mother's turn to read at Tuesday Club when the Osmers lived there, she took her own light bulb! They've improved it greatly, but it's still a scary horror - they do have some nice old pictures & post cards) Anyhow, the woman who showed me around gestured to the church, said it was for sale and they thought they'd get it. It took some weeks for it to sink in, but Kenny wants to retire to Franklin because the weather is so lovely, and I realized it would be perfect - on the flat, and we could even manage after they take our drivers licenses away from us. So Kenny and I went last week to look at it and we ADORE it! the main room is 16' wide, 41' long and 17.5' high. The finest builder in the country lives there in town, loves old houses, and is DROOLING to get at it. So we are in great hopes we can buy it, but please don't mention it to anyone.

Thanks for the Jagers stuff. It's curious the name Meeks is by it. I heard from WJ Cleaver he'd published his book but haven't received my copy yet.

There are several John Hendersons in DAR patriot index . I think my William Henderson's brpther John was the first child. So if you wrote Federal Archives and asked for a John Henderson who served from PA, prob Chester Co, born about 1748-55 something might happen. It's a long shot. William b 1756, Thomas c 1757, Andrew 1762, Elizabeth 1755-61. None of their children could have your John down the line. But I feel sure the John in Irwin is some sort of cousin to Andrew; it wouldn't make sense otherwise.

William's son

Jan

Dear Shirley;

I was glad to hear from you and thank for papers on Burkhart and Henderson.

I have info on William Henry Henderson in my book. 1st married to Emmeline King; 2nd to Mariah Rambo; 3rd to Hannah Rambo.

Lewis & George Burkhart brothers married to twin sisters Delilah & Amanda Henderson, they were sisters to William Henry. Their father Robert Henderson Sr.; mother Furrnela Newkirk.

Burkharts father George Sr.; mother Catherine. They are buried in Burkhart Cem Brown Co. Ind not too far from Henderson Cem. George Burkhart died 11 July 1868 (age 71 yrs. 10 mo 1 day)

Katharine died 9 Oct. 1899 (age 97 yrs) south $\frac{4}{10}$ mile on Mt. Liberty road. A lane ascends the hill to the east for about 300 yds. to Cem.

Land was deeded for Cemetery in 1895 by Elizabeth Burkhart. However, burials were made here for at least 25 yrs before that time. A log Catholic Church once stood at the base of the hill.

I don't know if Adam Burkhart tied into this family. He could have been a brother to John born in 1853.?

Amanda Henderson born 12 Jan. 1841 married to George Burkhart on 16 Mar 1862

Delilah Henderson born 12 Jan 1841 married on 26 Nov 1866 to Louis Burkhart

If the Burkhart boys married at 20 yrs age George would be born 1842; Louis would have been born 1846.

I was just cross checking my book and in looking at 1860 Census Wash. Twp. Brown Co. Ind. Indeed Adam Burkhart is a brother to the above. Here how they are listed:

George Burkhart	63 yrs	M	#176	#400
Elizabeth	32 yrs	F
George	19 yrs	M	1841
Louis	17 yrs	M	1843

It appears that George Burkhart Sr's first wife died Katharine and had older 3 children and then married Elizabeth and had the other 3 children. The graveyard record on Katharine could be in error.

I was glad to receive the record of Adam Burkhart, thank! I have some more records on your Henderson group. An obit on Freeman Henderson brother, I believe it was John but I'm not certain. I went to pay his family my respect at Hope, Ind. funeral Home. I believe he had a son Jerry also that passed away. Jerry was in hospital in Columbus, And in same room as my father-in-law. Both later died. I've got info in all my junk around here and I'll send it to you as soon as I run across it.

I charge $25.00 for my book when mailed $20. otherwise. I've only got 2 left out of 100 books. I'm going to re-order when I run out. I'm going to work on the other side of family this winter; Huffman side, mom's side they go back to Sweden, Germany, late 1600's to Pennsylvania, then 1800 to Ohio, 1820 to Indiana.

P.S. Keep in touch:

I'd like to know John Henderson roots in Ohio. could be a connection back to Virginia or N.C. where most Scotch men settled

you and I became bored the minute I read your memory of an opening in the wall for the telephone. To ~~use~~ it was known as the "cubby hole". It was our means of passage from one side to the other and a lot more fun than using the back door. When visiting, my sister, Jean, and I always slept on a big pull down feather bed in Babe's house and it was much warmer going via the "cubby hole" in our p.j.'s.
It also served as a pass through for food at Thanksgiving and Christmas when both stores and ovens were going at full capacity.
We incorporated it into our games, pranks, play and utility but hardly ever for the purpose for which it was intended. Isn't it funny how you remember the little things.

Dear Shirley,

I got your letter about John Henderson, and we both are definitely talking about the same man. I knew this the minute I opened your letter and read the name Mabel Hutton. Aunt Mabel was the sister of my wife's mother, Edna Williams Sinclair. Mabel's husband, George Hutton, gave me the old Henderson Bible after Mabel's death. It is The New Testament and was published in 1859. It has the names of many whom I cannot yet place. One of these was Adaline Henderson. Until I read your letter I didn't know about John Henderson's second marriage. I have restudied the whole record now in the light of what you've given me. Some of the writing is so faint that I will probably never be able to read it - but most is very legible. In one place it refers to Newmans Mills - Indiana Co. - Pa. Earlier I had assumed this place to be in Indiana. Now I can see that it is actually in Indiana County, Pennsylvania. This county was created in 1803. Could this have been the home of John's parents when he was born in 1806? One thing seems certain and that is that the older records, ie 1859, were transcribed from earlier records perhaps in some older Bible.

It shows another date, and one that you do not seem to have. It gives the date of the death of John M. Henderson - "August the 2 1875". It says he is buried at _____ in the Methodist Graveyard, Montgomery Co., Illinois. I cannot understand the name of the town, but it looks like AUTMEA. My current map of Illinois has nothing like this. I couldn't find anything in the big atlas in the library either.

From the data you sent me it has occurred to me that Aunt Mable didn't include all the record from the Bible in what she gave you. It is likely that she could not read or interpret some of it. Therefore I have copied all of it for you and put the actual words, misspellings and all, in quotation marks. Some of my own remarks, correcting errors etc, are in parentheses. After you've had a chance to study this, I hope you can shed some light on those parts that baffle me.

I am sending you my Family Group Sheet for the John M. Henderson family (first marriage) as I understood it before seeing your letter. You may have some questions where we are not in complete agreement. I also send you the marriage record for Sarah A. Henderson and Charles L. Crail. I got this from the Probate and Juvenile Courts of Washington County, Ohio.

My wife's Ancestor Chart is also enclosed, and, just for the fun of it, I used a Cousin-Finder to determine exactly how you two are related. You can see for yourself you're 3rd cousins and both g.g. ⁿieces of John M. Henderson and Jane Steele.

As I was working on this answer to your first letter your second letter came. The duplex you describe was 1017/1019 N. Alabama St. in Indianapolis. For about a year or so before we were married my wife lived there (south side) with her aunt and uncle (the Huttons) and her grandmother, Kate Williams. Mel and Babe (Crail) Hunter, Doris's great aunt and uncle, lived in the north side of the duplex. Your mention of this house brought back some memories which Doris will write you about in her contribution to this letter.

It was kind of you to offer to get me the pictures, but there is no need for you to do so. We already have them - or at least one of Doris's sisters does. However I am very pleased to learn who the woman is that stood between Babe and Kate in the group photo. All I could find out was that her name was Minnie and that she was a cousin. I had wrongly guessed that she was Minnie Schulte who married Charley Henderson, the son of William Henderson and Sarah Spence.

That's all for now,

Ron

Dear Shirley,

I hope you are doing well. We are doing fine. It's been cold here, but I'm sure you all are colder.

How is the research coming along? I have sent for an obit of an E. Henderson in MO. I'm thinking it may be our Ebenezer. I should get it shortly and I'll send you a copy if he's our man.

I am still searching for a Conn. Henderson connection. I have come up with absolutely nothing yet. I copied you some pages from a Steele genealogy book.

My Henderson cousin in MO said she had always heard our Hendersons were from Ireland. She also knew nothing about Ebenezer or William Wesley.

Dear Shirley,

Ray is writing a letter to you today so I thought I would add a note. I will leave the genealogy to the "expert" but I am interested in family stories and personalities.

Your memory serves you well about the duplex in Indianapolis. It is still there but in a rundown neighborhood, however it served as home for Bob and Nell on one side and Kate, Mabel (daughter) and George for over fifty years. We were a very close family and my mother (Edna) was always homesick for her folks so we spent most of the summers in that house, all six of us, five girls and a boy. Mabel and George had no children so all that love was showered on us.

Many years later after we had all grown up and the illnesses of age started to show up my Uncle Mel cut a full size door in the "cubby hole" place so they could check on each other. It was never the same.

I am sure we could tell each other some stories or perhaps put some bits and pieces together and arrive at something close to the truth. When I got together with my sisters to speak of the past we often find we are not in total agreement. The main thread of the story is there but we arrive at it from different points of view.

Growing up I heard the name Minnie Crouch often but was not aware she was the lady in the picture. That picture hung in Kate's bedroom until she died and then it hung in Edna's bedroom until she died. My sister Norma has it now. She is about your age. I was born in 1921. I was aware that Sarah and her family moved in with her sister's family and helped raise the children.

One big surprise - I did not know Kate's name was Catherine. Everything she ever signed was Kate. I once asked her if her name was spelled with a C or a K and she answered, "My name is Kate spelled with a K."

It is a small world isn't it. Here we have another cousin almost on our door step. I am sure Ray will be in contact with Doris and I will contribute whatever I can. Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,
Doris

My dear Mr. Garrison - I have just received your letter of the 10th and am glad to hear that you are still in the land of the living.
I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately but I will try to write you more often. I am, dear Sir, very truly yours, Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

From Doris Gleason

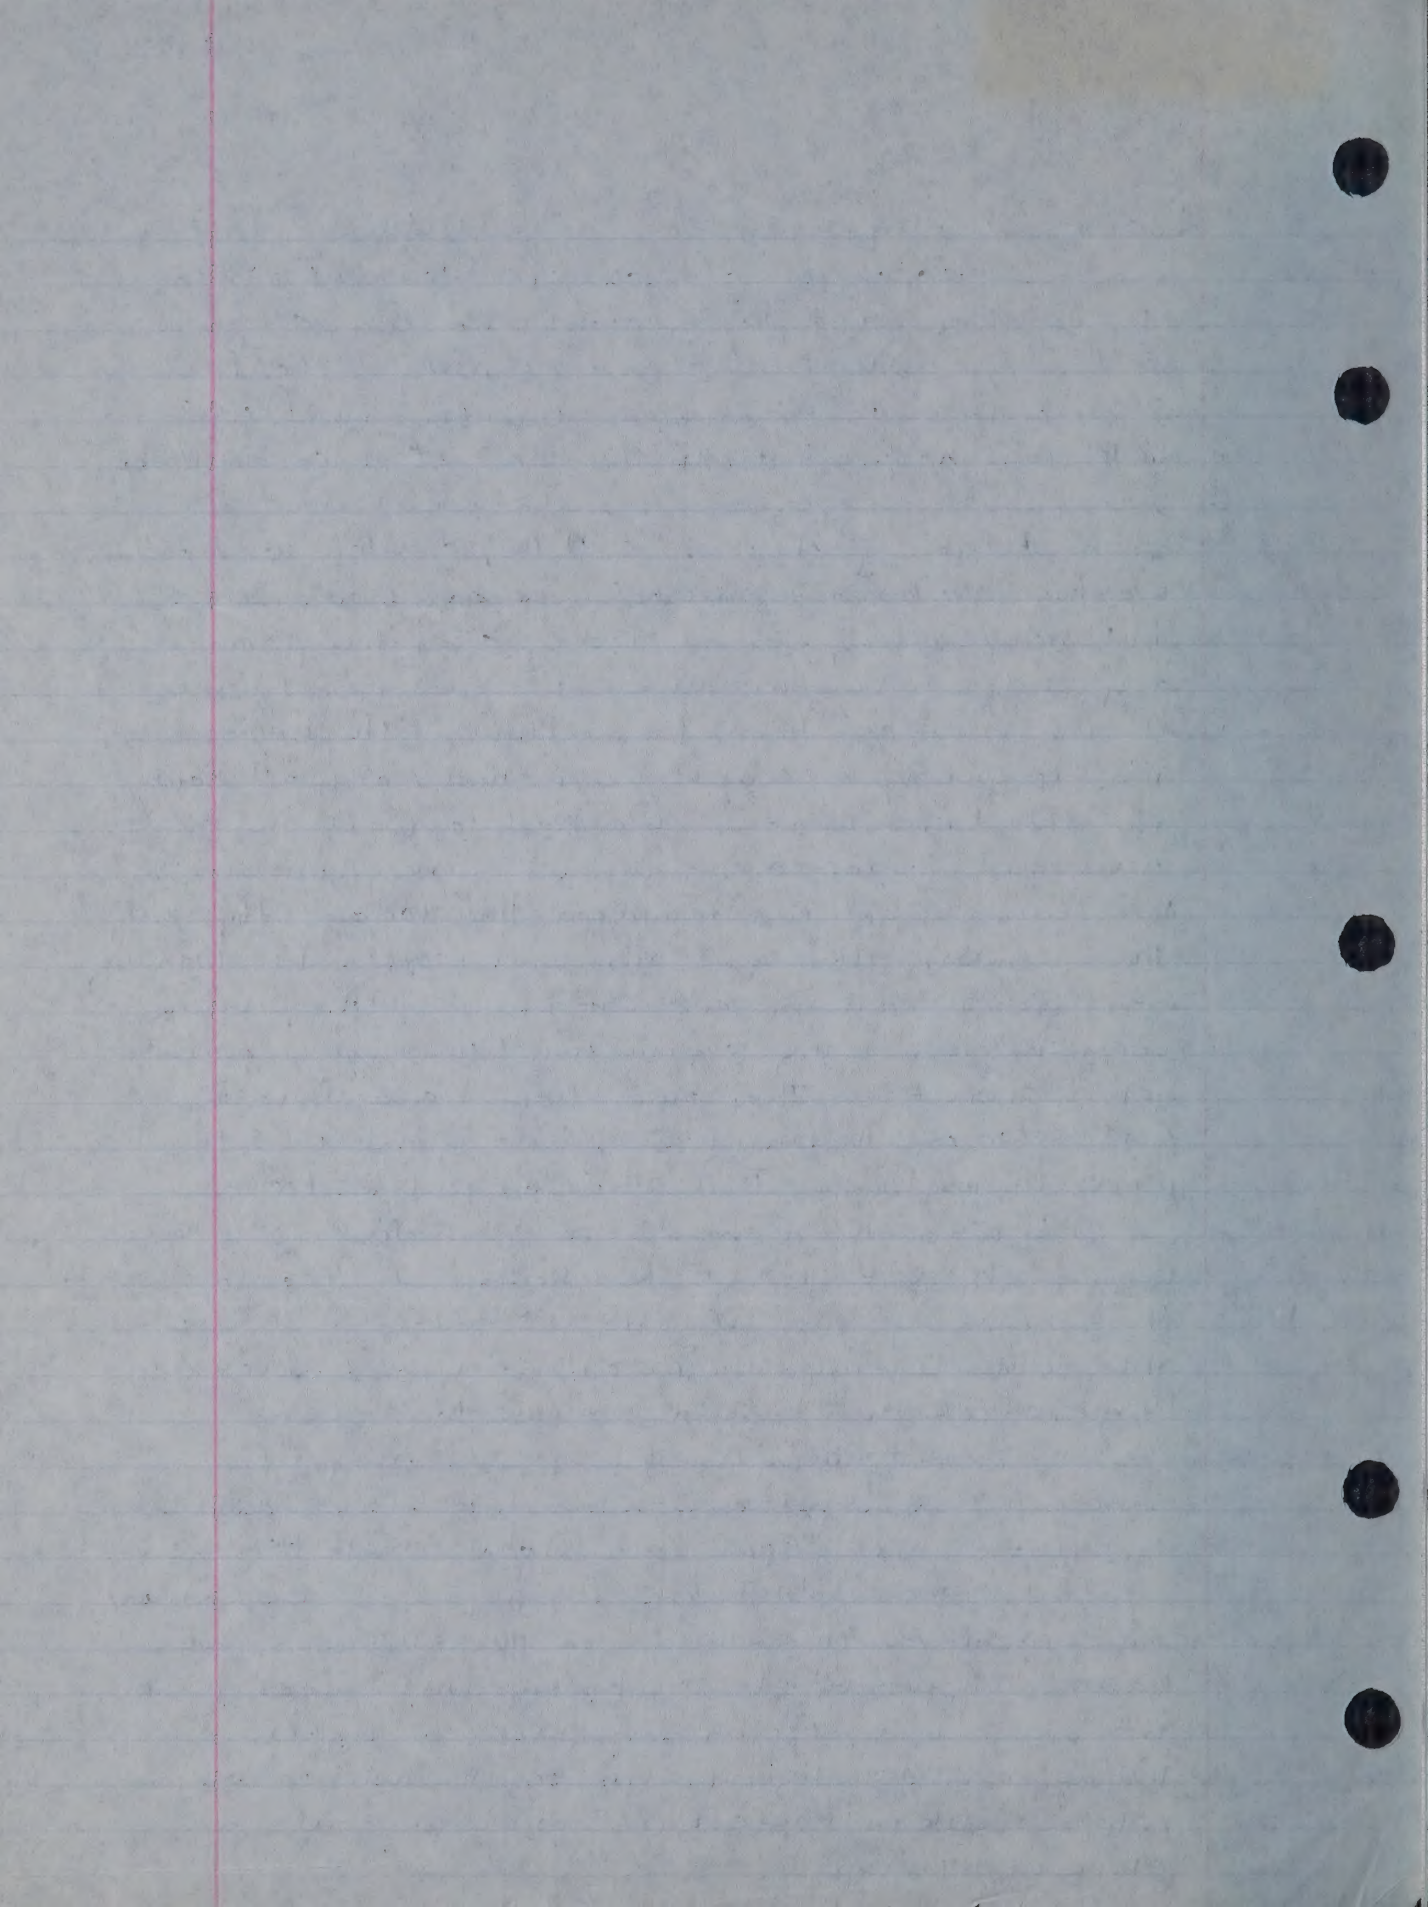

Dear Shirley,

July 28, 1987

I hope all of you are well. I worked at the very fast paced mortgage company (for Kelly Services) until the end of May. The last 2 months we have been building on David's Veterinary hospital down the road at Pleasant View. On your map - he is $\frac{1}{4}$ mile west on 49 from Highway 41A. 41A is parallel to I 24. We hope to have it finished in a couple of weeks. I've been calling around today searching for a dry wall sanding machine. We just about have all the mud on the walls & ceilings. The boys need to put up a couple more sheets of wall board in the kennel area. We had to wait on my husband to try to figure out some plumbing. We finally got our telephone line today. Hopefully the number they gave us will work. I'm waiting for them to call me and confirm it. The printing company is waiting to print our things up when we get a phone #. The guys have been their own contractor on the building and doing most of the work themselves. I'll send you pictures later.

I was on an errand to Springfield, TN when I just had to stop at the library. I like to do this genealogy and I miss it a lot. I'll be glad when I can dive into it again. I brought home a book on Southern Families to see if I could find something by chance. It may be someone not connected with our line but see what you ~~think~~ think about this John Steele Henderson.

It's been so hot here the guys (and me sometimes) can't work on the building in the afternoons. We had a temporary electric hookup until last week - so we couldn't run many fans or lights. We've been painting our sign for the hospital on our kitchen table in the cool. I wish we could do more in the cool.

I wonder if our Steeles and Hendersons are connected some way to those in VA? Perhaps they moved from VA to PA. Then two generations later they both landed in MO? If you have already sent me this info - I apologize - I haven't looked at the Henderson info in over a year.

Maybe I'll have time when the clinic opens to sit down there and catch up on my genealogy between clients.

Have you ordered any books through the New England Gen. Soc? I almost forgot you live close to the big library. I think I may join the club and order genealogy books thru that library they have.

I've been brushing up on my Accounting that I took in school years ago. The other 2 clinics David worked in were on computers, so I can't copy their system - Phooey! The computers were expensive and both had different programs, but they still weren't the answer. The client had to wait too long for his info to be punched in and the clinics had to bend to the computer instead of the other way around! Then had to make bookkeeping adjustments for various computer reasons - like it didn't know the day cutoff at 12:00 for banking, etc.

Well, write when you have time. I hope you're having a good summer. We're all fine. Danny is in Clinic work at Auburn this summer. He comes in every 5 weeks. Tommy & David are working on the building.

Henderson Heritage
Vol. 4 #3

Jul 1987

I am going to take a BOLD step into trying to sort out the line of ALEXANDER HENDERSON of Augusta, Albemarle, etc. We have for years taken the assumptions of good researchers in establishing this or these lines. Their research does, however, PROVE! So I feel we can try a new tack and see if we can unravel the lines. I hope there are those who read this that are as interested in this as I am. Please get out your records and write back your input, your reasons for your thinking, please prove me right or wrong. All we want to do is to get the best information we can and sort it out with the best known data we have today.

John W. McCue in his book "Henderson Chronicles" says "Several contributors advise that Sir Hugh Henderson, of Fordell, County Fife, Scotland, was undoubtedly the ancestor of the Virginia branch of the family with which this work treats. And bold assertions are made that three of his sons, William, Alexander and John came to America prior to 1740 and were disinherited when they fought with the American colonies against the mother country in the war of 1776-81. This is largely conjecture. As a matter of fact, these three brothers came from Fordell, County Fife, Scotland about the time mentioned, and located on Owl Creek, near Alexandria, Virginia, after which they soon separated. They may have participated in the Revolutionary War, there is a suspicion that they did, but no actual proof. It is the opinion of the compiler, based on considerable research and study, that the Progenitor, was "Alexander", who was a son of John Henderson, who, it is believed, was a lineal descendant of Sir James Henderson (1450-1513) First Knight of Fordeall and Lord Chief Justice to King James IV of Scotland".

Go back and look at the "as a matter of fact": I, your editor, would like to see that "fact". What that fact??? McCue goes on to list Alexander Henderson (1) of Fordell, Scotland and his children as:

1. William (m. Miss Kearns?) lived Lancaster Co PA then NC.
2. Alexander (m. Jean or Jane) Alexandria, Albemarle, Augusta Cos VA then to Bourbon Co. KY.
3. John to Franklin Co. PA
4. Anna
5. Daniel

We will concentrate on Alexander. Note the arrival of these three brothers is in the same time frame of Wm and h. (Bruce) Henderson's sons (James, Samuel & John) to Augusta Co. VA. I am beginning to believe that Samuel Henderson in Alexander is one and the same with the Alexander who ended up in Bourbon Co. KY. The time frame is right, the christian names in these two families are so similar, and the records do seem to follow. Let us look at some of the records that have been recorded:

Now, note the similarities in those children's names to Samuel Henderson and Jane, the son of Wm and Marg. Bruce Henderson: Andrew, Alexander, Florence, James, William, David, Rebeckah, Sarah, Samuel. And we know nothing of these children. Also there are no other Alexanders located in that area that could be Alexander, son of Samuel, except Alexander, of Bourbon Co. VA. We also note that Samuel Henderson according to Chalkley is living among and intertwined with all the families that Alexander of Bourbon and his children and his children's children are intertwined with. Names like Finley, Leeper, McClure, Stuart etc. follow into KY.

New member, Richard A. Miller, has contributed the following material from "My Henton Lineage" by George Earle Henton, MD, 1960. "Halbert McClure, born 1734 (son of Nathaniel and Mary) married Mary Henderson (born 1744) (daughter of John and Rose Henderson of Timber Ridge, Rockbridge County, Virginia) in 1767. Halbert and Mary purchased 300 acres in the Borden Grant near Timber Ridge, Augusta county, Virginia (later subdivided to Rockbridge County) about ten miles northeast of Lexington. Halbert died in 1772; his will is recorded at Staunton, Virginia, as follows: Wife, Mary, one third of entire estate; remainder equal shares to their three daughters, Mary, Isabella, and Phoebe. His wife, Mary, later married Samuel Henderson (probably a cousin of some degree) who evidently was a widower with two or three young children; Mary sold the property in 1777. Samuel and Mary, with their united families, lived on a plantation in Franklin County, Virginia; Rocky Mount is the county seat. Both resided there on their plantation until their deaths. Halbert and Mary's daughter married as follows: Mary to William Henderson, Phoebe to John Miller, a neighbor boy; and Isabella who was our ancestor to William Crawford, son of the above mentioned James and Elizabeth Mary Crawford of Salem in the west-adjointing county of Botetourt. 9. Henderson: Mary Henderson (Halbert McClure). The Henderson Klan had its original home in the eastern sector of Scotland, County of Fife near Invergowrie on the south shore of the Firth of Tay. William, James and John Migrated to North Ireland in 1680 and their sons, John, James and Samuel emigrated to Old Augusta County, Virginia, in 1740. There they purchased land. All members of the Tinkling Springs Presbyterian Congregation located about twelve miles southwest of Staunton, Augusta County. John Henderson, the eldest of the three brothers, and his wife, Rose Finley Henderson, were the parents of Mary Henderson McClure. The Baptismal Register of the Reverend John Craig, pastor of the Tinkling Springs Presbyterian Congregation, records the baptism of Mary Henderson, daughter of John and Rose Henderson in the year 1744. Timber Ridge was about fifteen miles southwest of Tinkling Springs and when Augusta County was subdivided, it was in Rockbridge County; when that Presbyterian Church was erected the Reverend John Craig was also pastor there for some years. John Henderson died in 1766 and his will is of record in the court house at Staunton."

Information like this is so important!!! We hope others will join this Augusta Co. search and try to tie all these families together. What happened to Samuel's other children, who did they marry??? Who are some of the other so far unconnected Augusta Co. Hendersons? Where does William Henderson b. ca 1699, m. prob to Susanna, Children: William, David, James, Florence m. David Bell, Margaret m. Joseph Bell, Susan m. John Leeper, John, Martha m. John Finley, Jean m. Joseph Teas. Will in Augusta Co. 2 Sep 1770, age about 71 years. Land near Christians Creek, the same area as the above Samuel and Alexander Henderson's lands!!!! So many connections and yet not tied together. Let us hear from you!!!!!!

suffered an accident on the farm of his brother, James Henry, two miles west of the city a few days ago. Mr. Henry was hauling logs. The loads of horses he was driving became frightened and started to run away. He was thrown from his seat and one of the logs rolled on him. Both legs were broken below the knees and he suffered much from shock and exposure as he lay quite a while in the woods before he was found.

The body had been taken to the Hoge & Flanagan funeral home where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. George T. King, pastor of the First Baptist church. Burial will be made in the Bethel cemetery at Walesboro.

Mr. Henry was born and reared in this county and spent his entire life here with exception of a few years in Oklahoma and California. He returned here about a year ago from the latter state. He is survived by a son, Clarence Henry of Oakland, Cal.; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth McMichael of Tulsa, Okla.; two brothers, Frank and C. A. Henry of Albany, and a sister, Mrs. Martha Lucas.

Charles M. Moxley, 68, Former Moulder, Dead

Charles M. Moxley, 68, well-known resident of this city, died last night at 11 o'clock at his home, 1002 California street, following several months of illness. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Wylie, pastor of the Methodist church and burial will be at Greensburg.

Mr. Moxley was born in Osgood. He came to this city 20 years ago. For many years he worked as a moulder at the old Reeves plant and until his recent illness was employed in the office at the Reeves Pulley company. He was a member of the Methodist church and of the Odd Fellow lodge, and was a highly esteemed man. He was especially devoted to his wife, who for 15 years has been confined to her bed on account of injuries sustained in a fall. While attending an entertainment at one of the local theatres she fell off a low step and her hip was fractured in three places. She has never been able to leave her bed. Mr. Moxley was always devoted to her and tender in his care.

Besides his wife, he leaves a nephew, Pleas Stott, and five nieces, Mrs. William Pruitt, Mrs. Charles Myer and Mrs. Frank Meyers, of Osgood; Mrs. Kates Ketchum, of Rushville and Mrs. Maude Snyder, of Burham.

Mrs. Ruey Henderson, 60, Dies in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ruey Henderson, 60, wife of B. F. Henderson, of Pike Peak, Brown county, died in the St. Vincent's hospital in Indianapolis yesterday afternoon following a long illness. The body has been moved to the Hoge and Flanagan funeral home where services will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. George T. King. Burial will be made in Garland Brook cemetery.

Surviving are the husband, three sons and a daughter, Virgil, of Indianapolis; Howard of East Columbus; Robert Henderson, of this city; Mrs. Ernest Schultz, of Indianapolis; a brother, Henry Brown of Nashville; two sisters, Mrs. Her Carmichael, of Mt. Zion, and nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Henderson was a member of the Baptist church and a well-liked woman. She had been ill for several days of a fracture to her leg and other injuries received in a fall at her home. She was taken to St. Vincent's hospital where she was operated on but her condition gradually grew worse.

Frank M. Williams, 52, Local Painter Dies

Convicted Bank Bandit in Terred Near Former Home at Kurtz.

Funeral services for Bruce Scott, 27, southern Indiana bank robber and convict, were held this afternoon at the little country home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Scott, a mile east of Kurtz, in Jackson county. Burial was in Digwood cemetery just a few hundred yards from the home.

Scott's body arrived in Seymour Sunday from Indian, Tex., where he was killed shortly after he held up a fishing station. He was wanted at McAlester, Okla., where he escaped from the state penitentiary while serving a life sentence. He was accused of robbing the Jonesville bank and the Modoc bank and of slaying an Indiana police fireman in January, shortly after his escape from the Indiana reformatory. He is survived by his parents, two brothers and a daughter.

ELLIOTT GETS 3 TO 10 YEARS

Dewey Elliott, North Vernon, today pleaded guilty to two charges in Jackson circuit court at Browns-town, and was sentenced to 10 years in prison on each plea. The penalties will run concurrently.

Elliott was charged on two counts with second degree burglary of Seymour stores. He was implicated in robberies here, but was turned over to the Jackson county authorities instead of the Bartholomew.

TIGER FIGHTS IN PLANE.

London, Dec. 21 (AP). A tiger and his trainer have wrestled their way across the English channel in an airplane. The beast broke out of a cage and grappled with the trainer as he was wont to do in the circus ring. The trainer prudently retired inside the cage to finish the act where it would not distract the pilot from his duties at the controls.

last evening by Captain George Kline and George Moore about 6 o'clock and a charge of intoxication caused considerable disturbance at the jail during the night and had most of the other prisoners pretty well scared that she would attack them.

According to Deputy Sheriff Edgar Healy, soon after the woman was placed in jail she began a campaign of destruction, breaking the commode in the women's compartment and smashing the top to splinters. She then banged the big iron door to and fro, keeping everyone awake. She finally got out into the corridor and took a head long plunge off the banister, and landed on the floor below. Attendants rushed to her believing she had been hurt, if not killed. Other than a bruise on the face she was not injured. She was taken back to her cell and then repeatedly turned the water on and off in the toilet, flooding the floor.

In city court this morning she pleaded guilty to intoxication and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $40, which was paid.

Admits Furnishing the Booze.

This morning as result of Mrs. Innes' arrest, Officers George Chandler and George Moore made a raid at the home of Mrs. Naomi Johnson, also colored, on Jackson street, but failed to find any liquor. However, she was arrested and charged with furnishing and giving Mrs. Innes intoxicating liquor. Mrs. Johnson at first denied the charge but at noon changed her plea to guilty. She was arraigned in city court before Mayor H. Karl Volland.

Mayor Volland took the case under advisement and Mrs. Johnson was sent back to jail.

Hardin Is Acquitted.

Bill Taylor arrested several days ago on a charge of intoxication to which he pleaded guilty in city court, was in court this morning and sentenced was passed. He was fined $10 and costs amounting to $40, which he paid. He also was given a 30-day suspended sentence. Taylor, it is said, has completely reformed since his arrest. He has joined church and expressed his intention of traveling the straight and narrow path.

Albert Hardin this city, from whom Taylor claimed he purchased his liquor, was tried in city court this morning before Special Judge Charlton Walker and was acquitted. Hardin was arrested after a raid at his home in which the officers failed to find any incriminating evidence. He was defended by William H. Dobbins.

Newborn Man Back to Farm.

Less than two months after he had been released from the state penal farm, Stewart Mitchell, of near Newbern, found himself facing a five months sentence to the same institution. He was arrested and placed in the county jail here by Deputy Sheriff Edgar Healy on charges of intoxication and possession of liquor. He was found wandering in a field near Newbern and gave the officer quite a chase before he was captured. When taken in charge he had a pint bottle of liquor in his hip pocket.

In city court this morning he pleaded guilty to both charges and was fined $10 and costs on the intoxication charge and $100 and costs on the other, totaling $170, and was given a 60 day suspended sentence. Unable to pay the fines he will go to the penal farm to serve the term.

The third member of the gang that robbed the Ed Daimbert department store in Hope, N. C., last night, is in the custody of a law and will be brought here at or tonight or tomorrow morning face charges of burglary and in connection with Bartholomew circuit court. Sheriff J. W. Frost received word at noon that the fugitive, a member, Paul Politt, of Columbus, has been arrested in that city and is being held for Bartholomew county authorities.

Woodworth was sent from Fayette county on another charge. He recently completed his term and was then turned over to Ohio authorities.

Politt has been a fugitive since the time of the burglary and was not captured until today. It is understood that he has confessed to his part in the job.

In the robbery at the Daimbert store merchandise valued at between $200 and $300 was obtained. Part of the loot was recovered.

YOUTH HELD AS CHECK FORGER

Robert O'Neal, Indianapolis, Caught After Attempt at Gas Station.

Robert O'Neal, 18, alias Jerry O'Brian and Jerry O'Neal, of Indianapolis, is in the county jail here facing charges of issuing fraudulent checks. His name will be taken in court possibly sometime this week.

O'Neal used an old method in attempting to cash a check for $10 at the Sinclair filling station at Eighth and Jackson streets Saturday night, but due to the quick work of Reginald Julian, manager of the station, he was apprehended.

O'Neal went to the filling station early in the evening and asked to purchase five gallons of gasoline which he said he wanted to give to his father for a Christmas present. He did not have the money, he said, and asked Mr. Julian if he would cash a check. Mr. Julian agreed to do so if the check was signed by persons he knew and if it was a good check. The youth left and said he would be back later with the check.

Poor Job of Picking

Mr. Julian notified Police Captain George Kline, who with Officer Moore went to the station concealed themselves across the street and waited for him. He arrived at the station a little later and Mr. Julian, who had gone to supper, was called by the station attendant. Mr. Julian hastened to the place and took the check in payment. He asked O'Neal where he lived, and he said 712 Washington street. The number happened to be the street address of Mr. Julian. The youth then said he roomed at 5th Washington street, which happens to be the address of John M. Thompson, and Mr. Julian knew there were no rooms there. He told the youth to wait while he went to a nearby business house to get some change. He then signaled the officers who placed O'Neal under arrest.

In O'Neal's possession besides the check given to Julian, which was signed by the name of James Sedgwick, were two other checks, each for $100, and signed by the same name. The three checks were cashed by the Irvington Trust company.

TIGER FIGHTS IN PLANE.

London, Dec. 21. (AP.)—A tiger and its trainer have wrestled their way across the English channel in an airplane. The beast broke out of a cage and grappled with the trainer as he was wont to do in the circus ring. The trainer prudently retired inside the cage to finish the act where it would not distract the pilot from his duties at the controls.

...Kline and George Moore about 6 o'clock on a charge of intoxication caused considerable disturbance at the jail during the night and had most of the other prisoners pretty well scared that she would attack them.

According to Deputy Sheriff Edgar Beatty, soon after the woman was placed in jail she began a campaign of destruction, breaking the commode in the women's compartment and smashing the top to splinters. She then banged the big iron doors to and fro, keeping everyone awake. She finally got out into the corridor and took a head long plunge off the banister and landed on the floor below. Attendants rushed to her, believing she had been hurt, if not killed. Other than a bruise on the face she was not injured. She was taken back to her cell and then repeatedly turned the water on and off in the toilet flooding the floors.

In city court this morning she pleaded guilty to intoxication and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $40, which was paid.

Admits Furnishing the Booze. However, she was arrested and charged with furnishing and giving Mrs. Innes intoxicating liquor. Mrs. Johnson at first denied the charge but at noon changed her plea to guilty. She was arraigned in city court before Mayor H. Karl Volland.

Mayor Volland took the case under advisement and Mrs. Johnson was sent back to jail.

He was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $40, which he paid. He also was given a 30-day suspended sentence. Taylor, it is said, has completely reformed since his arrest, has joined church and expressed his intention of travelling the straight and narrow path.

Albert Hardin, this city, from whom Taylor claimed he purchased his liquor, was tried in city court this morning before Special Judge Charlton Walker and was acquitted. Hardin was arrested after a raid at his home in which the officers failed to find any incriminating evidence. He was defended by William H. Dobbins.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

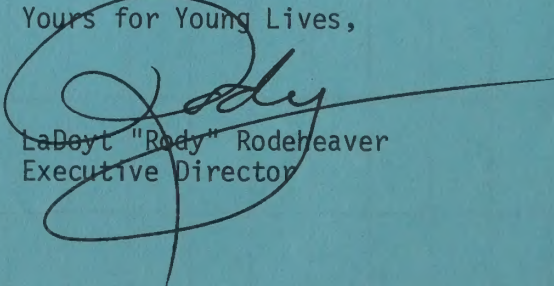

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

(Expectation)

let's agree on the following:

Attendance at meetings. No awards or pins are given out for perfect attendance, but being present at scheduled meetings is an indicator of the value of committee involvement. The flip-side of this is that it is only fair to expect that scheduled meetings have the chance to be agreed upon and not with enough long-range notice to accommodate the good busy folk who are members of the committee.

Financial help. Each steering committee member needs to give regularly to Youth for Christ. They also ought to feel good enough about the value of investing in Youth for Christ to be willing to work with staff in finding new donors for the organization. This commitment should take the form of posting a table at the annual budget, as well as aiding staff with one-on-one appointments. The latter can be done more effectively by having a staffer join a committee person on an appointment he or she initiated. The idea is that committee members have a much greater range of contacts than staff do. Such participation can guarantee the kind of grass roots support essential to an effective and lasting ministry.

Community representation. Steering committee members are opportunistic naturally to talk about Youth for Christ. Whether it be Sunday School class, Booster Club, or the grocery, members can help others understand the organization - sort of act as interpreters of Youth for Christ to the adult community. This also suggests that members can expect to be kept current and up to date on ministry happenings. When misunderstandings come, committee folk who are well informed can aid greatly in clearing the confusion. Open lines of communication between committee members and staff is a vital link for the ministry to the community.

Ministry resources. Steering committee members can count on being asked by staff to volunteer their services for special needs from time to time. It may be helping fry burgers for the Burger Bash, or cooking on the Associate Staff/Student Leader Retreat. Perhaps driving a van or bus for a minister, or being on a panel in front of a club meeting on parents might be the opportunity. Some might do special skills, and some can take on the leadership of a small group Bible study with teens. Staff operate with our Lord's words reminding them "You have not because you ask not." In any case, the more involved steering committee members get, the more fully they can understand and appreciate the ministry. It is certain to pay a rich dividend in all the other areas of ministry involvement.

Thanks. Over the last several years I have struggled with steering committee reform. Now long a person serves on a steering committee and have been doing it long enough to have a track record and have learned through the college of hard knocks. What we do know is that the steering committee is our basic unit of development and is comprised of two different applications. One that is utilized in outlying counties and then a slightly different variation for the metropolitan area. These variations will be discussed later in the manual.

Expectations of a steering committee: Expectations are tricky items. When different people approach steering committee involvement with very different expectations, disappointment and frustration can result. So, let's agree on the following:

One most recent set up has been in Whitley County and once again was a result of one individual becoming a catalyst. It was the Whitley County set-up that has really assisted in getting a lot of what had been up to this time experimentation, pioneering and sometimes well disguised "seat of the pantsism."

What I am sure of in regard to our history is that the steering committee concept has been a major stepping stone in bringing our organization from a small program with a few staff people to a much larger program with many staff people. Of course, the bottom line is not the number of staff but kids who have found Christ; and I believe there is a correlation between the stability of Youth for Christ in the grass roots to our effectiveness in reaching kids. Since that's our goal, let's move on and discuss the purpose of the steering committee.

III. OK, Wiley, you've invented the wheel.
What is the wheel?" (Purpose)

In John Naisbitt's runaway best seller, Megatrends, an entire chapter is devoted to the decentralization. Naisbitt emphasizes local ownership and grass roots movements when he says, "Centralized structures are crumbling all across America. But our society is not falling apart. Far from it. The people of this country are rebuilding America from the bottom up into a stronger, more balanced, more diverse society." I am not sure that I agree with John Naisbitt 100% but what I do know is that in its basic element the steering committees are local groups of adults who sense an ownership and a concern for young people and a desire to share the gospel of Christ with them through the vehicle of Youth for Christ.

Everybody needs a definition; therefore, let me define a Youth for Christ steering committee. It is a group of people who assist in the establishment, promotion of, and maintenance of a Youth for Christ ministry in their local area by working through the local staff person and being responsible to and under the leadership of the Executive Director and the Board of Directors of Youth for Christ. Their prime areas of responsibility are building a financial base, staff support, community liaison, and ministry focus.

The very title steering committee is an indication that it has not been structured to become a legal entity such as the Board of Directors. There is only one Board of Directors. We have representatives serving on our board from our steering committees who act as liaisons from their steering committee. One of our goals with the steering committees is to create a strong ministry focus so that a great deal of the time spent in steering committee meetings is directed towards knowing what's happening in the ministry and developing for the steering committee a picture of what God's doing through the staff person and volunteers. The steering committee will not spend time making decisions that so often keep us from enjoying the ministry. We have all sat on boards where the color of the carpet to be purchased became the most significant thing; or how many times you stand or sit in a service, or where are we going to borrow x number of dollars to get us through this cash flow crunch became the prominent issue. Because the steering committee is not the policy making body of Youth for Christ, those types of things don't take place. We have done that purposely to provide opportunity for more ministry focus at the grass roots level.

We make no secret about steering committee's assuming a major responsibility for fund raising. One of the important lessons we have learned from the past is that unless the community wants a ministry, we only struggle in vain to superimpose an unwanted program on that community. One of the best ways to gauge interest on the part of the people in a given area is their willingness to raise the funds. Therefore, the steering committee takes on the responsibility to create that kind of ownership in a given community. There are at times a hand in glove relationship with the headquarters office regarding the timing of

VII. "All of that's well and good but we're starting from zero." (New Start-Up Procedures)

m. Mildred D. Lackey

Having been involved in this program for over 13 years, I have come to recognize two types of growth - planned and spontaneous. As I have thought about the difference in the two, I have realized that the difference lies in the order of the action steps and the amount of time designated at the outset. Planned growth is in contrast to spontaneous growth. It is up front involvement of people, strategy, long range projects and research. Spontaneous growth is more of a response to the situation that is dropped into your lap. Usually, by an interested party or parties who have a desire to see something happen in their area. In those cases you end up doing some of the research after the fact as opposed to before you move into the project.

to be maintained into your game plan and, therefore, you should not reorder your steps. But my opinion is that plans are not set in stone and involvement is worth the trade off in a well planned, well strategized approach. If one has a well thought out start-up game plan, I believe that spontaneous growth usually can be steered and put into the growth pattern without losing the enthusiasm of the spontaneity. A lot of that depends on the organization's willingness to be flexible and ability to adapt your game plan to the situation.

What I want to do for this section is to outline the steps and then make some comments afterward regarding key elements.

I. Research the area you wish to develop

- A. Determine the perimeter of the area, county, school district, cluster of schools, multiple communities, etc.
- B. Determine the number of schools to be serviced
- C. Rough draft the form Youth Guidance ministry might take in the area.
- D. Project number of staff needed - full & part-time
- E. Set a dollar figure that takes into consideration immediate and future growth and is consistent with other areas you've developed.
- F. Attempt to anticipate a ministry start-up deadline.

II. Look for key individuals to assist with development.

- A. What staff people are to be assigned to the start-up phase.
- B. Area businessmen who will give time to introduce you to people and to do fund raising appointments. Parents of kids you have had contact with. Steering committee members from an adjacent area. Pastors, board members, and senior citizens with drive and enthusiasm.

never been nailed down. On the one hand if a person is being effective and enjoys what he's doing there ought to be the freedom to continue; on the other hand an individual can get on a committee and have no way to get off short of a revolt or their own personal death. With the two conditions in mind, I have come to the conclusion that I am looking at a steering committee member serving for a two year period with a renewable clause of two additional years two year. At least this gives steering committee members and staff people a chance to interact over how their feeling and where they are at in their own personal time with commitments and whether they want a change as they move through the passages of live.

PROFILE OF STEERING COMMITTEE PERSONS

General Guidelines:

- I. Make selection a matter of prayer. These people are a key factor in the growth of Youth for Christ.
- II. Pursue couples. The steering committee is designed to provide an activity that keeps couples together instead of being another activity that separates them. This does not exclude singles but the committee is weighed in favor of couples.
- III. The final decision on the selection of steering committee members is made by joint consultation of staff and executive director. Candidates should always be run by current steering committee members. A negative response by steering committee should be reason for reevaluation. No matter how strongly you might believe in the candidate, they must perform in the context of the existing steering committee.

Selection Criteria:

Selection should not depend on a 100% attainment of the criteria listed below but there should be a high percentage of agreements.

1. Agreement with Youth for Christ Mission Statement.
2. Compatibility with Youth for Christ methodology.
3. Christian commitment.
4. Involvement in local church.
5. Willingness to be financially involved in program.
6. Willing to be a table host at annual sharing dinner.
7. Respected by their peers.
8. Time available or willingness to make adjustments in their time.
9. Likes young people - a concern for them.
10. Compatibility with other steering committee members.
11. Denominational affiliation in balance with other steering committee members.
12. Positive husband and wife relationships.
13. Stable family relationships.
14. Have young people in program (past - present - future).
15. Instestinal - "The thermometric" inclination - (translation - gut reaction).

Selection Interview:

The selection interview should take place with the couple over dinner, lunch is especially good because wives like to do this or in their home during evening. You should go into selection interview with a working knowledge of your subjects. Do some spadework prior to meeting. This allows for a more targeted interview and provides you with conversation strategy.

Always begin your discussion with qualifiers - "We are talking with several persons about possible selection on to the steering committee. No decisions have been made." Let me start our discussion by telling you about Y. F. C. and our ministry philosophy. How we're organized etc.

Questions for interview should be directed to answer selection criteria. The criteria forms a launching pad for much of your dialogue.

45. Priming: Filling lines and coil with saline. Removes air in coil and provides a positive pressure.
46. Recirculating Pump: Recirculates bath over coil in the top compartment; when you turn the recirculating pump on, the heater automatically turns on.
47. RSP: Recirculating single pass; bath from tank goes to the top compartment only once and is drained off. Old bath is constantly being replaced by fresh bath.
48. Saline: Sterile salt solution like body fluids; used to fill lines and coil when priming the machine; used to raise a low blood pressure; used to return blood at end of dialysis.
49. Saline Line: Unclamped when air testing so blood pump can pull air into coil; when saline bottle is attached to saline line by a solution administration set, it is a passageway for saline to prime or to give saline when in shock.
50. Side Arm: Regulates level of fluid in the venous chamber.
51. Shock: When the blood pressure drops due to removing too much water too fast from the body. Symptoms include dizziness, nausea, vomiting, blurred vision, etc.
52. Shunt ADAPTER: Fits on C-500 so it can be connected to either the arterial or the venous line of the machine. Also used as a machine to machine (M to M) connector.
53. Sodium (NA): Salt; restricted because it makes you body hold water (edema). Also makes you thirsty. The less salt you eat, the less thirsty you are, the easier it is to lose weight on dialysis.
54. Solution Administration Set: Connection between Saline bottle and saline line.
55. Top Compartment: Holds coil and bath.
56. Ultrafiltration: Removal of water by using high positive pressure.
57. BUN (blood urea nitrogen): Waste product of protein (meat). The more meat you eat, the higher your BUN will be.
58. Venipuncture: Insertion of a needle into a vein in order to withdraw or return blood; in this instance, to obtain and return high flow of blood for dialysis.
59. Venous Chamber: Final filter of blood before it is returned to patient. Catches small air bubbles and clots coming out of coil. As venous pressure increases, level of fluid in venous chamber rises. If pressure drops below 20, chamber collapses (as in a clotted or ruptured coil).
60. Venous Line: Line that takes blood from coil back to patient.
61. "Wet": Extra weight in form of water. If each time you gain weight and you do not remove it all during dialysis, eventually you will have edema (swelling), your lungs will fill with fluid (pulmonary edema) and you won't be able to breathe lying down. Fluid also causes a decrease in hematocrit and an increase in blood pressure.

32. Hemolysis: Destruction of red blood cells. Possible causes:

a. blood pump occlusion too tight.

b. bad bath

c. bath temperature too hot (about 39°C.)

33. Hypertension. High blood pressure; diastolic above 90 (i.e. 180/120). Can be cause by too much fluid or sodium. If cannot be controlled by dialysis and/or medicine, kidneys may be removed (nephrectomy).

34. Hypotension: Low blood pressure. Can be caused by being too low in sodium and water or by too much water being removed too fast. May have systems of blurred vision, ringing in ears, dizziness, or nausea.

35. Infiltrate: Leakage of fluid around needle into the tissue; caused by needle coming out of the vein; causes a hematoma to form.

36. Machine to Machine Connector (M & M): Connecting the arterial and venous lines together with a shunt adapter so that blood can be circulated through the machine when having needle problems (i.e. infiltrated needles).

37. Negative Pressure Monitor: On arterial line; alarm goes off when the blood flow to the machine is restricted (clamp, clot, kink, low blood pressure, etc.).

38. Occluding Forceps: Clamps used on machine to clamp the sidearm, saline line, arterial and venous lines.

39. Occlusion of Blood Pump Rollers: Setting of roller so they press against the tubing just right, neither too tight nor too loose.

40. Overtemp Alarm: Alarms when the bath in the top compartment exceeds a "safe" temperature (39°C). When it alarms it shuts off the blood pump until the temperature of the bath is lowered.

41. Positive Pressure Gauge: Shows how much pressure is inside the coil; should never drop below "20" nor should it rise above "300".

42. Positive Pressure Monitor: On venous line; alarms when pressure inside coil goes over 300. For some reason blood is getting into the coil but not back to patient therefore, pressure inside the coil rises.

43. Potassium (K): Regulates heart beat. Too much or too little causes heart to stop. Some foods high in K - - - chocolate, coffee, tea, potatoes, bananas, fresh fruit.

44. Positive Pressure = FLOW X RESISTANCE
(venous pressure) (blood pump speed) (harvard clamp)

Blood pump supplies the flow. Positive pressure gauge shows pressure. Harvard clamp regulates pressure. If you change the speed of blood pump (faster), venous pressure will change (higher) unless you adjust the harvard clamp (loosen it).

THE ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

DEFINITIONS:

1. Air Bubble Detector: Alarms when air passes through the lower half of the venous chamber. It then automatically turns the blood pump off and clamps the venous line.
2. Anastomosis: A surgical connection; in this instance an artery and a nearby vein.
3. Arterial Line: Takes blood from the patient to the machine and into the blood pump.
4. Air Testing: Filling lines and coil with air to determine if there is a leak in the system or a ruptured coil.
5. Bath Tank: Holds dialysis water and concentrate.
6. Bath Tank Drain: When open allows bath tank to drain; must be closed before making bath.
7. Blood Pump: Acts as an artificial heart and pumps blood from body to machine through arterial line. (Tape on front of pump indicates amount of blood pumped at a given speed).
8. Blood Pump Rollers: The part of the blood pump that pulls blood through arterial line to coil.
9. Bruit (Broo'EE): A thrill; the sound produced by arterial blood flowing through the connection of the artery and vein. You can feel vibrations and hear the thrill with a stethoscope. It feels like water in a garden hose with a nozzle.
10. C-500: Connects arterial and venous sides of shunt.
11. Calcium and Phosphorus Relationship: Calcium helps keep bones strong and growing. Phosphorus can pull calcium away from bone growth causing itching, easy breakage, or bone pain. Renal patients take medications which binds with phosphorus which leaves the calcium in the bones. (Medicines are Amphojel, Basaljel, Alu-Tabs, Aluminum Hydroxide).
12. Cannula Clamp: Clamps used to occlude shunt when taking it apart; to be worn around neck.
13. Clotting Time: The time it takes for a blood sample to clot in the test tube. Your clotting time is 30 minutes if you drew the blood at 9:00 a.m. and it was clotted at 9:30 a.m.
14. Coil: Filter blood to remove waste products; acts as an artificial kidney.
15. Conductivity Meter: Device used to check the bath to make sure the proper mixture of de-ionized water and dialysate has been attained. Must check between 12.6---13.6 in bath tank and over 12.0 in the top compartment.
16. Creatinine (CR): Waste product of muscle use. A high creatinine can cause you to itch. It can also cause damage of nerve endings creating numbness and tingling in feet and hands.

Report to the People

"Let Them Know"

fort wayne area youth for christ

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

Have you ever noticed how events that you have scheduled way ahead in the future have a way of sneaking up on you? Well, that's the way it is with our sharing dinners. Though they're scheduled for October, they are really just around the corner. By now you've guessed that this letter is about our annual Report To The People Sharing Dinners.

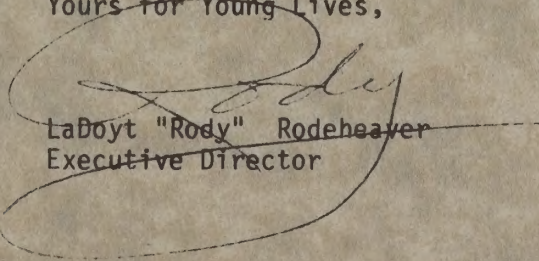

As the program at Youth for Christ has grown over the last several years, so has our need to become more and more effective in getting people together at our sharing dinners to hear the Youth for Christ story. The best means we have found of doing this is getting people to be table hosts and inviting their friends. Our goal is to have over 400 people at our sharing dinner in Wells County - October 29. In order for this to happen we need to enlist 50 table hosts.

This year's dinner not only holds its usual strategic importance but this is our 40th Anniversary of the founding of Youth for Christ. In order to enable us to meet our goals, we're holding an areawide dessert reception for all of our table hosts as we did last year. The dessert reception is being held September 10 at the Fort Wayne Marriott starting at 7:00 p.m. This reception is being underwritten so you and your spouse can be our guest. Here's what the reception is designed to do:

- 1 - To thank you for your past, present, and future involvement in Youth for Christ.
- 2 - To acquaint you with the exciting new developments in Youth for Christ.
- 3 - To give you in capsule form an idea of what the program is going to be like at your sharing dinner.
- 4 - To allow you the chance to enjoy our musical guest, Pete Carlson, who also will be the special musical guest at your dinner in October.
- 5 - To that evening provide you with everything you need to be a table host.
- 6 - To send you away with a renewed enthusiasm for what God is doing in reaching young people through Youth for Christ.

V. "What rock did you find them under?" (Recruitment)

We have already said that "people is it" - but the trick is recruiting them. How do you find them? If you are looking for them over the top of your desk, you won't find them. I have had very few people march into my office and ask to be recruited. You'll be "hitting the bricks". You don't catch tigers in zoos; you get them in the jungle. You will find steering committee people in those local areas and you have to dig them out!

Rule No. 1 is never assume that someone is not interested, too busy, or doesn't care. Your job is to find them, pitch them, pray like mad, and leave the decision up to them.

What are the sources for prospects? One of the best sources I have found is one-on-one fund raising appointments. As you're in the process of start-up underwriting or maintaining one that's already functioning, you gain information during the interview. Find out what their interest is and learn a lot of essential profile criteria about those people. The truth is people who are willing to invest financially are demonstrating concern, and interest. Now you will obviously have go beyond a fund raising appointment, you'll talk to other steering committee members, and other people who know them, but it's a start.

As we have just mentioned, steering committee members are good prospectors, local board members, kids's parents, sometimes pastors can provide you with names. The important guideline to remember recruiting is to always let people know up front that many people are being considered for steering committee positions and that we feel it is an important role and their selection or rejection has nothing to do with their worth as a person.

Interviewing couples or individuals for steering committee positions should never be done over the telephone. It should be face to face, preferably over a meal or in the individual's home. The interview should be as informal as possible and the basic ingredient of the interview should include the disclaimer I have already mentioned. Descriptions of where the program is in its development in our area, Youth for Christ history, methodology, future goals, expectations of a steering committee person, and an opportunity for those people to ask questions are all part of the interview. One of the important goals of the interview would be to fill in the blanks that you have in your mind regarding aspects of the criteria profile. Generally the first interview is left open ended with a "We're looking for several people. Let us get back to you." or if you feel very good and have already discussed your individual with the steering committee and have approval from the Executive Director, you could ask the people to pray about their feelings and you will get back with them concerning a decision.

The key in recruiting is being up front, keeping the surprises for people to a minimum and being sensitive to the feedback from the current steering committee people. The steering committee input is

DESCRIPTION OF THE ARTIFICIAL KIDNEY

Hemodialysis is a procedure whereby the patient's blood is passed through a semi-permeable membrane around which an isotonic solution is recirculated. The high concentration of waste products found in the blood are then passed through this semi-permeable membrane by the process of simple diffusion. The semi-permeable membrane is usually referred to as the "coil" and the isotonic solution is called the "bath" and dialysate". Coils come in different sizes and shapes, but here at Indiana University, we usually use the Ultra-flow II, from Travanol. The UFII represents a dialyzing area of 1.00 meters square. Occasionally we use the Travanol 1.4M² and 1.5M² which are larger surface area dialyzers.

The blood is passed into the coil at a constant rate maintained by a blood pump. This pump is a roller type variable speed pump which gently pushes the blood through the coil. The rollers of the pump must periodically be adjusted to maintain an adequate occlusion (the amount that the tubing is squeezed). You will be shown how to adjust this. Blood flow rates have been calculated for the various pump settings and are usually placed on the front of the pump.

Several gauges and monitors are used on the machines. These do not eliminate the need for close observation; they merely aid in the detection of problems. You will find one pressure gauge (Tyco's gauges) on the machine. It is attached to the venous tubing and shows pressure changes in the coil. You will be instructed on how to adjust the pressure later. The negative pressure monitor is on the arterial line which alarms when not enough blood is being pumped into the machine. The positive pressure monitor is on the venous line and alarms when not enough blood is flowing back to the patient and the positive pressure exceeds 300 mm Hg.

The large tank located at the bottom of the machine is called the bath tank. Here the dialysate concentrate is mixed with deionized water to form a solution which is isotonic (the same as body fluids). The flow meter is the only connection between the tank and the compartment at the top (where the coil is located). Before the flow meter is turned on, the bath must be checked with a conductivity meter.

FUNCTIONS OF THE ARTIFICIAL KIDNEY

Basically, the function of the artificial kidney are the same as those of the human kidneys. By dialyzing the patient for six to eight hours per day, three times per week, and regulating the diet and fluids intake, it is possible for the patient to live a relatively normal life.

The most obvious function is to remove waste products from the blood. Creatinine (an end product of muscle) and urea (an end product of protein metabolism) are found in large amounts in the pre-dialysis blood of chronic patients, while there are none of these waste products in the bath; therefore, they will move through the membrane from the area of higher concentration, (the patient's blood) to the area of lower concentration (the bath). This process is called simple diffusion.

The second major function is to remove water from the patient. Patients who have had their kidneys removed or patients who have very little urine output, obviously cannot eliminate fluids; therefore, there is an increase in weight between dialysis, due to retention of water.

PROFILE OF STEERING COMMITTEE PERSONS

General Guidelines:

- I. Make selection a matter of prayer. These people are a key factor in the growth of Youth for Christ.
- II. Pursue couples. The steering committee is designed to provide an activity that keeps couples together instead of being another activity that separates them. This does not exclude singles but the committee is weighed in favor of couples.
- III. The final decision on the selection of steering committee members is made by joint consultation of staff and executive director. Candidates should always be run by current steering committee members. A negative response by steering committee should be reason for reevaluation. No matter how strongly you might believe in the candidate, they must perform in the context of the existing steering committee.

Selection Criteria:

Selection should not depend on a 100% attainment of the criteria listed below but there should be a high percentage of agreements.

1. Agreement with Youth for Christ Mission Statement.
2. Compatability with Youth for Christ methodology.
3. Christian commitment.
4. Involvement in local church.
5. Willingness to be financially involved in program.
6. Willing to be a table host at annual sharing dinner.
7. Respected by their peers.
8. Time available or willingness to make adjustments in their time.
9. Likes young people - a concern for them.
10. Compatability with other steering committee members.
11. Denominational affiliation in balance with other steering committee members.
12. Positive husband and wife relationships.
13. Stable family relationships.
14. Have young people in program (past - present - future).
15. Instestinal - "The thermometric" inclination - (translation - gut reaction).

Selection Interview:

The selection interview should take place with the couple over dinner, lunch is especially good because wives like to do this or in their home during evening. You should go into selection interview with a working knowledge of your subjects. Do some spade work prior to meeting. This allows for a more targeted interview and provides you with conversation strategy.

Always begin your discussion with qualifiers - "We are talking with several persons about possible selection on to the steering committee. No decisions have been made." Let me start our discussion by telling you about Y. F. C. and our ministry philosophy. How we're organized etc.

Questions for interview should be directed to answer selection criteria. The criteria forms a launching pad for much of your dialogue.

EXTERNAL ARTERIOVENOUS SHUNTS

The external arteriovenous shunt consists of two pieces of silastic tubing, one of which is inserted into an artery and the other into an adjacent vein. The placement of these tubes is usually done in the operating room by a surgeon, but is considered minor surgery. Each tube, or cannula tip is anchored in place by suturing it to the artery and vein. The cannula is then brought to the outside of the skin and connected to each other by a removable, straight teflon connector called a C-500. The complete system is often referred to simply as "the shunt". The arterial side is usually the longer side of the shunt or on the inside of the extremity.

In the early post-operative period the extremity should be elevated on a pillow or two in order to promote good flow, relieve swelling, and add to the patient's comfort. Frequent observation of the shunt is necessary, particularly in the early post-operative period. The physician or dialysis unit should be notified if:

- (a) There is absence of a bruit (a thrill or palpation felt or heard with a stethoscope normally located on venous side of vessel tip).

- (b) The blood in the silastic tubing is dark as compared to a normal appearance.

- (c) There is a separation of serum and cells in the tubing.

- (d) If bleeding is saturating the dressing.

If you have a leg shunt, you should keep it elevated the first week and use crutches the second week. The doctors will usually allow you to begin walking after 10 days. When you begin to walk, the shunted leg will be tender, but it is very important that you walk normally; If you do not, it will make walking more difficult and more painful. If you have a large amount of swelling you should return to using your crutches.

It must be emphasized that it is necessary to be extremely gentle in working with the shunt. Undue stress on the shunt will cause irritation of the lining of the artery and vein. The irritation will result in inflammation of the tissue and may result in the shunt not functioning. The arteriovenous shunt requires meticulous care because successful hemodialysis and shunt life depend on a clean healthy shunt.

When working with the shunt for any purpose, strict aseptic technique must be adhered to since there is a direct contact with the blood stream. Contamination can cause localized infection in or around the cannula. Septicemia in dialysis patients is most frequently the result of faulty technique. Sterile gloves are worn not only for the aseptic techniques, but also to protect the blood drawer from a possible hepatitis infection.

The shunt should always be observed for irritation, leakage of blood from exit sites, increased warmth, redness, pain, swelling purulent drainage from the exit sites, poor blood flow or stringy threads when taking shunt apart, white specks in blood (fibrin), and a clotted shunt.

The dream that I have interwoven into the steps of steering committee development is that steering committees can evolve to the place where they are playing a major role in direct ministry primarily with the parents of the young people that we minister to. If, in fact and I believe it to be true, that our families are disintegrating, we must figure out ways of ministering beyond just the teenagers that we have contact with. Often the case becomes one of having what we have done with a teenager destroyed through the tension and problems in the home.

I believe the glue that will hold the steering committee concept together is the ability for the steering committee members to be spiritually fulfilled through their involvement on the committee. But a growth in their own personal growth by being given opportunities to involve themselves in the lives of other people. If that dynamic is taking place in a steering committee, you will not have to spend a great deal of your time motivating people to get them involved in the ministry. They will be motivating you.

before insertion of the dialysis needles is to use Betadine. The area of insertion is not touched after this preparation and the skin is now ready to introduce the needles.

4. Puncture Techniques

All vessels are 3 dimensional and therefore, needles can be inserted either on the top or the sides. Generally, most people prefer to enter the top of the vessel. However, if we enter from the side, it gives up additional entry sites and helps prevent puncturing the fistula or conduit at the same spot. The needle entry site should always be changed from dialysis to dialysis to avoid repeated punctures. Most people prefer to do this by "marching up and down the fistula or conduit" to avoid repeated needle punctures.

The needle should always enter the skin at 45° in line with the access and then tunnel under the skin a few millimeters before entering the blood vessel. It is preferable to enter the blood vessel deep enough so a good flow of blood is obvious. The plastic tubes (overlying the needle should then be inserted and threaded into the vessel up to the hub of the needle). This allows for maximum stabilization of the needle and avoid cutting or tearing the vessel during dialysis.

5. Removing the needles after dialysis.

After you have dialyzed, the needles must be removed and the pressure held on the blood vessel until bleeding has stopped. To do this it is preferable to firmly press above the site of puncture (on the arterial side) just firm enough to prevent bleeding but not enough to totally occlude the blood vessel. A second finger should be gently held over the puncture site to prevent any blood from seeping through the hole made by the needles. Generally, it may take from 5 to 15 minutes before the bleeding is controlled. A gauze dressing can then be placed over the puncture site with enough pressure to prevent recurring bleeding but not enough pressure to occlude the fistula or conduit. While holding pressure on fistula frequently check to make sure bruit is present.

6. Exercise* instruction sheet for A-V Fistula and A-V Conduits in the Upper Extremity.

To obtain maximum efficiency from your new fistula, this instruction sheet has been prepared. This exercise has been successful and if followed correctly, your fistula should improve until it has reached its maximum maturity. If performing this simple exercise causes severe or marked pain, you should inform your physician and discontinue the exercise.

Please follow these instruction for exercise unless it is contraindicated because of severe pain or not advised by the doctor.

17. Dialysate: A concentrated salt solution mixed with de-ionized water to total either 100 liters, 120 liters, or 200 liters or 100 liters, Ca-3 or Modified Na/K. When mixed properly, it is like the blood in your body with the exception that it does not contain red blood cells.
18. Dialysate Pump: Mixes bath concentrate and de-ionized water in the bath tank; pumps bath to the flowmeter; pumps bath through the bath tank drain.
19. Dialysis: Diffusion of chemicals through a semi-permeable membrane.
20. Disconnect Forceps (DC Forceps): Used to take shunt apart; fit on C-500 to push one side of the shunt off; can use fingers instead.
21. Dry Weight: Your weight when all extra water has been removed; the lowest weight you should be; your post dialysis weight: "real weight cannot be dialyzed off-- only water can";;
22. Final Drain: Drain located at the bottom of bath tank. Must be closed before bath is made. Used to drain tank after cleaning procedures.
23. Fistula: A shunt created inside your arm by sewing an artery and a vein together so that arterial blood is pumped directly into the vein making them larger. Two needles are inserted into these veins each time you dialyze (one for the arterial needle and one for the venous needle.)
24. Flowmeter: Regulates the flow of bath from the bath tank to the top compartment. When it is on 6 you are pumping 600 cc per minute.
25. Harvard Clamp: Clamp on venous line; used to regulate positive pressure.
26. Heater: Heats bath in top compartment to 37C, which is the same as body temperature (98.6F).
27. Hematocrit (HCT or Crit): Percentage of red blood cells in your blood. You lose a small amount of blood each time you dialyze (in coil and in clotting times). Also, you don't replace old cells as rapidly as someone with normal kidney function. Eventually you may need a blood transfusion if it gets too low.
28. Hematoma: Painful, hard swelling caused by blood escaping into the tissues surrounding the vessel, especially if the needle goes through both walls of the vessel.
29. Heparin: An anticoagulant which slows down the time it takes for blood to clot. If you do not give it your blood will clot in the machine.
30. Heparinized Saline: 30cc vial of sodium chloride (saline) with 1 cc of heparin added; marked with a small piece of tape so it will not be confused with plain sodium chloride; used for irrigating fistula needles.
31. Heparin I: Used to connect arterial and venous sides of shunt instead of C-500 when necessary to give heparin through the shunt.

For the artificial kidney machine to function there must be a high flow of blood from the patient to the machine, and back again. Two methods of obtaining this blood are use: the arterio-venous fistula (internal) which is repeatedly punctured by needles and the arterio-venous shunt (external) which protrudes through the skin. Both types of shunts have advantages and disadvantages.

A fistula may be created as a replacement for, or in preference to, an external shunt.

The type most suitable for you depends on your disease, how rapidly it is progressing and how well you do on conservative management (diet and medication). If it will probably be several months before you need dialysis, a fistula may be constructed to allow it time to "mature". If dialysis is necessary very soon, an external shunt will be inserted, since it can be used as soon as it has been put into your arm or leg. At the same time, a fistula may also be constructed to eliminate surgery later, and to allow it to mature for later use. In this instance, the fistula would be in reserve to be used if the original shunt quit functioning.

A fistula is surgically created by making a small incision into an artery and a nearby vein in your arm near your wrist. The two vessels are sewn together so that they form a short length of common vessel opening. Thus, by increasing the blood supply to the veins, they become permanently dilated (larger) and the rate of blood flow is greatly increased. This provides the high flow rates necessary for adequate dialysis.

Usually a fistula is allowed to "mature" for at least 3-6 weeks before it is used. The vessels branching out from the fistula become dilated, due to the increased blood flow entering under high pressure from the artery. They develop into arterialized vessels, having an increased volume of blood. A bruit or thrill can now be heard and felt over the fistula. Smaller vessels below the fistula enlarge to replace the blood supply to the hand, lost from the artery used for the fistula.

It is not possible to predict how well vessels will develop, post-operatively. Patients who normally have large prominent vessels can be expected to develop well arterIALIZED blood vessels in less time than a patient with small vessels. If the vessels that develop are spidery, tortuous and curved, vein-puncture with a fistula needle is difficult. Sometimes only a few vessels may develop to provide adequate flows for dialysis. Fistula exercise may be used to promote earlier dilation of blood vessels. Instruction for fistula exercises will be given to the patient at the time of surgery.

Nicholas Carter, born 1658 probably in Newtown, Long Island, New York. This Nicholas had among other brothers and sisters, -John, who was the eldest, Samuel and Elizabeth. Samuel was quite a celebrated character in the disputes which arose between the proprietors and the Elizabethtown Associates, especially in 1699-1700, in the first years he was admitted to the second generation of Associates, with first let rights and he was chosen one of the assistant surveyors under John Harriman Jr. Elizabeth is the only recorded daughter of Nicholas, married John Radley of Ratcliffe Aug. 6, 1681.

On Dec. 10, 1687, Nicholas and his brother Samuel, both styled of Elizabethtown, mortgage(/) to Thomas Osborn, a tanner of the same place 7 acres of meadow; on Jan, 28, 1699, David Smith, another tanner, of Elizabethtown deeds back to Samuel Carter the 32 acres he had previously bought of both Samuel and Nicholas, in which deed it is stated that both of the Carter brothers were at that time in England. When Nicholas returned if he ever did so, is unknown, as is also the location of his final settling place, for the deed above referred to is, the last record found of him up to now. He apparently left no will, and the names of his wife and children are also unknown, except for the fact that family tradition is responsible for the statement that Barnabas who is referred to above is his son. Henry Wittemore's conjecture, is that "either Nicholas or Samuel are supposed to have moved to Morris County as the Carters are mentioned among the early settlers of the township of Whippanong, New Jersey. and that Barnabas was probably a son of Benjamin, the first of the name mentioned in connection with Morris County.

Revolutionary War Rolls by J. Montgomery Seaver show these Carter names of men who fought in the Rev. War of 1776-1881: Barnabas, Carter, Benjamin, John, Joseph, Nicholas, Samuel, Thomas, William, Mesh(for Meshach), Abednego. There are 27 other Carter names in the same list but these are names that have passed to the descendants of the family of Barnabas Carter, the Revolutionary Soldier and his brothers, Meshach, Abednego, Shadrach, Thomas, William.

There was A Shadrach Carter who entered land in Nelson Co. Kentucky in 1780; an Abednegoe Carter in 1781; Mesheck or Meshack Carter, in 1780 Thomas in 1781; William in 1780. I think that these Carters were brothers, for their land was in the same locality in Nelson Co. Ky. and some adjoining. Jefferson Co. was the parent county of Nelson Co. (Fleish Meshack Carter m. Eliaabeth Hinton 1788 (Nelson Co. Ky. records) (Swan) Abednego Carter mentioned in 1814 wife Tabitha in his will-no children mentioned. Shadrach and Meshack Carter entered land (Govt. grants) side by side 1780 and Bednego in the same community in 1781/ Found old deed showing Shadrach Carter's wife as Jane Aug. 12, 1793. Later deeds show Shadrach Carter's wife as Suekey. David Luce bought 271 acres land in 1793 on Beach Fork-married Elizabeth Carter 1791. Shadrach Carter's land was on Beach Fork. (Swan) Marriage records show Thomas Carter married Betsey Houston, May 14, 1800 These records are in the Register of the Ky. Historical Society, Volume # 20, also the marriage record of Barnabas Carter to Sarah Clayton 1802.

"There was a Thomas Carter who lived close to Thomas Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln's father in Ky. about the same locality as our Barnabas. I read in an old History, that Thomas Carter was instrumental in getting the Lincolns to move to Spencer Co. Indiana. This same Thomas Carter's name was found on a will of Thomas Spencer, who married

If a patient follows his diet and fluid restrictions, he should gain only between two to three pounds of weight between dialysis. If dialyzed properly, this weight will be removed during the dialysis. By a process called ultrafiltration, larger amounts of water (4-6 pounds) can be eliminated if need be. However, this process puts added strain on vessels just as added water puts stress on the heart and excessive weight gains should be avoided to decrease chances of heart failure and "heart attacks."

Since the bath is an isotonic solution, it contains nearly all the ions found in the blood. For example, NA (sodium), Cl (chloride), Mg (magnesium), CA (calcium), P (phosphorus) and a small amount of K (potassium) are found in the concentrate that is added to the bath. Dialysis patients generally have electrolyte imbalance pre-dialysis, but the electrolytes diffuse across the membrane and are maintained at normal levels by the end of the dialysis. Thus, another function of the "kidney" is to adjust electrolyte balance.

Another function of the machine is to correct the acid-base imbalance due to uremia and electrolyte imbalance. The arterial pH pre-dialysis is usually in the range of 7.3 to 7.35 and post dialysis is 7.45 to 7.5. The pH change is due to acetate in the bath which diffuses into the body and is taken up in the liver where it is chemically changed to bicarbonate. The bicarbonate then neutralizes some of the excess H^+ (hydrogen ion) and raises the blood pH.

The above are then the major functions of the artificial kidney; however, the machine can also be used to eliminate poisons from the body as in the case of drug overdoses or accidental poisoning.

Report to the People

"Let Them Know"

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

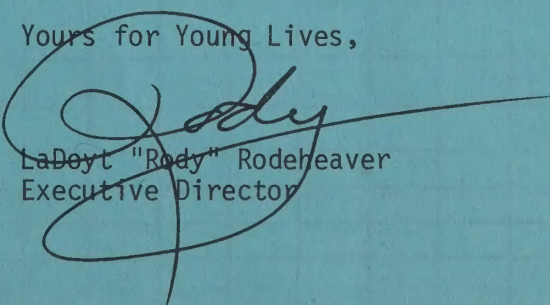

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

TO CUT CUSTER SALARY IN TWO

City Attorney Will Get Only $2000 a Year Under Ordinance.

OPPOSITION BREWING

Fight Depends Upon What Law Books Reveal, is Report Today.

A bomb shell in the form of a salary cut for the city attorney was exploded last night during the inaugural meeting of the new city council.

Clarence K. Custer, new city attorney, will receive $4000 instead of $8,000 a year—the salary paid in the past—if an ordinance presented last night is given final approval.

The ordinance was presented by the new council's finance committee, of which E. E. Cowles is chairman, and was passed on first reading. The ordinance will be brought up again at the regular meeting Monday night, Jan. 26, and if passed on second reading will become a law.

Investigation Started.

The ordinance came as a distinct surprise last night, and there was little comment when it was passed on first reading.

Before it is presented for final reading in two weeks, however, the legality of the ordinance will be thoroughly investigated. It was learned today. Whether a fight will be made to keep the attorney's salary at $12,000 or not depends upon outcome of the search of law books. It was indicated. It was brought today, however, that the move is legal and that nothing can be done to prevent the salary cut.

The meeting of the new council was well under way last night when Fred C. Owens, new clerk, read the proposed ordinance. H. Earl Volland, new mayor, turned to Mr. Custer and asked if the ordinance would have to be advertised. Mr. Custer replied that it would not have to be advertised and would take the usual course of any other ordinance.

When the councilmen passed on the ordinance, the four republicans voted favorably while the two democrats answered "present" when their names were called.

A Political Angle.

The political angle of the move to cut the city attorney's salary is interesting. The republicans have a majority in the council, and as a result hold the upper hand in voting. Mr. Volland is a democrat and appointed Mr. Custer, a democrat, to the office of city attorney.

The ordinance was prepared some time previous to the meeting, of course, but nothing was said about it until it came up during the regular course of business last night.

Meeting Deferred.

Meeting of a councilman to represent the first ward was deferred until Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when a special meeting will be held by the new city fathers.

A. T. Griffith, republican, and G. A. Kemper, democrat, tied in the matter of votes during the recent election, necessitating a special election by the new council. Griffith is slated to be the first ward councilman, and he attended the meeting last night. It was found, however, that before the council can name the first ward councilman, the fact must be ad-

CIVIC LEADER, WAR VETERAN

William Henderson, 85, Dies at Home Here After Two Months' Illness.

LAST RITES THURSDAY

Retired Business Man, Resident of County For 50 Years, Passes On.

William Henderson, 85, for half a century a leader in civic affairs in this county, died at 7 o'clock last evening at his home, 811 Washington street, after an illness of two months. He was a veteran of the Civil war.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the First M. E. church, conducted by the Rev. W. N. Wylie, pastor, assisted by the Rev. George Murphy, a former pastor. Burial will be made in Garland Brook cemetery.

Mr. Henderson had lived in this county for 50 years. He and Aaron Hughes were associated in the timber business for some 15 years in his early life. Later he entered the furniture business. He formed a partnership with John Q. Davidson, known as Davidson and Henderson, and they operated an undertaking and furniture business for 25 years. He was also connected financially and as an officer with the Orincoo Furniture Company for a time.

Irwin-Union Director.

Mr. Henderson was one of the original directors of the former Peoples Savings & Trust Company, which later was merged into the Irwin-Union Trust company, and he continued as a director of the latter institution. He was interested in farming and operated a farm for the last thirty years.

While in business, and even after his retirement fifteen years ago, Mr. Henderson was keenly interested in civic affairs. He was one of those men who always could be counted on to give unashamedly of his time and energy when any movement for the good of the city or county was started. He was one of the first members of the chamber of commerce.

In M. E. Church 35 Years.

Mr. Henderson's home life, both as husband and father, was described by those who knew him as ideal. Since retiring from active business and public life he had devoted practically all his time to his family and to his home.

Another of his deep interests was his comradeship with other Civil war veterans. He served as a private in the 126th Indiana Volunteer Infantry the last year of the war, although he was under age when he enlisted. He later became an active member of Itham Keith post of the G. A. R.

Mr. Henderson's devotion to his church also was well known. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for 35 years, and was president of the board of directors of the First M. E. church here for many years, until his age incapacitated him for attending to the duties of that office. He placed his church duties above all others, and was as faithful as a member as he was as an official.

Member of Masonic Bodies.

He was a prominent Mason, being a member of all the local bodies of the order and the Scottish Rite and at Indianapolis; and was a member of the Knights of Pythias here.

TWO ESCAPE IN CROSSING CRASH

Interstate Traction Car Smashes Automobile at Taylorsville.

C. M. Archer and his father, Henry Archer, both of Velparaiso, had a narrow escape from being killed this morning when a Chevrolet coupe in which they were riding was struck by a limited interurban car on the Interstate Public Service company's crossing at Taylorsville. The automobile was badly damaged, but the occupants escaped injury other than being somewhat shaken. They were brought here and the wrecked coupe was taken to the Powell Chevrolet Sales company's garage on Jackson street for repairs.

The accident occurred at about 8:30 o'clock as the Archers were driving west on a road through Taylorsville, having driven that far from Indianapolis.

Failed to Hear Bell.

They failed to hear or see the crossing signals, it is said. The limited was northbound, but had slowed down for the Taylorsville crossing as it is often flagged there. However, it is claimed the distress whistle of the interurban was sounded when the motorman saw the automobile. The latter did not get entirely onto the track when the engine died. It was struck by the interurban and the force of the impact turned the automobile completely around and when it stopped it was headed in direct opposite direction in which it had been going.

The automobile was badly damaged, the radiator being smashed, the front end of the engine was knocked down and the rear fender and wheels were broken and the body was twisted. The interurban car, it is claimed, stopped within twenty feet of the crossing after the crash.

The archers were enroute to Florida to spend the winter.

MRS. TROTTER NAMED MATRON

Appointed to Orphans' Home Job, and Husband is Made Caretaker.

Mrs. Sherman Trotter was appointed matron of the orphan's home by the county commissioners. Her husband was appointed caretaker of the home.

This action followed acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. Elmore Brown, who had served as matron for 27 years.

Mr. Henderson was born in Dark county, Ohio, and moved to Indiana just before he entered the service of his country in the Civil war. In 1866 he married Miss Mary E. Hughes, an Ohio girl, who was teaching school in Indiana at the time. She died in 1879. Four years later Mr. Henderson married Mrs. Nina Belle Jocelyn, who survives him.

Besides the wife, Mr. Henderson is survived by a son, Ray Henderson, local business man and member of the county council; two daughters, Mrs. Charles F. Remy, wife of Judge Remy, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Pearl Melville, who lives at home, a brother, Isaac Henderson, who resides in Florida, and a number of nephews in Kansas and northern Indiana.

There are three grandchildren, Will Remy, of Indianapolis, former Marion county prosecutor; Tommy and Maribel Henderson, of this city, and two great-grandchildren, Isabelle Ellen and Charles Edwin Remy, of Indianapolis.

Leaves Big At New York

Columbus Republican 10-1-1906

Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson went to Indianapolis this afternoon and from there Mr. Henderson will go to Warren, Indiana, to attend the annual reunion of the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Indiana Volunteer Infantry. He was a member of Co. I and this will be the first time he has attended one of these reunions since the close of the Civil War.

Former Resident Stricken

Mrs. Pearl Henderson Melville, 87, a former resident of Columbus at 1945 Franklin street, died today at the Methodist home at Franklin where she had lived since 1957.

A native of Columbus, Mrs. Melville was born Oct. 31, 1883, the daughter of William and Nina Belle Duffy Henderson. She was married to Dr. Alansing Melville and lived in Indianapolis until his death in 1930.

Mrs. Melville was a member of Kappa Kappa sorority and the First United Methodist church.

Survivors include a brother, Ray Henderson of Four Seasons Retirement center; a nephew Tom Henderson of Lafayette; two nieces, Mrs. Roger Billings of Naples, Fla., and Mrs. Will Ramey of Illinois; and a cousin, John Duffy of Shelbyville.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Hathaway-Morrison funeral home by Dr. Harold Mohler. Persons may call after 3 p.m. Friday. Burial will be at Garland Brook cemetery.

Business Leader Dies at 86

Ray Henderson, 86, a former Bartholomew county auditor and Columbus city councilman, died at 8:10 p.m. Sunday at the Four Seasons retirement home, 1901 Taylor road. He had been in ill health the past three months.

Funeral services will be conducted at Hathaway-Myers funeral home at 2 p.m. Wednesday by Dr. William R. Laws and the Rev. Thomas L. Bush. Entombment will follow at the Garland Brook mausoleum. Persons may call at the funeral home from 2 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday. The family suggests that memorials be made to the Knights Templar Eye Foundation, P.O. Box 191, Rhinebeck, N.Y. or the Crippled Children's fund of Riley hospital in Indianapolis.

During his lifetime, Henderson was active in community and business affairs in Columbus.

The Columbus native served as county auditor from 1919 to 1923 and as a city councilman during the second world war.

After completion of his term as auditor in 1923 Henderson purchased the Benzol cleaning company here and managed it for 21 years.

He sold his share of the firm in 1942 and took a position as head of the real estate, insurance and securities department of the First National bank.

He was instrumental in the acquisition of the land and the development of the Harrison Lake area and the country club.

Prior to his election as auditor, Henderson operated a funeral parlor here in Columbus from 1906-1912, eventually selling the business to Walter Hathaway and the late James Goodnough.

He then operated a retail shoe business on Washington near Fifth for three years and worked as an auto salesman for three more years.

Well known for his interest in art, Henderson had attended the Cincinnati and Chicago Art Academies and had studied art at DePauw university.

Henderson was born May 21, 1887, to William and Sina Belle Duffy Henderson. On April 20, 1909, he married Estelle Gysie and she survives. Also surviving are a son, Thomas R. Henderson of Lafayette, and a daughter, Mrs. Roger Billings of Naples, Fla. He was preceded in death by a sister, Pearl Melville in February, 1971, and a half-sister, Mrs. Charles Ramey.

Henderson was a member and had been an elder of the First United Presbyterian church, was a 50-year member of St. John's Masonic lodge No. 20 and the Commandery, a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity for 67 years, and a member of Rotary International.

CENSUS REC

III. OK, Wiley, you've invented the wheel.
What is the wheel?" (Purpose)

In John Naisbitt's runaway best seller, Megatrends, an entire chapter is devoted to the decentralization. Naisbitt emphasizes local ownership and grass roots movements when he says, "Centralized structures are crumbling all across America. But our society is not falling apart. Far from it. The people of this country are rebuilding America from the bottom up into a stronger, more balanced, more diverse society." I am not sure that I agree with John Naisbitt 100% but what I do know is that in its basic element the steering committees are local groups of adults who sense an ownership and a concern for young people and a desire to share the gospel of Christ with them through the vehicle of Youth for Christ.

Everybody needs a definition; therefore, let me define a Youth for Christ steering committee. It is a group of people who assist in the establishment, promotion of, and maintenance of a Youth for Christ ministry in their local area by working through the local staff person and being responsible to and under the leadership of the Executive Director and the Board of Directors of Youth for Christ. Their prime areas of responsibility are building a financial base, staff support, community liaison, and ministry focus.

The very title steering committee is an indication that it has not been structured to become a legal entity such as the Board of Directors. There is only one Board of Directors. We have representatives serving on our board from our steering committees who act as liaisons from their steering committee. One of our goals with the steering committees is to create a strong ministry focus so that a great deal of the time spent in steering committee meetings is directed towards knowing what's happening in the ministry and developing for the steering committee a picture of what God's doing through the staff person and volunteers. The steering committee will not spend time making decisions that so often keep us from enjoying the ministry. We have all sat on boards where the color of the carpet to be purchased became the most significant thing; or how many times you stand or sit in a service, or where are we going to borrow x number of dollars to get us through this cash flow crunch became the prominent issue. Because the steering committee is not the policy making body of Youth for Christ, those types of things don't take place. We have done that purposely to provide opportunity for more ministry focus at the grass roots level.

We make no secret about steering committee's assuming a major responsibility for fund raising. One of the important lessons we have learned from the past is that unless the community wants a ministry, we only struggle in vain to superimpose an unwanted program on that community. One of the best ways to gauge interest on the part of the people in a given area is their willingness to raise the funds. Therefore, the steering committee takes on the responsibility to create that kind of ownership in a given community. There are at times a hand in glove relationship with the headquarters office regarding the timing of

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

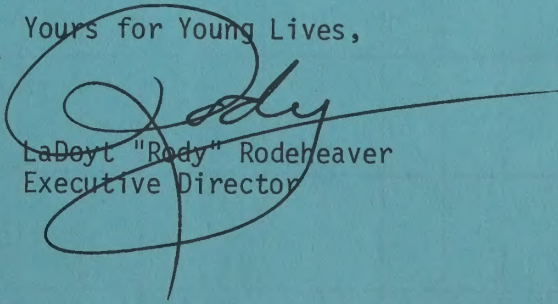

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyl "Rody" Rodeheaver

recruiting and placement of staff people; that area will be discussed when we talk about new program start-ups, but the point is that where people have "caught the vision" raising the needed funds has in several instances even been enjoyable.

Along with the fund raising assistance, comes the role the steering committee plays in the support of the local staff person. Campus Life/Youth Guidance ministry can be a lonely assignment. One of the bright spots in our ministry is the longevity that we have seen in our staff people. Much of that is the direct result of the Tender Loving Care that our people have received from steering committees. They have discovered that they are not the lone ranger and there are a lot of people who are behind them and working hard to see that that ministry is happening. They know that they are being prayed for, challenged, and encouraged to "keep on keeping on." The team feel that steering committees provide the developers of people and the varifier of what we preach and that's Christian community and person centered concern.

We live in a world of media immediacy. We often are at the scene of events that we once would be reading about several days or weeks afterward. There are positives and negatives to this media impact. One of the negatives is that there's more of a tendency to try to lump everybody in the same box and along with that a heightened fear level. I see this best exemplified in the cults and people proclivity to throw any group that's different than the church on the corner in the cult box. Hence, the extreme importance of the steering committee communicating who Youth for Christ is, what we do, and how we do it to their community. Many misunderstandings have been quickly and efficiently handled because of steering committee members being sensitive to situations. Every problem that can be solved or every question that can be answered on the local level is a problem or a question that's probably going to be better handled.

The steering committee becomes the heartbeat, the eyes, the ears, the voice in that local area of Youth for Christ. When that group is strong and functioning, the ministry can flourish and grow. Staff people can develop, volunteers can be recruited, and most of all, the ministry can be effective in the changing of young people's lives.

Heber and H. Wallace. The daughters both died young.

H. Wallace Thomas received his education at Indiana, attending the common schools and later the State normal school. He then found employment with the Northwood Glass Company, with which concern he was connected for a period of thirteen years. He is a stockholder and director of the Dugan Glass Company of Indiana borough, of which company he is secretary, and is also engaged in the livery business at that place. Mr. Thomas is one of the leading business men of Indiana, is serving as secretary of the Board of Trade, and has done his full share in promoting local commercial interests. But he has not confined his energies to business. He served three years, 1906-07-08, as member of the borough council, and in 1908 was elected sheriff of the county, serving a term of three years in that important office. In politics he has been prominent as one of the most effective local workers in the Republican party, is present treasurer of the Republican county committee, and is a member of the Americus Republican Club of Pittsburg. He is also well known in fraternal circles, being a member of the I. O. O. F. and past grand of Lodge No. 346, of Indiana; member of the Royal Arcanum; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 1468; B. P. O. Elks, being past exalted ruler of Lodge No. 931, of Indiana; also a member of the Cosmopolitan Club of Indiana.

On Nov. 12, 1902, Mr. Thomas married Charlotte A. Barnhart, of Indiana.

ROBERT HENDERSON WILSON, of Saltsburg, Indiana county, Civil and Mining Engineer, is descended from several families conspicuous for strength and character among the early settlers of this region. He belongs in both paternal and maternal lines to that sturdy Scotch-Irish stock, industrious, rugged, leaders of thought and action in every line of progress, which has been such a strong element in establishing the best influence in Pennsylvania. The names Henderson, Wray and Wilson are well known and respected in this part of the State, where representatives of these families have lived and worked for several generations.

Mr. Wilson was born July 9, 1851, in South Bend township, Armstrong Co., Pa., son of James D. Wilson, grandson of Hugh Mitchell Wilson and great-grandson of Capt. James Wilson, whose parents came to this country from Scotland. Capt. James Wilson was born in Chester county, Pa., and shortly after the close of the Revolutionary war came westward with a colony to the section now included in Washington and Allegheny counties, settling in Allegheny county on the "Forks of the Yough" (Youghiogheny). He was captain of a company of "minute men" and was engaged in one or two expeditions against the hostile Indians which to some extent still roamed over the region. About 1783 he married Isabella Mitchell, a native of Adams county, Pa., and they reared a family of six sons: John (who was a member of the State Legislature for Allegheny county), James, Samuel, Thomas, David and Hugh Mitchell.

Hugh Mitchell Wilson, son of James, was born April 1, 1793, near Elizabeth, Allegheny Co., Pa., and died July 31, 1872. For a time he was a merchant at Elizabeth, then farmed, and later owned and operated a grist and saw mill until 1834, when he sold out. In March, 1835, he removed from his native county to Armstrong county, where he purchased land, finally acquiring ownership of over six hundred acres. On Dec. 21, 1815, he married Mary Henderson, who died June 30, 1867, and is buried beside him in the cemetery at Olivet. They had a family of eight children, namely: Rebecca, born in 1816, married Thomas Watson, of Saltsburg; James D. is mentioned below; Rev. Matthew H., born in 1820, married Mary Blasdel (he was a noted educator, the founder of Jacksonville Academy, and for a time president of Madison College, in Ohio); Mitchell, born in 1822, married Elizabeth Moore; Martha, born in 1824, died in 1845; John H., born May 27, 1827, married Nancy J. Warner; Thomas J., born in 1829, died in 1890; William T., born Nov. 4, 1830, married Eliza Scott. The father was first a member of the Associate Reformed Church and was practically the founder of the Olivet United Presbyterian Church and served as one of its ruling elders for fifty years. He was a Whig and Republican in political sentiment.

Rev. Matthew Henderson, the grandfather of Mrs. Hugh M. Wilson, was the founder of the prominent family of that name in Washington county, Pa. He came from Fifeshire, Scotland, where he was born in 1735, and was a graduate of the University of Glasgow. In 1758 he was ordained a minister of the Associate Church of Scotland, better known as "Seceders," and immediately afterward came to America, settling first at Oxford, Chester Co., Pa., and about 1779 coming to Washington county, where he became pastor of the churches of Buffalo and Chartiers in 1782. He took a high place among the leading men of his denomination and became a noted worker along the lines of higher education. He was one of the charter members of the board of trustees of Washington Academy, at Washington, Pa., and the first president of the board. He was one of three men who virtually founded Jefferson Academy, at Canonsburg, Pa., the two above named schools both afterward growing into collegiate dignity, and being later merged into Washington and Jefferson College. Mr. Henderson was also one of the original incorporators of the academy from which has grown the splendid University of Pittsburg. His son, Rev. Matthew Henderson 2d, was born Jan. 10, 1762, at Octoraro Creek, Chester county, and came to Washington county with his family. Like his father he became a noted religious worker. He was the first minister of any of the Scottish churches to be educated in America, and was the first licensed minister of the Associate Reformed denomination in America. In politics he was a Whig. On Oct. 3, 1786, he married Rebecca Patterson, of Lancaster county, and they had a family of nine children: Martha, Mary (wife of Hugh M. Wilson), Matthew (a member of the Pennsylvania Constitutional convention of 1838), Samuel, John, Arthur, Ebenezer, James and Rebecca.

James D. Wilson, son of Hugh M. and Mary (Henderson) Wilson, was born Nov. 5, 1818, in Allegheny county. He remained at home until his marriage, and the next month, in April, 1847, moved to South Bend township, Armstrong county, settling on a tract of 120 acres near the village of Olivet, which his father had purchased in 1838. This land his father deeded to him some time later. Mr. Wilson followed farming practically all his life, and became owner of more than 200 acres. He was one of the original stockholders and directors of the Apollo Savings Bank, now the Apollo Trust Company, and served as director until his death. He was the last survivor of the original members of the United Presbyterian Church at Olivet, and died Sept. 16, 1895.

On March 27, 1847, Mr. Wilson was married to Nancy Wray, Rev. Alexander Donaldson performing the ceremony. Mrs. Wilson was born Aug. 11, 1825, in Armstrong county, daughter of Robert and Abigail Wray, and she still survives, living on the old homestead. She and her children also united with the Olivet United Presbyterian Church. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson had six children: Hugh, born in 1849, who died in infancy; Robert Henderson, born July 9, 1851; Mary L., born Jan. 5, 1854, who still lives on the old homestead; Abigail, born Sept. 18, 1856, living on the old place; Sarah, born in 1860, who died in infancy; and Hattie S., born April 27, 1864, married to Charles Stewart.

Robert Henderson Wilson received his early education in the common schools and Eldersridge academy. He took his college course at the Western University of Pennsylvania (now the University of Pittsburg), studying civil engineering, and has since been engaged in general engineering work. This professional work has comprehended the design and superintendence of construction of important municipal water systems, town and city sewerage and paving, and plans for, and installation of, extensive colliery plants through the Pennsylvania bituminous region, and he served a term as county surveyor of Armstrong county. Mr. Wilson has a large practice as a consulting engineer and geologist, and his work in this line has been quite extensive, reaching from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, in eastern Canada, through Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, and into Kentucky. He is at present chief engineer for the Armstrong County Coal Company and Valley Coal Company, of Leechburg, Pa., the Aladdin Coal and Coke Company, with mines at Aladdin, Pa., the Dents Run Mining Company, Elk county, Pa., Armerford Coal Mining Company, Dilltown, Pa., the Kier Fire Brick Company, Pittsburg, Pa., with mines and plant at Salina, Pa., and mines at Kittanning, Pa., and for the Clymer Water Company, of Indiana, Pa. He was for sixteen years borough engineer for Leechburg, Pa., and is engineer for the boroughs of Hyde Park and Avonmore. He is a member of the town council, and secretary of the Board of Trade in his home town of Saltsburg. He is the last remaining of the original board of trustees of Eldersridge academy, having served in that capacity for thirty-seven years.

In addition to his professional activities Mr. Wilson finds some time to devote to the gentler and more thoughtful side of life as a musical and literary writer, some of his productions having received not only national but international recognition and approval. He is a Progressive Republican in politics, and is a member of the United Presbyterian Church.

On Dec. 5, 1878, Mr. Wilson married Emma L. Blakely, of West Lebanon, Pa., daughter of James Blakely, and granddaughter of David Blakely. The Blakely family is of Irish descent, and was among the early pioneers in what is now Young township, Indiana county. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have had seven children: (1) Florence, born Jan. 11, 1880, is married to Roy A. Long, a coal dealer and contractor of Newcastle, Pa. They have one daughter, Dorothy. (2) Karl C., born Dec. 23, 1881, an engineer and architect, was contractor's engineer in the building of the Carnegie Library, Pittsburg, Pa. He superintended the construction of the first "skyscraper" in Little Rock, Ark., and is now resident manager for a large architectural company at Waco, Texas. He married Eva Miller, of Pittsburg, and they have one son. (3) Zora Wray, born Feb. 1, 1884, married Clark J. McKee, also an engineer, for some time with the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, later with the State Highway Department of Virginia, and now mining engineer for the Keystone Coal and Coke Company, of Greensburg, Pa., having charge of surveys of their Cambria and Indiana county mines. They have one daughter, Jean. (4) Irene Blakely, born Jan. 9, 1886, is a successful teacher in the public schools of Newcastle, Pa. (5) Robert Murdoch, born June 11, 1888, followed the family tradition and calling, and is assistant engineer in the office of his father. (6) James D., born Nov. 14, 1892, died Dec. 2, 1893. (7) Mary Abigail was born Nov. 14, 1894.

Daniel Wray, Mr. Wilson's maternal great-grandfather, was born in 1754 in County Antrim, Ireland, and came to America in youth. He lived at Mercersburg, Franklin county, and Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland county, in Pennsylvania, before he settled at the site of what is now Saltsburg, Pa. On March 8, 1775, he took out a patent for 137 acres of land on part of which the borough of Saltsburg now stands, and some of this land is still owned by the Wray family. The land was at that time in the woods, and wolves frequently drove his sheep to the cabin door. In 1781 he married Elizabeth McKibben, and they had a family of seven children: James, Elizabeth, John, Jane, Margaret, William and Robert. The father died about 1825. He was a Whig in politics, and a Presbyterian in religious belief.

Robert Wray, son of Daniel, was born Dec. 8, 1784, near Mercersburg, Franklin County, Pa., and came with his father to the site of Saltsburg in 1800. When his father's health began to fail he assumed the management of the farm, and finished paying for it, adding to what he made by farming by the manufacture of salt, which was one of the earliest industries in the Conemaugh and Kiskiminetas valley. In 1819 he settled in Kiskiminetas township, Armstrong county, where he continued to reside until his death, which occurred Aug. 15, 1869. He prospered in agricultural pursuits, and acquired six hundred acres of land which he divided among three of his sons, and another tract of 120 acres near Olivet which he gave to another son. Few men of his day were more respected, and he held the confidence of his fellow citizens to such an extent that he was a frequent neighborhood arbitrator. He was active in the public affairs of his locality, holding at one time or another most of the local offices, and he was an original and most valued member of the Presbyterian Church of Eldersridge, serving as a member of the first building committee of that congregation. In political conviction he was a Whig and Republican.

In 1812 Mr. Wray married Abigail Manners, whose father John Manners was born in 1760 in Washington county, Pa., and about 1810 moved to Kiskiminetas township, Armstrong county, where he bought and settled on a farm of 200 acres adjacent to the present coal works near Avonmore. Mr. Manners was a member of the Presbyterian Church. In 1785 he married Sallie Couch, and they had eight children: Joseph, Elizabeth, Nathan, Margaret, Nancy, George, Polly and Abigail (Mrs. Wray).

Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray: Sarah, born July 9, 1814, married Robert Smith, and died June 13, 1860. Daniel, born April 1, 1816, married Sarah France. John M., born Nov. 23, 1817, married Anna M. Townsend. Elizabeth, born Jan. 1, 1820, married John A. Ewing. Margaretta, born Feb. 29, 1824, died in infancy. William H., born Dec. 2, 1821, married Susan Townsend. Nancy, born Aug. 11, 1825, married James D. Wilson. Robert, born Feb. 11, 1827, married Martha Gray. Anna J. was born March 16, 1830, and Abigail M. July 29, 1832. All of these are now dead except Mrs. James D. Wilson and Abigail Wray. It is a rather striking example of family longevity that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray and seven of their ten children lived beyond man's allotted span of three score years and ten.

JOHN P. ST. CLAIR, a resident of Homer City who has been prominent in the life of that place as business man, public official and church worker for many years, was born Dec.

1801, and his will mentions the wife, Isabella, and children: John, Joseph, Jones, Alexander, Becky, Sarah, Margaret and Jean.

James Henderson (b 1708 Scotland, d 1784, Va.), also served in the Augusta Militia in the French and Indian War, first as Ensign and later as Lieutenant. June 23, 1783, he married Martha, daughter of Audley Harrison Hamilton, Gent., and his wife Eleanor Adams. They were the parents of: David, John, James, William, Sarah, Joseph, Jean, Samuel, Archibald and Margaret. Dr. Miller brings the line of descendants of James and Martha Henderson, down to 1900 and embodies many interesting biographical items.

Among the distinguished Americans of this name are found: Hon. David B. Henderson of Iowa, Speaker of the National House of Representatives; Hon. James P. Henderson of Texas, United States Senator; Hon. John B. Henderson (son of Jas. and Mary Dawson Henderson of Danville, Va.) Federal General and United States Senator from Mo.; Wm. James Henderson, Musical Critic and Scholar, of New Jersey; Charles Hanford Henderson, Educator and writer, of Pennsylvania; and Chas. Richard Henderson, professor and writer, of Illinois.

The names of many others of this family might well be mentioned as history builders in America, but space does not permit. Collateral kinsmen of the Scotch Progenitor are scattered throughout the Western Hemisphere. They are engaged in every walk of life, and it is wholly unnecessary to enlarge upon the attributes and character, of this strict Covenantant family, descended from generation to generation, and ameliorated by each successive age. And while on the subject of the attainments and worth of the house of Henderson, it will not be out of place to remind the patient reader of this family's honor and uprightness, thrift and enterprise, courage and ambition, religious sincerity and charitable generosity, philanthropic spirit and statesmanship.

The Compiler does not claim pre-eminence for this family, whose history is rich in the story of brave men and noble women. Grand and brilliant men have sprung from other blood and their long lines of honored and illustrious descendants have impelled the admiration and envy of the continent, but they have talented men that are able to tell about them. The Compiler has attempted to recall all authentic available information of this noble ancestry, ever the thoughtless destruction of records and the passing of the older generations has crumbled its gravestones and robed the spot in green.

HENDERSON CHRONICLES

FIRST GENERATION

- (1) i. Henderson, the Progenitor. Several contributors advise that Sir Hugh Henderson, of Fordell, County Fife, Scotland, was undoubtedly the ancestor of the Virginia branch of the family with which this work treats. And bold assertions are made that three of his sons, William, Alexander and John came to America prior to 1740 and were disinherited when they fought with the American colonies against the mother country in the war of 1776-81. This is largely conjecture. As a matter of fact, these three brothers came from Fordell, County Fife, Scotland about the time mentioned, and located on Owl Creek, near Alexandria, Virginia, after which they soon separated. They may have participated in the Revolutionary war, there is a suspicion that they did, but no actual proof.

It is the opinion of the compiler, based on considerable research and study, that the Progenitor, was "Alexander," who was a son of John Henderson, who, it is believed, was a lineal descendant of Sir James Henderson (1450-1513) First Knight of Fordell and Lord Chief Justice to King James IV of Scotland.

CHILDREN OF ALEXANDER HENDERSON (1) OF FORDELL, SCOTLAND

- (2) i William Henderson, b ab 1707, Fordell, Scotland; d —; m ^{22 OCT. 1798} (Miss Kearns?). From Pennsylvania Colonial Records, Vol. ^{Grandfather} XI, p 2, it noted that "Wm. Henderson was appointed Capt. of the Eleventh Penna. regiment, Nov. 13, 1776." He is supposed to have lived in Lancaster County, Penna, until after the Revolutionary War, when he probably emigrated into North Carolina.
- ii Alexander Henderson, m Jean or Jane —. With his brothers, Wm. and John, Alexander Henderson settled on Owl Creek, near Alexandria, Fairfax County, Virginia.

1735-40. The duration of his stay in this vicinity was short, next he removed to Albemarle County, Va., where he purchased 400 acres of land on Lickinghole, which he sold to John Piper in 1779-80, who in turn sold to John Baster in 1792. Henderson removed to Augusta County for a few years and finally settled in that section of Kentucky which in 1798, became Fleming Co. (It was formerly a part of Mason Co., which was formed in 1788 out of Bourbon Co., Ky.)

Miller, in his "Genealogies," mentions Alexander Henderson of Augusta County, Va., who, married Sarah, dau of Andrew and Elizabeth Wallace of Albemarle Co., who migrated to Madison Co., Ky., ab 1787 and settled on Paint Lick Creek. Whether this is the Alexander in question is a matter of uncertainty. Alexander was a common name in the family.

But it is certain that the old Henderson home in Fleming Co., Ky., was located about a mile east by north, of Mt. Carmel, on the north side of the State road to Virginia. The tract of land was inherited by a lineal descendant, Geo. A. Henderson (1823-1892), it passed into the hands of a nonkinsman, Saml. Foxworthy, in 1876. The old family burying ground on the farm has suffered the consequences of careless neglect; the fences, like Ben Bolt's Mill, have gone to decay, and over the graves are fields of waving grain.

Miss Falls, of Mississippi, furnishes the best account of her ancestor, Alexander Henderson to be found: "The first Henderson of whom I have any knowledge, was my gr-gr-father (my mother's father). He was a Scotch-Irishman who came over to Virginia, and later emigrated to Kentucky, settling in Fleming Co., not far from Mt. Carmel. I remember hearing my uncle, Alexander, say that Daniel Boone was often at his home. I often heard my mother speak of her grandfather. He lived to be quite old, and always talked quite broken, as my mother said. He had a number of slaves that he freed before he died, giving each a piece of land. I believe his name was Alexander, also, but am not positive on that point. Nor do we know the names of any of his children except my gr-father, Alex. Anderson. He was not of Catholic-Irish stock, but was a Presbyterian of the strictest kind, as were also my mother's parents."

One contributor states that Alex. Henderson fought at the battle of King's Mountain, with five of his sons; and another advises that he was once a resident of Orange Co., Va.

- (4) iii John Henderson, ab 1718-20; settled in Franklin Co., Pa., within twenty miles of Chambersburg, nine miles of Shippensburg and three miles of Upper Strasburg, where he married and reared a family of credit to the name.
- (5) iv Anna Henderson (name furnished by contributors).
- (6) v Daniel Henderson, supposed by some to be of this branch.

One day alone in the forest, Mr. Glendye was attacked by an angry stag and dodged behind a tree, the stag continued his attack and his victim was forced to grasp the huge antlers around either side of the tree and to call for help. Mr. Henderson hearing the call, came and shot the stag. "There, I told you if you ever killed a deer I would have to hold it," was the thrust from Mr. Glendye.

Tate was the son of John Tate, Esq. (b 3, Nov. 1772, Augusta Co., Va.; d 1, Aug. 1854, Callaway Co., Mo.) m 27, Feb. 1784, Elizabeth McClanahan, dau of Elijah McClanahan. John Tate, Esq., was a son of Capt. Jas. Tate who was killed in the battle of Guilford Courthouse 15, Mar. 1781, and his wife, Sarah Hall (dau of Edward Hall and Eleanor Stuart). Sarah Hall was a cousin to: Hon. John Brown who served three consecutive terms in the U. S. Senate from Ky.; Judge Mason Brown of Ky.; Hon. B. Gratz Brown, Gov. of Mo., and candidate for Vice-Pres. of the United States on the Greeley ticket; Hon. Jas. Brown, U. S. Senator from New Orleans and later Minister to France; Jno. H. Fulton, M. C., Va.—Hon. Alex. Stuart, Judge U. S. Court in Mo.; Hon. A. H. Stuart, member of Congress from Virginia, and Sec. of Interior in Pres. Taylor's Cabinet, and a sister to Judge John Hall, of the Supreme Court of N. C.

Col. Isaac Tate, although never a seeker for public office, was a distinguished debater, public spirited citizen and zealous worker in the Presbyterian Church. He was a ruling elder in the Old AuxVasse church for 56 1-2 years, a frequent delegate to the Synod of Mo., and Gen. Assembly. Was a member of the Board of Westminster College from its foundation until his death. He gained his military title by being elected to the command of a regiment of volunteers in what was known as the Mormon war. Mrs. Tate united with the church of her husband in 1832 and lived in its communion until her death. She was a woman of the noblest, Christian character, choosing to think of and comment on the virtues of her friends and acquaintances rather than to notice their faults.

Old Sil-ler, a negro slave woman, directed him to a "Hoe-cake" in the pantry, and being hungry, he ate heartily. On the following day he was found dead in a sitting posture, leaning against a tree by the creek. Investigations proved the guilt of the old negro woman, who confessed putting poison in the cake, intentionally. Feeling ran high in the community, the old slave was given money and invited to cross the river, which she did, but later returned and died in a cabin on the Henderson farm. Others of the family suffered from the poisoned hoe-cake and escaped death only because of having eaten sparingly.

schools and State normal school, graduating from the latter, and taught school in Blacklick township.

SAMUEL TRUBY RUGH, a well-known farmer of Brushvalley township, Indiana county, was born at Greenville, in Cherry-hill township, this county, April 1, 1876.

Michael Rugh, grandfather of Samuel T. Rugh, was the son of Christian R. Rugh. He was born and raised in Burrell township, Indiana county, north of Blacklick, and remained there until 1853, when he removed with his family to Cass county, Ind., spending one year in that location. He then went to Macon county, Ill., where he became a large land owner and a prosperous farmer, and lived the remainder of his life, his death occurring there.

Samuel Rugh, father of Samuel T. Rugh, and second son of Michael Rugh, went to Indiana and Illinois with his father, but later returned to Greenville (Penn Run postoffice), where he engaged in the milling and mercantile business, being the owner of the Penn Run Flouring Mill. In 1880 he again went to Illinois, where he remained to the time of his death, which occurred when he was sixty-two years of age. Mr. Rugh married Margaret Truby, daughter of Simeon and Nancy Truby, of Mechanicsburg, and by her had three children: William, of Illinois; Edgar; and Samuel Truby.

Samuel Truby Rugh, son of Samuel and Margaret (Truby) Rugh, received his education in the public schools of his district, and helped his grandfather, Simeon Truby, in the store until 1898, when he started out for himself. Buying a farm of 117 acres near by, he became engaged in general farming and stock raising, which he has ever since followed. He is now the owner of 300 acres of land, and his success as a farmer is due entirely to his own unceasing efforts and indefatigable labor. He has shown excellent judgment in the conduct of his affairs and has become a valued citizen in his community. In politics long a Republican, he is a great admirer of Colonel Roosevelt. He is quite active in educational work in his community, having been a school director in his district for ten years. He has served four years as member of the council of Mechanicsburg borough. He is liberal in his church views, and is a broad-minded, energetic citizen, whose every effort is for the good of his community.

On Jan. 19, 1898, Mr. Rugh was married to Annie McCrea, daughter of Gilbert T. and Jettrude M. (Stewart) McCrea, of Brushvalley township, and they have had eight children, viz.: Margaret Blanche, John Truby, Jettrude McCrea, Cora Agnes, Gilbert Samuel (who died in infancy), Alma Elizabeth, Ethel Virginia and Samuel Clyde.

JOSEPH A. HENDERSON, of Center township, Indiana county, comes of a family of Scotch-Irish extraction which was founded in America and Indiana county by Robert Henderson, his great-grandfather. The latter married Mary Ann Ralston.

Robert Henderson, son of Robert and Mary Ann (Ralston) Henderson, was born Aug. 14, 1782, in County Tyrone, Ireland, and was a youth of fifteen when he crossed the Atlantic with the rest of the family to make a home in the wilderness. He continued to live in Conemaugh township, Indiana Co., Pa., throughout his active years, in his declining days making his home in the borough of Saltsburg, where he died in 1871, in his ninetieth year. He and his brother Joseph served as soldiers in the war of 1812. He married Frances Graham, who was born in 1789, daughter of William and Frances Graham, and died in 1864. Their children were: Mary Ann, who married Robert McMeans; Eliza, who married James Carothers; Jane, who married D. K. Daugherty; Isabelle; Joseph A.; Margaret G., who married Rev. Andrew Getty; Lucinda F.; and Sarah R., who married John Longwill.

Joseph A. Henderson, son of Robert and Frances (Graham) Henderson, was born in 1823 in Conemaugh township, where he grew to manhood. He followed teaming in his early life, later engaging in farming and lumbering. During the winter months he hauled pine timber from the eastern part of the county to Saltsburg. At this time he was living on the old Rose farm, a tract of 200 acres. He was an energetic, thrifty man, and was on the road to prosperity at the time of his death, which occurred Feb. 25, 1863, when he was in his prime, but forty years old. He was thrown from a horse and received fatal injuries. A few months before, on June 10, 1862, he had married Julia A. Wilson, a daughter of Daniel and Letitia Wilson, and their son Joseph A. was born after the father's death. Mrs. Henderson returned to her father's home in Conemaugh township, and some time later married (second) Joseph Pounds.

Joseph A. Henderson was born April 21, 1863, in Conemaugh township, Indiana county, and was reared by his maternal grandfather, Daniel Wilson, who then lived in Conemaugh township, at what was called Wilson's Mills, on Big run, later moving to Center township, to the Kee farm. The boy attended the public school in the neighborhood, at what is called the Lytle school. At the present writing (1913) he still lives on his grandfather's old homestead, having 147 acres of land, where he is engaged in general farming and stock raising.

Mr. Henderson cast his first vote for James G. Blaine, but some years ago changed his allegiance to the Prohibition party, being a strong advocate of temperance; he has been the Prohibitionist nominee for register and recorder of Indiana county. He has served two terms as school director of Center township and four years as assessor. In religious faith he is a Presbyterian, he and his family belonging to Bethel Church.

On June 10, 1886, Mr. Henderson married Margaret A. Harbison, daughter of Edward and Rosanna Harbison, of Center township, and they have had born to them three children, one dying in infancy; the two survivors are Edward B. and Sarabel.

WILSON. The Wilson family to which Mr. Henderson belongs in the maternal line is one of the oldest in Indiana county. Robert Wilson, its founder in this region, came from South Carolina in 1775, and settled in what is now called the "Loop," one mile below Livermore. He died in 1817.

Robert Wilson, one of the ten children of the Robert Wilson mentioned above, was born in 1768 in South Carolina and came with his parents to Indiana county. He married Anne McClellan, who was a native of Scotland, born in 1771, and eight children were born to them: James, who married Jane Barkley; Robert, who married Anne Graham; John, who married Margaret Campbell; Daniel, who is mentioned below; Joseph, who married Anne Douthet; and three daughters.

Daniel Wilson, son of Robert and Anne (McClellan) Wilson, was born in 1809 in Conemaugh township, Indiana county, and there grew to manhood. In 1867 he moved to Center township, settling on the Kneer farm, where he spent the remainder of his life. He died Aug. 9, 1885, and was buried in the graveyard of Bethel Presbyterian Church in Center township. Mr. Wilson was a leading worker in that church, which he served as elder, and was also a teacher and superintendent of the Sunday school. In politics he was originally a Whig, later a Republican. He married Letitia Henderson, daughter of John Henderson, and they became the parents of eight children: Robert A.; Lucy A.; John A.; Julia A.; who married Joseph A. Henderson and (second) Joseph Pounds; Nancy Jane, who married Samuel Henry; Letitia E. and William D., twins, the latter marrying Nancy E. Campbell; and Melinda C., who married Robert O. Allison.

CHARLES BUTLER CAMPBELL COLEMAN, a well-known agriculturist of Burrell township, for many years also had extensive interests as a dealer in hay, in which line he had business connections all over Indiana county.

The Colemans were in Indiana county among the earliest pioneer settlers, their associations with this region beginning before the period of the Revolution. In the early part of the year 1770 Nicholas Coleman, the founder of the family here, settled in Conemaugh township, which was then a part of Westmoreland county. He was a native of Scotland, born in 1731, and emigrated to America when a young man. His first location was in the Conococheague valley, in Pennsylvania, where he married Jane McClelland, a native of that valley. In 1773 they moved west of the Allegheny mountains, settling in what is now Conemaugh township, Indiana (then Westmoreland) county. Taking up land, he built a log cabin in what was then a wilderness and located there in 1774 or 1775. After he had done some clearing and sowed his second crop of wheat he was driven off by the Indians, and returned to the Conococheague valley, where he remained seven years before venturing to return to his land. He found that his cabin had been burned, the land that he had cleared was covered with a new growth of brush, and the various effects he had buried for safe keeping were missing—at any rate he never found them. But he set to work again to develop a farm from the primitive surroundings, and spent the remainder of his life there, dying at his home. His children were as follows: William, born in 1774, died in 1851, married Mary Lytle, who was born in 1776 and died in 1863; John, born April 9, 1776, died in 1865, married Martha Katon (he was a soldier in the war of 1812); Elizabeth married James Matthews; Margaret married John Matthews and (second) James Oliver; Mary married Samuel Craven; Nancy married Moses Thompson; Jane married Alexander McGaughey; Archibald is mentioned below; Robcommodations, bringing the establishment up-to-date in equipment and convenient arrangement, and his genial personality and ready attention to the wants of his customers has kept the business up to the high standards set by his father. The store is the largest of the kind in Blacklick, and deservedly has a wide patronage from the town and adjacent territory. Mr. Bell was one of the organizers of the First National Bank of Blacklick, which he serves as director, and his public-spirited interest in the town has made him a sympathetic aid of every good movement for its advancement and betterment.

On June 27, 1902, Mr. Bell was married, at Cleveland, Ohio, to Jessie G. Bruce, a native of that city, daughter of Charles Bruce. They have no children. Mr. and Mrs. Bell are members of the Christian Science Church, and both have been ardent admirers of the late Mrs. Eddy and her doctrines. Socially he is an Odd Fellow and Mason, belonging to the I. O. O. F. lodge at Blacklick, and to Halcyon Lodge, No. 498, F. & A. M., of Cleveland, Ohio, and Thatcher Chapter, No. 101, Royal Arch Masons, of Cleveland. He is a staunch Republican, but takes no active part in politics.

JOHN WIGGINS HENDERSON, late of Armstrong township, Indiana county, who died July 4, 1907, was a native of Center township, this county, born Jan. 6, 1839.

The Henderson family came to this section from Cumberland county, Pa., where Samuel and Elizabeth (Wiggins) Henderson, grandparents of John Wiggins Henderson, lived. On their removal to Indiana county they settled in Center township, where they followed farming the rest of their lives. Their children were: Samuel, John, Brice, Margaret, Nancy and Sarah.

John Henderson, born in Cumberland county, moved to Indiana county and was engaged in farming and milling in Center township. Later he moved to Tunnelton, in Conemaugh township, this county, where he farmed for a time, and he subsequently resided in White township. He was interested in agricultural pursuits all his life. He died in 1871, at the age of sixty-nine years. His wife, Nancy (Wiggins), died near Saltsburg, in Conemaugh township. They had the following children: Jane died unmarried in 1900, aged seventy-six years; Samuel died in 1898, at the age of seventy; Nancy married Thomas Wolverton (they were both blind), and had one child, Sarah Jane; Margaret died when three years old; Brice died when ten years old; William, now living at Oil City, Pa., married Margaret Lemon (who is deceased), and had one child, Nancy Jane; Sarah is the widow of John McLaughlin, and resides in Philadelphia; John W. is mentioned below; Maria died unmarried April 17, 1870, aged twenty-seven years; Brice (2) married Anna W. Barker and now lives at Oil City.

John W. Henderson was brought up like the ordinary farmer boy and received his education in the common schools of the home neighborhood. He was engaged in farm labor in his youth and early manhood, and also learned and followed the trade of tanner at Tannery village, in Armstrong township. After his marriage he settled on a tract of sixty-nine acres in that township, upon which he followed general farming for many years. From 1891 until 1895 he was in business at Beaver Falls, Pa., where he had a grocery store, and he also lived in Pittsburg for four years; he was employed as caretaker at the free dispensary there during that period. He was actively interested in the public questions of his day, in early life upholding the principles of the Republican party, and later becoming a Prohibitionist. He served as school director in Armstrong township. Mr. Henderson was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, served as elder of the church he attended in Pittsburg, and also held that office in the Crete Church in Center township for many years. He met an accidental death, being thrown from a buggy and killed, at his farm in Armstrong township, July 4, 1906.

On April 14, 1864, Mr. Henderson married Elizabeth Clarissa McCullough, member of a highly respected family of this section. She was born on the home farm in Armstrong township, Indiana county, received her education at the Hilltop school and select school in Jacksonville, and began teaching at Elderton, Armstrong county, when only fourteen years old. She continued there until she was twenty, teaching twenty-six days a month and receiving fifty cents for each pupil. After two terms in the Derry township (Westmoreland county) school and one term in Green township (Indiana county), she went to Iron-ton, Ohio, to assist her brother, who was principal of the school there, and then attended Saltsburg Academy for two terms under Prof. Albert Brown. Following this she taught in Young township (Indiana county) for two terms and at the Uncapher school in Arm-

Armstrong township one term, studied two terms at the Jacksonville Academy and then resumed teaching, being engaged one term at the Hilltop school in Armstrong township and one term at No. 5 school in Conemaugh township. Then she married in 1864, and settled with her husband in Armstrong township, of which she is a highly respected resident. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson had children as follows: (1) Elmer Lynch, born Jan. 17, 1865, is now connected with the pottery business at Carlton, Ohio. He married Millicent Rhoades, who died March 28, 1893, the mother of two children, Roy Evan and Clara Ellen. He has since married (second) Luella A. Hard. The McCullough family, to which Mrs. John W. Henderson belongs, came to this country from Ireland. David McCullough, her grandfather, was born on what is now the Samuel Stephens farm in Armstrong township, Indiana county, and died at Elderton, Armstrong county. He married Elizabeth George, a native of Ireland, and they had the following children: Samuel, James, Martha, John, David (died young), David (2) (died young), Jackson, William, David (3), Robert and Alexander.

Samuel McCullough, father of Mrs. John W. Henderson, was born in 1813 in Armstrong township, Indiana county, on what is now the Samuel Stephens farm, and later lived near Elderton, Armstrong county. By trade he was a tanner and harnessmaker, following that line at Elderton for two years, and he also conducted a tannery on his farm, which is now owned by Mrs. Henderson. He bought hides all over the county, tanning them and shipping the leather to Pittsburg, and was a well-known man in this section in his day, his various business ventures bringing him in touch with a large number of people. In politics he was a Democrat and during Buchanan's administration was appointed postmaster at Tannery village; the office has been abandoned since the establishment of the rural free delivery service. He also served as school director. Mr. McCullough died on his farm Dec. 23, 1875, and was buried in the cemetery of the West Union United Presbyterian Church in Armstrong township. His wife, Martha (Wiggins), was born Nov. 20, 1820, on what is now the Thomas Whatt farm, daughter of Andrew and Rebecca (Lytle) Wiggins, and died in March, 1875, on the McCullough home place. She is buried in the same cemetery as her husband. Mrs. Henderson and Andrew W. were their only children.

ANDREW WIGGINS McCULLOUGH, son of Samuel, was born April 13, 1839, in Armstrong township, and there began his education at the Hilltop schoolhouse. Later he attended the academy at Jacksonville. During the Civil war he enlisted in Company I, 11th Pennsylvania Volunteers, under Captain Coder, and served one year. Most of his earlier manhood was spent in teaching. He taught at Saltsburg and Pineflats, in Indiana county; at Ironton, Ohio, for three years being principal there; at New Wilmington, Pa., college three years; at Saltsburg again; at Eldersridge, Indiana county, assisting Dr. Donaldson; at Belmont, Ohio, four years; and then came back to Armstrong township, Indiana county, and taught three years. Having studied theology, he was ordained a minister of the Lutheran Church in 1866, and 1877 moved to Brushvalley, Indiana county, and became pastor of the Lutheran Church there. He died Feb. 10, 1913, at Homer City, this county.

Mr. McCullough married Susan Simpson, of Eldersridge, in Young township, Indiana county, and they had the following children: Charles Clarence, Samuel Noel, Frank (deceased), Ella Jane (married William Nevins, both deceased), Dial Lewis, Herbert, David Elmer, Margaret (married Herbert Myers), Herman and John.

David Henderson

David Henderson's biography can be found on page 271 of the History of Huntingdon and Blair Counties, Penna. by J. Simpson Africa published by Louis H. Everts of Philadelphia, PA in 1883.

David Henderson was born June 30, 1797, in Bald Eagle Valley, in what is now Taylor township, Centre Co., PA. His father, Robert Henderson, was a native of the Emerald Isle, and emigrated to this country from County Derry during the Revolutionary War. He reared a family of nine sons and one daughter. He died when David, the subject of this memoir, was but seven years old, leaving him at that tender age to the charity of a cold, unfeeling world. When fourteen years of age he was employed by the Anshutz Company at Huntingdon Furnace to carry their mail to and from Alexandria, PA, which was then their nearest post-office. This position he filled for one year, at the expiration of which time he was apprenticed to Joseph Wagner to learn the shoemaking business. After serving three years and learning his trade, he for a time worked as a journeyman shoemaker. He then for the purpose of bettering his fortune went to the State of Ohio, accomplishing most of the distance on foot. Arrived at his destination he worked for some time at trade. He was then prostrated by a severe attack of sickness, on recovering from which he concluded to retrace his steps to the land of his nativity. Purchasing a horse for forty dollars he made the homeward journey on horseback, arriving at Wallace's Tavern, near Huntingdon Furnace, with but twelve and one-half cents in his purse. This he paid for a feed for his horse, then made his way to Half-Moon Valley, where he joined his mother in her humble abode.

Soon after he commenced working at his trade in Franklin township, on the premises owned by Judge Laporte, his only capital being the forty dollars received for his horse. He did a large amount of work for the extensive iron-works in that neighborhood, viz., Pennsylvania, Bald Eagle, and Huntingdon Furnaces and Coleraine Forges. It was at a time when the work had to be done entirely by hand, and he employed as many as eighteen men at one time. He received his pay in bar-iron, which he wagoned to Pittsburgh twice a month. About the time he thought the teams would have reached the summit of the Allegheny Mountains he would start on foot, overtake and precede them to Pittsburgh, where he would sell the iron, purchase leather, etc., to reload his wagons for their homeward trip. In 1821 he married Margaret Conrad, a most estimable lady, who, after a life of exemplary Christianity and usefulness, died April 10, 1877, at the age of seventy-seven years. Mr. Henderson in 1831 commenced farming on the farm now known as the homestead, one and one-half miles from the village of Spruce Creek, in Franklin township, Huntingdon Co., PA. For this farm he paid the then large sum of seventeen hundred dollars. To the pursuit of this he by him he ever afterwards devoted his undivided energies. He never speculated nor engaged in any other business, and in time became, as is now said by many, one of the most successful farmers in the county, paying for one farm only to buy and in time to pay for another. In the year 1864 he purchased property in the village of Spruce Creek, to which he removed and where he spent the last years of his life, dying Oct. 7, 1882. At the time of his death he was possessed of considerable wealth of real and personal estate. He was the father of a large family of children, four sons and four daughters being still living. He died surrounded with all the comforts of life which wealth, domestic happiness, a filial affection were capable of affording, and universally esteemed and respected. Henderson was a man of genial disposition, social habits, and kindly nature. In his after-years he became very fond of entertaining his friends with the reminiscences a experience of early life, an interesting fund of which a good memory had blessed him. He commenced the battle for life under adverse circumstances, but fought it bravely well with none of the modern advantages of an early education. Without money or friends and with nothing to rely upon but his own resources, his success in life was owing entirely to diligence in business, untiring industry, and that keen insight into human nature and the practical business affairs of life with which nature had endowed him; he is an evidence of what may be accomplished by prudence, economy, and industry, had which, if strictly observed and properly cultivated, cannot fail of ultimate success.

the village store was a line of hitching posts, and a large block, resembling the trunk of a tree which was used for the ladies to mount their horses. In those days the riding-skirt worn was very long, reaching below the horses belly. All the saddles used were side-saddles, some gaily decorated with colored stitching and fancy seats of leather and velvet.

The Anthony store in the village of Shelocta was one of the most fascinating places in the whole country to spend an evening with the old residents of the country village. All the different varieties of character embraced in civilization gathered together to spend the long winter evenings wearing high boots, chewing tobacco, spitting in the box that surrounded the large iron pot-bellied stove, gossiping and discussing current events and cussing poititics and politicians, and cracking original jokes that had more genuine merit in them than three-fourths of the "bosh" printed in the funny papers of 1940. The village folks! They may repeat the thoughts of others, but they will continue to think their own. May the cities prosper, but dear God, may it please Thee to preserve the villages.

On the rough board shelves in this store were many glass jars containing sticks of candy, pink and white lozenges. When the young fellers of that day went to see their lassies they took them a poke of lozenges. What would the lassie of 1940 think of that?

Jacob Johnson Anthony married Margaret Lucas in 1842. Both are buried in Curry Run graveyard. Their two children were Julia and Clara.

XII Julia Anthony, born July 12, 1849, married Albert Dick of Brushvalley, then called Mechanicsburg. She died Sept. 7, 1921. Both are buried in the Anthony lot in Curry Run graveyard.

XII (2) Clara Anthony married David Marlin of Willett. Both buried in Curry Run graveyard.

XI (2) Margaret Anthony, daughter of Wm. and Nancy (Thomas) Anthony, born October 2, 1812 died Januray 30, 1901, age 87, buried in Curry Run graveyard near Shelocta, Pa., Route 422. She was familiarly known as "Aunt Peggy", the woman of the neighborhood who went about doing good. Her good deeds live on. January 3, 1838, she married Samuel Clark Henderson, who was born April 1, 1818, died August 8, 1902, was a son of John and Letitia Fullerton Henderson, natives of Ireland, coming to America in 1796. Margaret Anthony and Samuel Henderson were married by Rev. Alexander Donaldson who founded Eldersridge Academy April 16, 1847. In preparation for a marriage of those days lots of sewing had to be done. (There were no sewing machines). The long, ruffled petticoats were the hardest, with their yards and yards of hemming and there had to be at least four of them, of fine muslin, measuring seven yards around the feet. One dark silk dress was always in the trousseau. After their marriage they lived near Eldersridge for many years, later settling on the homestead in Armstrong Township near Shelocta, Pa.

The Henderson house was large, containing a kitchen where could be seen strings of apples drying, pieces of beef hung back of the stove and bunches of herbs and hops. The latter two used for all their ills. The "best-room" was used only on special occasions, such as for entertaining the minister. Ordinarily, it was carefully closed and locked to keep out flies and preserve its sacred precincts. On the mantle stood the clock, and candlesticks and the snuffers. In the book case was to be found the Family Bible, Fox's Lives of the Martyrs, and Milton's Paradise Lost. One paper the early settlers always read was the New York—"Try-Bune", this was one of their few extravagances. The usual mode of travel was on foot or horseback, and it was not uncommon to travel many miles to Church on Sunday. The church where the Anthonys attended was Curries Run. The old church was situated on top of the hill where the grave-yard now is. The old church had wrought into it no beauty within or without. Nature during the years had added her own. A vine covered the rough, unsightly wall, scarlet in the autumn and glossy green in the spring. Great oak trees surrounded the church and on the knoll (a few standing in 1940) families scattered about the church yard to eat their lunch. This was the intermission between sermons. Their prayers were long with many references to Moses about the ten commandments, leading up to a repetition of the Fourth: Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work. The sermon was often three or four hours long. "Woe to the one whose eyelids drooped in slumber. Generally before dismissal this hymn was lined out and sung:

Oh God: Our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come.
Our shelter from the stormy blast
And our eternal home.

They returned to their homes in as orderly a way as they came.

The land at this time was turned by a plow whose mold-board was faced with strips of iron made by straightening old horse-shoes. The grass was cut by a scythe, the grain by a sickle, wheat, oats, rye, etc. were threshed out on the barn floor with a flail or trodden out by cattle. The flax and wool were carded, spun and woven into cloth by the women of the household. The writer owns some towels that were made by Mrs. Margaret Anthony Henderson (my grand-mother).

Samuel and Margaret Anthony Henderson's children were: (1) William Johnson, (2) Nancy Jane, (3) John Ralston, (4) Maria Julia, (5) Elizabeth, (6) Samuel Clark.

Enlisted second time August 23, 1864, discharged June 26, 1865. Served as a private in Co. D. 206th Penna. Volunteers.

William Johnson Henderson was a Presbyterian minister, having his first charge in Lancaster, Pa., going from there to Annandale, N. J., and his last charge was in Glen Gardner, N. J. He married Meta Hunt, daughter of Dr. Thomas Hunt, a very wealthy man of Glen Gardner. Both are buried in Glen Gardner Cemetery. They had one child, (1) Edgar Clark.

James Fleming was part owner of the first flour mill in Armstrong County. During the forties he served as a member of the Penna. Militia. David Fleming died Sept. 7, 1882, leaving his wife, Nancy Jane Henderson Fleming and five small children. They lived on a farm not far from Curries Run Church. She purchased a home at 1476 West Philadelphia Street where she lived for a number of years preceding her death on July 20, 1936, and was laid to rest in Curry Run grave-yard, where her husband was buried many years ago. XII. (3) John Ralston Henderson, born Sept. 14, 1848. This was the year that the First Woman's Rights Convention in the history of America met at Seneca Falls, N. Y., which owes its formation to Susan B. Anthony, an ancestor of John Ralston Henderson. At this convention they declared women to be legal "persons" as men are persons and entitled to all the rights and privileges of human beings. Such was the clarion call for justice in 1848. In 1866 Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony gave the name of "The Revolution" to a paper they founded as a suffrage organ. Thus Woman Suffrage became the law of the land on Aug. 28, 1920. John Ralston Henderson was born in Young Township, near Eldersridge, (named for James Elder) on Whiskey Run (still the name in 1940). Tradition says this run derived its name from the following incident: Peter or Patrick Henry along with some companions, had a Blue Johnnie Keg filled with whiskey and it rolled away from them down the hill, struck a tree and burst, spilling the contents into the run. Ever afterwards it was called Whiskey Run.

On Dec. 27, (St. John's Day) 1871, John Ralston Henderson married Anna Margaret Fiscus, daughter of Samuel, died Dec. 14, 1900, and Matilda (Duncan) Fiscus of Armstrong Township, five miles northwest of Indiana, Matilda Duncan Fiscus died Nov. 11, 1859, aged 35, was a grand-daughter of Samuel and Mary (Kyle) Duncan, founders of the town of Duncansville, Blair County, Penna.

They went to housekeeping on a 132 acre farm, a part of the old Anthony tract. In 1886 a large barn was erected on the farm and it also had a large modern eight-room house with all necessary out-buildings including an ice-house. They lived on this farm until 1902, when the home was established in Indiana, Pa., where he was engaged in business, owning a grain, hay and farm implement store. For a number of years preceding his death, Oct. 15, 1920, he lived retired. Mrs. Henderson died May 23, 1929, at 205 North Ninth St., Indiana, Pa. (Father and mother of the writer). Both buried in Oakland Cemetery, Indiana, Pa. They are survived by two daughters: (1) Mary Ethel, (2) Carolyn Estelle.

XIII. (1) Mary Ethel Henderson, (single) living in the home, 205 North 9th St., Indiana, Pa. A member of the Pounds Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church. One who never forgets the poor and needy, the sick and all who are in trouble. She is often referred to as the neighborhood nurse.

If we work upon marble, it will perish
If we work upon brass, time will efface it
If we rear temples, they will crumble into dust
But her good deeds and work will never perish.

XIII. (2) Carolyn Estelle Henderson (compiler and writer of this Anthony History) living in the home, 205 North 9th Street, Indiana, Pa., a member of the Indiana County Historical and Genealogical Society, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, The Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans. A great lover of animals and pets, a writer of prose and poetry. The Henderson sisters, on Sunday, July 25, 1937, presented

THE HENDERSONS.

Patronymica Britannica says that the name of Henderson is derived from Hendrick's son, or Henry's son. According to the science of Scottish surnames, the Hendersons are of Danish origin, it being claimed that all Scotch people whose names end in "son" are of Danish ancestors; therefore, go back to the days when the eastern shores of Scotland were overrun by the Danes. Burke in 1834 says that the surname of Henderson is one of considerable antiquity in Scotland, the Hendersons having been settled in the western part of County of Fife, near Inverkeithing for over four centuries. The representative families of that name in Scotland to-day are those of St. Laurence, Fordell, Stemster, and Edinburgh. For several hundred years the name has appeared on the college and military rolls of that country.

The family of interest here is supposed to be descended from James Henderson, first Knight of Fordell; the reason for this assumption will appear later.

James Henderson was born about 1450, and was killed September 9, 1513. He was appointed King's Advocate in 1494, and a few years later Lord Justice Clerk. He fell with his eldest son, John, as did their royal master, King James IV. of Scotland, at Floddenfield on that fatal 9th of September, 1513.

"To tell red Flodden's dismal tale
Tradition, legend, tune and song
Shall many an age that wail prolong;
Still from sire the son shall hear
Of that stern strife and carnage drear,
Of Flodden's fatal field
Where shivered was fair Scotland's spear,
And broken was her shield
* * * * *
There, Scotland! lay thy bravest pride, Chiefs, knights, and nobles many a one!"

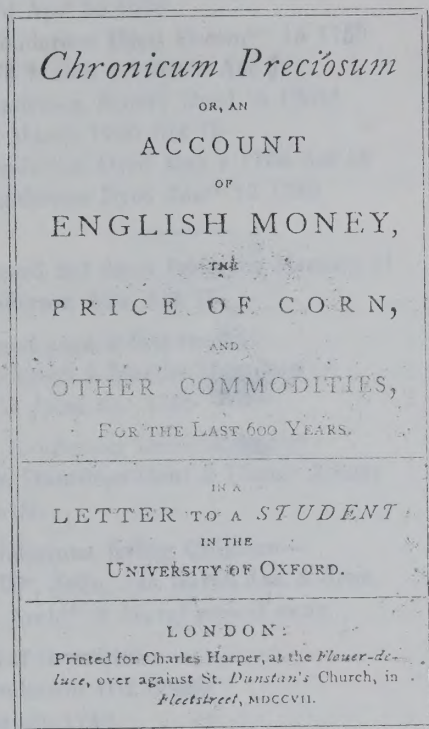

About 1680 we are told that William, John and James Henderson crossed to Ireland from near Dalmanne, Scotland; but whether one of them was the ancestor of the Virginia family, the subject of this sketch, we are unable to tell. The oldest family record accessible to the writer carries the family back to the middle of the seventeenth century, or more than two hundred years. This record is written in an old book, whose title page reads as follows:

And now as to the connection with Fordell. The record mentions "John Henderson, Gent., of Fifeshire, Scotland," and it is known that all the Fifeshire Hendersons are originally those of Fordell Manor. Judging from the birth of William Henderson, Gentleman, in 1676, his father, John Henderson, was probably born about 1650; this would place him about right to be a son of one of the four younger sons of Sir John Henderson, owner of Fordell during the reign of Charles I. According to Burke, Sir John had a distinguished command in the army of King Charles, and was a lineal descendant of James Henderson, first, of Fordell. There is one other thread of connection that may be given. On the back of a family paper, which is undated, but was probably written before the Revolution, as there is a reference made to £60 and all the "s's" are the old long "s's"; on the back of this letter is a crudely drawn shield bearing devices that have been identified as identical with those of the Hendersons of Fordell, as also the motto "Sola Virtus Nobilitat." But from the records obtainable in this country there is no possible way to establish unquestionably the kinship. However, there are many genealogists who do make positive statements concerning the kinship of certain new world families to those of similar name in the old countries, who have no more foundation for their assumption.

In heraldic language are: "Gu. three piles issuing out of the sinister side arg. On a chief of the last, a crescent az. betwn. two ermine spots. CREST. A hand ppr. holding a star or. surmounted by a crescent arg. MOTTO. Sola Virtus Nobilitat."

MAIN LINE OF FORDELL

As the similarity of given names between the main line of Fordell and the Virginia Hendersons may be of interest, I here give from Burke the generations from 1625 to 1850:

"Sir John Henderson mar. Margaret Monteith, heiress of Randiford; by whom he had five sons and five daughters, and was succeeded by his eldest son John Henderson, Esq., who was created a baronet of Nova Scotia 15 July 1664. Sir John mar. Margaret dau. of Sir John Hamilton of Obieston, Lord Chief Justice clerk; by whom he had two sons and two daughters and dying in 1683 was succeeded by his second and only surviving son Sir William, who mar. Miss Hamilton dau. of Sir John Hamilton of Mountain Hall, by whom he had four sons and a daughter. He died in 1709 and was succeeded by his eldest son Sir John who mar. Christian dau. of Sir Robert Anstruther bart of Baskie; by whom he had three sons and five daughters, succeeded by second and eldest surviving son Sir Robert d. Oct. 1731. Mar. Oct. 3, 1748, Isabella dau. of George McKenzie, Esq., of Firnie; by whom he had issue John his successor and Sir Bruce present Baronet (1834)." Sir Bruce died childless, and the estate descended to his first cousin, George Mercer, who assumed the name of Mercer-Henderson.

THE VIRGINIA HENDERSONS.

James, John and Samuel Henderson mentioned in the record already given, all came to Virginia, but it is with the descendants of a son of James that we shall mostly concern ourselves. The date of their arrival in America is not known unless that of 1740 is the right year. They all settled in Augusta county, where they married and brought up families. We will first notice a few facts concerning John and Samuel Henderson before proceeding with James Henderson and his descendants.

John Henderson, according to Vol. VII. of Henning, was an Ensign in the Augusta Militia in the French and Indian War, and in 1758 received fourteen shillings' pay. His will was recorded in Augusta county August 20, 1766, and mentions a son William, two daughters unnamed in the will, his wife Rose Finley, sister of John Finley, one of the first Justices of the county. His brother James was one of the executors.

Samuel Henderson was also in the Augusta Militia, and in 1758 received fourteen shillings too. His will is recorded in 1782 in Augusta, and mentions his wife, Jane, and the following children: James, Andrew, Alexander and Florence. His son James died in 1801, and his will mentions wife Isabella, and children, John, Joseph, Jones, Alexander, Becky, Sarah, Margaret, and Jean. Samuel Henderson had a grant of 160 acres of land "on both sides of Dry River," in Augusta, July 19, 1766.

JAMES HENDERSON.

James, second son of William and Margaret Bruce Henderson, was born in 1708 in Scotland, and died in 1784 in Virginia. He served in the Augusta Militia in the French and Indian War, first as an Ensign, later as a Lieutenant. By act of the House of Burgesses in 1758 to pay the Militia, he received for services as Ensign £1 18s., and later as Lieutenant £1. The sword which he carried in this war, which is named in the inventory of his son John's estate, was preserved by his descendants till stolen in the Civil War.

June 23, 1738, he was married to Martha, daughter of Audley Harrison Hamilton, Gentleman, and his wife Elenor Adams

Hamilton. Nothing more is known of Audley Hamilton than that Hening in his list of the Augusta Militia in 1758 mentions an "Audly Hamilton," who may have been a brother or cousin instead of the father of Martha Henderson. They were the parents of the following children: David, John, James, William, Sarah, Joseph, Jean, Samuel Archibald, and Margaret. In his will in 1784 James Henderson does not mention either John or Jean. The reason for this is not known, but in the case of the former is supposed to be because John had married in 1765 and gone "west" and settled on New River, in Greenbrier county, where he prospered till in 1787 his estate consisted of about two thousand acres of land, four negroes and over five hundred pounds of personalty, amounting to more than his father's estate. At least, there was no estrangement with his brothers, for in an old letter written by William Henderson, John is mentioned as having sold five hundred acres of land to David, and in 1784 David collected some money from the State of Virginia for John. In his will John makes his brother "Col. James Henderson" one of his executors. James H. had moved to Greenbrier after his father's death where he received in 1785-'6-'7 grants for 1,609 acres of land.

JOHN HENDERSON.

John, second son of James and Martha Henderson, was born about 1740, and died Sunday, March 24, 1787. In 1765 he married Anne Givens, youngest sister of Elizabeth Givens, wife of Gen. Andrew Lewis. She was born about the same year as her husband, and died May 28, 1819. Soon after their marriage they removed to New River, near Fort Savannah, or Fort Union, later, the present town of Lewisburg, Greenbrier county. Here he purchased a small tract of land, and in 1786 Governor Randolph granted him 350 acres, the original parchment grant is now owned by his great-granddaughter, Mrs. Kate Hannan Long. In this year he was granted two tracts containing 1,400 acres lying at the confluence of the Great Kanawha and Ohio Rivers; beginning about a mile above the mouth of the former at the boundary of the George Washington grant of 10,999 acres, and extending down that river to the mouth, and thence down the Ohio to the grant of Gen. Hugh Mercer. The original 1786 grants for this land have been lost, but on a resurvey in 1800

Governor James Monroe made new grants "to Samuel, John, James, and William Henderson Heirs at law of John Henderson, Dec'd," and these parchments are still preserved by the descendants of John Henderson: one for one thousand acres by his granddaughter, Mrs. Ella Henderson Hutchinson, and one for four hundred acres by the writer of this sketch. He also had a grant for forty-five acres in Montgomery county, which was regranted to his heirs Nov. 24, 1788.

In the beginning of Dunmore's War he enlisted as a Lieutenant in the New River Company under Captain Herbert, and took part in the battle of Point Pleasant fought on the 10th of October, 1774. On the breaking out of the Revolution he enlisted in Col. Daniel Morgan's Scotch-Irish Regiment from the Valley of Virginia, in which he served until 1780, with the rank of Corporal, in Capt. John Gregory's Company. His powder horn was preserved by the descendants of his son Samuel, and a sword carried by his father in the French and Indian War by the Monroe county descendants.

John Henderson was one of the Justices of Greenbrier county, and was present at the November court in 1780. His personal estate included four negroes, and amounted to over 536 pounds. He was the father of the following children: Samuel, born September 7, 1766; John, born August 30, 1763; Margaret, born February 12, 1771; James, born —; Jean, born —; William, born —. Of the last three children I have been able to learn but little. Jean married — Kirkpatrick, and died August 22, 1805. James married in 1800 Elizabeth Maddy, of Monroe county, and William tells something of his family in the following letter to his sister, Margaret Vawter:

"CABELL COUNTY, VA., March 22, 1828.

"DEAR SISTER: I again sit down to write a line to you which will inform you that myself and family are all in common health except Nancy. She has been very unwell ever since some time last fall, but is able to go about part of every day almost.

to sergeant, and subsequently to first lieutenant. He was discharged in November, 1865, several months after the close of the war, with a good record as a soldier.

After returning to Moultrie county, he first engaged in farming in Whitley township. In 1865 he moved to Summit, and began the mercantile business; he then had little knowledge of "keeping store," in comparison with that which he has since gained,—and some of the Summit people relate that when a lady came in about a month after he opened his store, and asked for "hose," the merchant replied that he was out just then, and would have some before time to make garden. He was married on the second of November, 1873, to Maggie Wilson of Summit, daughter of W. N. Wilson. He has three children: Mack Gammill, Tola Jane, and Stella May. Since 1872 he has acted as post-master of the Whitley Point post-office. His father was a whig and republican, and Mr. Gammill is an earnest republican, and a sincere believer in the principles of that party. He is well and favorably known as a business man. As a representative of one of the younger class of business men of Moultrie county, his name should be mentioned in this book.

OCONEE TOWNSHIP.

(SHELBY COUNTY.)

S situated in the extreme south-west corner of Shelby county and contains fifty-four sections; it is bounded on the west by Montgomery county, on the north by Christian county, on the south by Fayette county, and on the east by Cold Spring township. The township of Oconee is well drained, and well supplied with water by the numerous creeks with which it is traversed; the largest of these is Opossum creek. This stream directs its course from the north-west towards the centre of the township; thence flowing in a north-easterly direction making its exit at section 24 into the adjoining township where it joins Beck's creek, which in turn empties itself into the Kaskaskia river. Coal creek, Grassy branch, and Doyle branch, are in the north-east part of Oconee, and are all tributaries of the Opossum; Matney branch in the center of the township, also joins the Opossum creek. In the southern part of the township are Indian Camp branch, Stone Quarry branch and Otter creek, all of the last named streams flowing in a southerly direction. There is considerable timber growing in this township, particularly adjacent to the water courses; the western, northern and most central parts however are good prairie lands, with well improved farms and buildings; the soil is fairly productive, and for agricultural purposes may be classed among the good townships of the county.

The first person who entered land in this township was Merida Henderson, in February, 1836, upon the west half of the south-east quarter of section 21, Town 10, Range 1 East. During the same month James Reed made entry of the north-east quarter of section 17, also the north-east quarter of section 22. John S. Hayward at the same time made entries of land in sections 17, 20, 21, and 23.

The first settlers of whom we have any authentic record were the Widow Matney and family about the year 1830. She came from Sangamon county accompanied by her four boys and four girls. The family settled upon section 34, on the east side of the Matney branch creek. The only member of this family left and now living in the county is Nancy Gragg who resides upon section 33. Titus Gragg was a soldier in the war of 1812, fighting Indians in the valley of the Mississippi.

One of the first settlers in the vicinity of the town of Oconee, was Charles Matney; he located upon what is now known as the Custer place, as early as 1830 or 1831. Walter Matney settled a short distance north upon the same tract of land about the same time. Leonard Matney located upon Round Prairie about 1840. Samuel and William Matney settled on the Matney branch creek about the year 1831.

Thomas Holbrook, a native of North Carolina, settled on section 25 about 1840; three of his sons still live here and are farmers.

James Freeman came to Shelby county as early as 1832, and settled upon section 2; he was a soldier in the Black Hawk war, and a man of considerable prominence in the early days. He was also a captain in the Mexican war. He erected a horse mill upon his place in the year 1833, and at one time had a still in operation. James Freeman raised a family of nine children. Henry Freeman now resides upon the land. The old gentleman died some years ago in Okaw township, near the Okaw river.

William Price, a native of North Carolina, located upon the land he now occupies in 1834. Other old settlers in the south part of Oconee, were: Andrew McGee, Willis Rose, Lewis Hinton, Henry Rose, Thomas Bell, E. Doyle, and J. Woolard. Thomas Freeman, brother to James, settled here in 1833. He afterward purchased the James Freeman place, where he died in 1875. He raised a family of six children. Jonathan Lee settled on Grassy Branch creek about 1843.

John Mount was also one of the early residents, and located upon Sec. 2, where he erected a horse mill, which was in operation for several years. He is now a citizen of the town of Pana, in the adjoining county.

Other old settlers in the north part of the township, were: Miner Winn, J. J. Donnelly, J. Hobson, and James Combest. John Hinton, now living in Oconee, is one of the oldest citizens of the place. His father, Lewis Hinton, settled in the east part of the township (now the John Woolard place) in 1836. He raised a family of

HISTORY OF SHELBY AND MOULTRIE COUNTIES, ILLINOIS.

Kentucky in which the family lived was rendered disagreeable and dangerous during the rebellion on account of guerilla warfare. From observing the treatment of negroes in the South he had formed his opinions on the slavery question at an early age, and was decidedly opposed to that institution. Making up his mind to come to Illinois, he left home by himself and without means, on the 12th of January, 1865, and made the journey from Kentucky on horseback, arriving in Oconee township, on the 3d of February. The war at that time had not yet closed. For three years he found employment on the farm of F. G. Jansen, and subsequently was similarly engaged. During the winter of 1869-70 he attended a district school in the southern part of Oconee township, and afterwards attended another term of five months. By great industry and perseverance he supplemented the defects of his early education, and in the summer of 1870 received a teacher's certificate. He became teacher of the school which two winters before he had entered as a student, with scarcely enough knowledge to work the simplest example in arithmetic. He taught this school four terms. He embraced every opportunity to thoroughly qualify himself as a teacher, attending institutes at Hillsboro and Shelbyville. For three months he was a student at the State Normal School at Normal, Illinois. Since 1874 he has been principal of the schools at Oconee. His marriage occurred March 1st, 1876, to Mollie E., daughter of W. N. Elliott. She is a native of Higginsport, Brown county, Ohio. He has two children. Since the spring of 1877, he has been post-master at Oconee. He became a republican during his boyhood in Kentucky, at a time when the principles of that party were unpopular in that section, and has since been an active member of the republican organization. He took an active part in the two last presidential campaigns. In the fall of 1877, he was a candidate on the republican ticket for the position of Superintendent of Public Schools. The county was so largely democratic that his election was not expected, but his popularity is shown by the fact that he carried Oconee township (which in 1876 went 105 democratic) by sixty-five majority. He is a member of Oconee Masonic Lodge, No. 292. He is known as a young man of energy, and in the legal profession, which he proposes adopting, will doubtless make his mark.

J. W. DAVIS.

J. W. DAVIS, one of the business men of Oconee, was born in Harrison county, Virginia, May, 1839. He is of Welsh descent. His grandfather emigrated from New Jersey to Virginia, and took part as a soldier in the Revolutionary war. His father was named Elion Davis. His mother's maiden name was Randolph. She died when he was two years old, and till he was fourteen was with a relative, Isaac F. Randolph. He then went to his father in Doddridge county, Virginia, and with him came to Illinois in the year 1852. He was there employed on a farm in Logan county. He was seventeen at the time of the presidential campaign of 1856. Till then he had no decided convictions. Being desirous of attending a large Republican meeting at Quincy, Logan county, Ohio, the refusal of the man he worked to loan him a horse for that purpose aroused him, and he became a Republican. In June, 1857, he came to Paris and began learning the trade of a carriage-maker. His father meantime had become a resident of Kansas; and Mr. Davis went to that State, and also traveled over the territories—Dakota, the Pike's Peak country, New Mexico, also Texas and other frontier regions. He returned to Illinois in time to cast his first vote for president for Lincoln in 1860. He afterward started into the wagon and carriage manufacturing business at the town of Kansas, in Edgar county. In August, 1862, he enlisted in Capt. Pinnell's company, 79th Illinois Infantry, for service in the war of the rebellion. His regiment was with the Army of the Cumberland. He fought the battles of Stone River, Liberty Gap, Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Buzzard's Roost, or Rocky Face Ridge. The regiment was in the relief of Burnside, besieged by Longstreet at Fredericksburg, making one of the greatest forced marches on record, a distance of one hundred and ten miles in two days and nights. While at Strawberry Plains on the French Broad River he was detailed in charge of some men to extricate a part of the Union train from the river. Though the enemy was pressing hard, he successfully performed the duty in the face of great danger. He was afterward commanding general afterward informing him that that was the last he saw of him in the rear he never expected to see him again. After the battle of Rocky Face Ridge he was placed on detached service as an artificer, and was stationed at Chattanooga till the expiration of his term of service. He was engaged in drafting and supervising the construction of buildings at that point. He was discharged from the service August, 1865, and returned to Illinois. He was afterward a clerk in a hotel at Terre Haute; in business in Kansas, Edgar county; and superintendent of the carriage works of Lodge, Dodds & Co., at Paris. While at the latter place he invented and patented a machine for cutting wagon felloes. He then he became a resident of Shelby county, and in 1873 located at Oconee, where he is now carrying on the jewelry business, wagon manufacturing business, and a blacksmith shop. He is known as an active and energetic man. He is a strong Republican in politics.

and where he died. He married Patience Sutton, and their children were: Jonathan, born about 1754; Zebulon, born about 1758; Nathaniel, born Oct. 19, 1761; Joseph, born Aug. 31, 1764; William, born Oct. 8, 1767; and Rebecca, who married and settled in Pennsylvania.

(V) Jonathan Doty (3), son of Jonathan (2) and Patience (Sutton) Doty, born at Basking Ridge, N. J., about 1754, there grew to manhood. It is supposed he served in the Revolutionary war as teamster, in Capt. Asahel Hinman's Team Brigade of New Jersey, as a Jonathan Doty was on the list of teamsters; it must have been this Jonathan or his father. Mr. Doty about 1784, at the close of the Revolution, came West with his wife and children, locating in Derry township, Westmoreland Co., Pa., where he farmed and also kept a tavern. He met with fair success, and was a man well known and respected there in his day. Subsequently he removed to Blairsville, Indiana county, where he spent the remainder of his life, dying at the ripe age of ninety-six years, in 1850. He was a member of the M. E. Church, in which he was quite active, being a local preacher and exhorter of that denomination. His first wife, Abigail (McPherson), died at Blairsville, Pa., about 1815, and he married (second) Mrs. Nancy (Simpson) Dixon, widow of Samuel Dixon. His children, all born to the first marriage, were: Jonathan, born about 1780; John, born about 1783; Robert, born in Derry township, Westmoreland county, about 1785; Betsey, born about 1787; Nathaniel, born about 1789; and Gillis, born about 1790.

(VI) Nathaniel Doty, son of Jonathan and Abigail (McPherson) Doty, born in Derry township, Westmoreland county, in 1789; made his home in Westmoreland county, where he died Feb. 13, 1844. He married Feb. 10, 1814, Margaret Reed, who was born July 16, 1793, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Charlton) Reed, and died Nov. 26, 1867. Children: Betsy, born Nov. 18, 1814, died Nov. 7, 1834, who married Robert Gilson; Abigail, born Oct. 10, 1816; William, born Jan. 22, 1819; Jonathan, born March 27, 1821; Nancy, born Nov. 29, 1823, who married in 1844, Daniel Simmons, and died July 8, 1863; Mary, born May 10, 1826, who died Nov. 2, 1854; McQuade, born March 18, 1831; Martha Jane, born June 20, 1834.

(VII) Abigail Doty, daughter of Nathaniel and Margaret (Reed) Doty, born Oct. 10, 1816, in Westmoreland county, married there March 26, 1844, John Guthrie, who was born Jan. 21, 1813, son of Robert and Margaret (Lover) Guthrie. She died June 30, 1845. They had one child, Doty.

(VIII) Doty Guthrie, born in New Derry June 16, 1845, makes his home in New Alexandria, Westmoreland county, where he is quite a prominent citizen. On June 5, 1874, he married Hannah Rachel Peoples, born in Ligonier, Pa., Aug. 22, 1853, daughter of Joseph and Jemima (Bigelow) Peoples, and they had three children: John M., born Aug. 7, 1875; Margaret Ella, Aug. 28, 1879; and Abigail Jane, April 26, 1884.

(IX) Margaret Ella Guthrie, daughter of Doty and Hannah R. (Peoples) Guthrie, born at New Alexandria, Westmoreland county, Aug. 28, 1879, married Samuel C. Steele and has two children, Samuel Guthrie and Robert Cannon.

JAMES MITCHELL, retired lumber merchant, whose home is in the borough of Indiana, was born there in February, 1836, son of Dr. Robert Mitchell.

James Mitchell, the grandfather of James Mitchell, came from the Cumberland valley and Cumberland county among the pioneer settlers into this part of western Pennsylvania. He selected, purchased, cleared and improved a tract of land in Armstrong county, on which he resided until his death, in 1845, at the age of seventy. He married Mrs. Agnes (Sharp) Ralston, who was born Feb. 21, 1785, the first white child born west of Crooked creek, in Indiana county. She died Aug. 2, 1862. She was the second daughter of Capt. Andrew Sharp, who served as an officer in the Revolutionary war under Washington, and who died at Pittsburgh, July 8, 1794, of wounds received in an Indian attack.

In Wills the only Henderson Wills I found was Pleasant Henderson was Executor of the Will of Meredith Wood 1857

Webster Co was a part of Wright Co & Queen County before its formation

I hope some of these besides James L. are your Hendersons. Maybe they moved to Tenn then Mo. Would Pleasant (Gonas) be a Brother?

The Shadrack Carver you found was the minister who was the father of Samuel Henry Casey wife Lucretia. They were very wealthy family. Samuel's father who died 1799? and mother about the same when Sam H. was 6 mo old. apparently in Knox Co. Near Kingston (now Boone Co) is the one who can't be found (yet) since we have never found a will or guardianship papers. I'm sure something was left for a trace but where —

Hope you are all well and enjoying strawberries & new peas. We have had lots of rain here. We are still groaning & complaining but hope to get better come Summer Love Agnes HENRY. Caldwell's Hist. of Indiana Co. states that John Henry declared his intention to become a citizen June 11, 1816, and the certificate was granted in June 1819. Robert Henry stated that he knew him well and that he was a fit person to become a U. S. citizen. John Henry died in Armstrong twp. Stewart's History of Indiana gives March 1838 as his death date. Death was due to an accident at a barn raising. Another John Henry probably the son of Robert) wrote his will on Jan. 4, 1847 mentioning Margaret Henry, widow, and her children: John, Matthew, Sarah Jane, Catherine and Margaret. This will was proved 3 Feb. 1849, and the next month—March 27th—John Caldwell Jr. appeared with a petition saying that father-in-law, John Henry, had died leaving two sons, John and Matthew Hugh, under 14 years of age; daughters, Margaret and Catherine, over 14 years, and asking that he be appointed their guardian. His request was granted and John Caldwell Sr. approved as security.

Stewart's History states that Margaret Henry's maiden name was Miller and that she and John Henry were married in Londonderry, Ire., and had one child when they sailed for America. She died March 9, 1856, in Armstrong twp., Indiana Co. In her will written in 1852 she mentions sons, John and Matthew; daughters, Catherine, wife of Samuel Knox, and Margaret Dean; grandchildren, Margaret Agnes Caldwell, James and Thomas Caldwell. She also mentioned the Clarksburg Reformed Presbyterian Church. Both John and Margaret are said to be buried in West Union Cemetery, Armstrong twp., Indiana Co.

Answers to previous questions:

126. April 11, 1940, H.S.I., BRADY-SWEARINGEN. Drusilla, dau. of Capt. Van Swearingen, Washington Co., Pa., was the wife of Capt. Samuel Brady. She died in Tyler Co., Va. See Caldwell's History of Indiana Co., Pa. for history of Capt. Brady. E.R.R.

127. April 4, 1940, T.F.T., THOMAS. Jesse Thomas, son of Dubre and Mary Heffelfinger Thomas, b. in Washington twp., Indiana Co., Pa., June 29, 1836, md. Juliette Robinson, dau. of Robert T. Robinson and Nancy Dixon, b. 1839, d. March 7, 1920.

Robert T. Robinson was a son of John Robinson Sr. and Isabella Gaston (his 2nd wife). John Robinson was the son of Robert Robinson and Mary Taggart. Children of Jesse and Juliette Robinson Thomas are as follows: 1. John L., md. Cynthia Brenizer; 2. Mary, b. 1864, md. Calvin Walker; 3. William, md. Blanche Wissinger; 4. Dubre, died when one and a half years old. Children of John L. and Cynthia Brenizer Thomas are as follows: 1. Muriel; 2. Arthur H.; 3. Jesse B.; 4. Eleanor B.; 5. Theodore. H.P.B.

JAMES ELDER. Sometime ago the will of James Elder (No. 44, 1st Will Book Indiana Co., Pa.) was published. It appeared as follows: "James Elder. Mentions: ch., Thomas under 16 yrs. of age, John, Joshua, Rachel, Robert, David and Polly. His mother was mentioned but name not given." Etc., etc. E.R.R. kindly sent in the name of his wife which was Martha Robinson. Now, we have extra data from H.P.B. as follows: James Elder, son of Robert and Margaret Taylor Elder (grandson of Robert Elder and wife he married in Ireland) was b. Dauphin Co., Pa., 1763; removed to Indiana Co., Pa., where he died April 13, 1813 (this was two days after his will was written). He married Dec. 25, 1782, Martha Robinson, dau. of Robert Robinson and Rachel Wier, b.

1770; d. May 27, 1812. Children of James and Martha Robinson Elder were: 1. Robert Robinson, b. Oct. 8, 1783; md. Sarah Sherer. 2. David, b. Aug. 22, 1785, md. Julianna Sherer. 3. John, b. Oct. 2, 1797; md. Elizabeth McKee. 4. Polly, b. Oct. 22, 1799; md. Samuel Russell. 5. Joshua, b. Jan. 18, 1802; md. Elizabeth Sherer. 6. James, b. Jan. 18, 1804; md. Margaret Barnett. 7. Rachel, b. Dec. 18, 1806; md. Rev. Jesse Smith. 8. Thomas, b. March 1, 1810; md. Elizabeth Coleman. Will not vouch for authenticity. Was mailed when H.P.B. was searching for Robert and Mary Taggart Robinson data.

All this information is quite valuable. According to Stewart's History of Indiana Co. Robert Elder was born in Co. Down, Ireland, and came to America about 1730. Will gladly publish more data on this family, since there are many descendants throughout Pennsylvania and other states.

Editor.

LEVERE-SAY. Who were the parents of Daniel Levere, b. 1766, of French ancestry (?); died in Butler Co., Pa., 1844. He md. Rosanna Say, b. 1773, dau. of James Say and Mary Reed of Cumberland and Mifflin Co. Their eldest son, named John, was born in Fairfield, Westmoreland Co., in 1796, shortly after which they set out for Venango and took up land in Mercer twp., now Butler Co.

According to family tradition, he was a drummer-boy in the Revolution. In 1794, he enlisted in the Fairfield Militia, in the records of which, given in the Penna. Archives, the name is variously rendered Laveere, Laver, Levar, Levoire, Levour, Levoyer, Levyer, Levier and Lavery.

In the tax records of Fairfield Bedford Co., for 1772, he appeared as Daniel Levoire, and as Daniel Levere in Fairfield, Westmoreland, in 1783. In 1786 Daniel Levar was assessed on 100 A.—2horses—2 cows; evidently an older man than the Daniel b. 1766. Were they father and son?—and was the father the Daniel Lafaar of Ligonier Valley who signed the Petition to the Governor in 1768 for help against the Indians? What became of this Daniel Lafaar? He does not seem to be listed in the 1790 census, but a John Lavery is recorded in what appears to be Fairfield, Bedford Co., with a male over sixteen (p. 25), adjoining another of the name with no children.

Some of the descendants of Daniel in Butler Co. use the capital V, LeVier, and assert that is the proper spelling. If so, it would indicate descent from the Fiere-Ferree Family of Lancaster to which the article La or Le was sometimes added, as in the case of John Lafaree (Lavery) of Cumberland and Franklin Co. whose progenitor was Daniel Fiere, b. 1760.

Any information, data, or suggestions for further study will be warmly welcomed, and shared with other inquirers. A. C. C. (Okla.)

STEEL (STEELE) FAMILY.
With all those interested in Steel genealogy we are indeed grateful to A. F. L. (Pa.) for the following data copied from Westmoreland Co. History:

Honorable John B. Steel of Greensburg, Pa., first President Judge of Separate Orphans Court, Westmoreland Co., is eldest son of William and Sarah Jane Brown Steel, b. 2-17-1761 on Hannastown farm, seat of famous old town of Hannastown which was burned by the Indians 1772 in Hempfield Twp., Westmoreland Co. Judge Steel came from sturdy Scotch-Irish race that has done so much for the cause of liberty and development of the country, being Scotch Irish in every line of ancestry. His great-grandfather James Steel was born in Castle Blaney, near Carrick Macross, Ireland, about 1741; emigrated to America after the Steel Boy Insurrection 1772; he stopped on the Eastern side of the mts. at that Scotch Irish hive in Cumberland, now Franklin Co.; he moved Westward about 1773, settling on land in Sewickley Manor, now Mt. Pleasant Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., about the time of the formation of Westmoreland Co. He bought lands from the Penns and became an important landowner in his day of land that is now Connells-ville—400 acres had been passed down through his descendants and is now owned by his great-grandson, Joseph W. Steel. True to the character of his race he became a great agitator for freedom, was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Association formed to protect the Western country; he was in the Revolutionary Army 3 years; took the Oath of Allegiance required by all foreign-born citizens before Hugh Martin, justice of the country 3-3-1777; served with Robert and Andrew Donaldson in campaign of the Jerseys. He was married to Elizabeth Mc-Masters, a sister of James Mc-Masters who lived near his farm. They had two children; Joseph Steel (Married Barbara Blystone, Franklin twp., Westmoreland Co.) Jane Steel (married William Hunter near Loudensville, Perryville, Richland Co., Ohio). About the close of the Revolutionary War James Steel married Elizabeth Donaldson. They had three children: Elizabeth, b. 9-21-1758, married Alexander Hamilton of Ruffs-dale; James Steel, b. 9-17-1787, m. Martha McCutcheon, Franklin Twp.; John Steel, 4-7-1789, m. Martha Walker, his cousin of Va., near Steubenville; James Steel, the great great grandfa-ther died Sept. 10, 1823, Middle Presbyterian Church, Mt. Pleasant Twp. is the site of the bur-ial.

John Steele acquired the old William Oliver Steele d.; Jos. homestead in Mt. Pleasant Twp. in 1816, purchased Robert Hanna farm on which was located Hannastown, former county seat of Westmoreland Co. embraced all Western Pa. The property became the homestead of John Steel, father of Judge Steel. To John Steel and Martha Walker were born 9 children; Sarah m. Henry ? of Grapeville; James m. Art. 33. Rotation.

We shall first consider rotation of the initial line in polar coordinates.

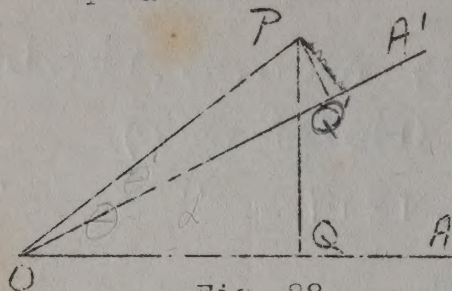

Fig. 22.

Let OA be the original initial line and OA' the new initial line making an angle α with OA. Let P be any point with coordinates (ρ, θ) when referred to OA and (ρ', θ') when re-

(VII) ferred to (OA'). Then $\theta' = \theta - \alpha$ or $\theta = \theta' + \alpha$, ρ remains unchanged, i. e. $\rho' = \rho$.

If, now, we project P upon OA in Q and also upon OA' in Q', we have for rectangular coordinates of P referred to OA and the perpendicular to it through O, $x = OQ$, $y = QP$. Also for the rectangular coordinates of P referred to OA' and the perpendicular to it through O, $x' = OQ'$, $y' = Q'P$ where also

$$x = \rho \cos \theta, y = \rho \sin \theta$$

$$x' = \rho \cos \theta', y' = \rho \sin \theta'$$

Now by taking the sine of $\theta = \theta' + \alpha$ and multiplying by ρ , we observe that these quantities make their appearance thus:

$$\sin \theta = \sin \theta' \cos \alpha + \cos \theta' \sin \alpha$$

$$\rho \sin \theta = \rho \sin \theta' \cos \alpha + \rho \cos \theta' \sin \alpha$$

$$(VIII) \quad y = y' \cos \alpha + x' \sin \alpha$$

Likewise taking the cosine:

$$\cos \theta = \cos \theta' \cos \alpha - \sin \theta' \sin \alpha$$

$$\rho \cos \theta = \rho \cos \theta' \cos \alpha - \rho \sin \theta' \sin \alpha$$

$$(VIII) \quad x = x' \cos \alpha - y' \sin \alpha$$

These formulas express the old in terms of the new coordinate. Proceeding similarly with $\theta' = \theta - \alpha$ we obtain the formulas expressing the new coordinates in terms of the old.

Summary: When Stephen Barlow set up his land deal 1819 (deed), John Henderson was a member.
1831 our Joseph buys from John Henderson; Andrew buys from Anderson (part of Barlow lashup).
They all buy & sell & pay taxes for and among relatives. Who, then is John Henderson to us? Joseph has 1c in Scrubgrass 1833. Ven Co hist says Andrew in Scrubgrass 1816. On whose property?
Where is Joseph 1835-42?
We know nothing of our William Henderson's brother John. This John might be in his line. Think another possibility unlikely.
1839 Thomas 24, son of Andrew 1843 Charles 25; son of Andrew.

Samuel defaults on his property. Christopher evidently paid taxes on it though deed to son John. John's son Renwick bur Kilgore 1839 (tombstone). Samuel in Mercer 1840 census. Unmarried. M Catharine, has Andrew Jackson, Samuel bur Mercer 1847. Christopher, H'gh, John move to Mercer 1842.

In the name of God Amen: I, John Henderson, of the Borough & County of Huntingdon & State of Pennsylvania, Doctor of Medicine, making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made and to collect as son after my decease as the same can be effected without subjecting my estate to any avoidable expense, all monies which may be due & owing to me at the time of my decease by hand note or otherwise; and after first paying my funeral expenses and all legal charges against my Estate as follows to wit: Whereas in the education of my Sons. Setting them up in life & afterwards supporting them for at time, I have advanced considerably larger sums of money to some of them than to the others as will appear by "Book of accounts and private memoranda" to which I refer to fix & determine the amounts of the said advancements; and whereas it is my Will & intention that my sons should receive equal portions as nearly as may be of my Estate, taking into view the sums advanced to them respectively as aforesaid. I do order and direct my Executors to pay to my sons, Andres A. & William II. Out of the monies aforesaid and if necessary other monies which may be received by my Executors in the Settlement of my Estate, so much as will make their accounts equal to the sums advanced as aforesaid to my sons Matthew A. & I. Kearsley [?], the whole amount necessary to make such equalization to be paid to my sons Andrews A. Immediately & to William I. In installments of five hundred a year until the whole be paid, and whatever may remain of my personal Estate I direct to be equally divided amongst my four sons. And to my real estate which I hereby classify range & number in parcels proper from their location & situation to be considered valued & taken by my sons in the names hereafter mentioned as district parts or properties. I order & direct my Executors as soon as the above & within arrangements with respect to my personal property be made to employ three respectable & disinterested persons in the neighbourhood of the property, to appraise & set a value on each part or property, separately which appraisement & valuation shall be made in writing. Signed by the said appraisers & filed by my Executors in the office of the Register for the Probate of Wills & granting letters of administration in and for the county of Huntingdon; that is to say: 1st all my "Strong Farm" of one hundred and forty six acres & including six tracts of unseated mountain & timberlands numbered in the "Schedule of the Titles to my real Estate" as Nos. 7,8,9,10,11,12 as by reference to said Schedule will appear: Situate South West of the mouth of the Raystown Branch of the Juniata River & containing in the whole Seventeen or eighteen hundred acres more or less.
